4. Indemnification The General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "GCL") permits indemnification of directors and officers, employees and others against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with specified actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation -- a "derivative action") if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. A similar standard of conduct is applicable in the case of derivative actions, except that indemnification only extends to expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with defense or settlement of such an action.

The Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation provides that each person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other, by reason of the fact that such person, or a person of whom such person is a legal representative, is or was a director, officer, or employee of the Corporation, or is or was serving in the course of such employment, or at the request of the Corporation, as a director, officer, employee or representative of another entity, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the GCL, as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, against all expense, liability or loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "1933 Act") may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Corporation pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Corporation has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

5. Legal Opinion The legality of the shares offered hereby has been passed on by Stephen R. Bosin, Esq. Mr. Bosin is an attorney in the Law Department of Curtiss-Wright Corporation, 1200 Wall Street West, Lyndhurst, NJ 07071. Mr. Bosin is the owner of 400 shares of Common Stock of the Corporation.
