PRELIMINARY PROXY

, 2001

Dear Stockholder:

In November 2000, Curtiss-Wright Corporation and Unitrin, Inc., the holder of approximately 44% of our outstanding capital stock, announced a series of transactions that will permit Unitrin to distribute to its stockholders in a tax-free distribution the approximately 4.4 million shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock currently held by Unitrin. In order for the distribution to be tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes, among other things, Unitrin must own, at the time of the distribution, capital stock of Curtiss-Wright having the right to elect at least 80% of our board, and Unitrin must distribute all of that stock to its stockholders in a single transaction. Accordingly, we are proposing the changes to our capital structure described in the proxy statement accompanying this letter.

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of stockholders of Curtiss-Wright to be held on , 2001, at 10:00 a.m., at the Renaissance Meadowlands Hotel, 801 Rutherford Avenue, Rutherford, New Jersey. At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon five proposals. The first of these proposals is the recapitalization that will permit the tax-free distribution by Unitrin. The recapitalization involves the creation of a new class of common stock of Curtiss-Wright having the right to elect at least 80% of our board. In the recapitalization Unitrin will receive shares of this class of stock in exchange for its existing shares. In all other respects the rights of the holders of the two classes of common stock will be substantially identical, including with respect to voting rights on fundamental transactions affecting Curtiss-Wright.

As a technical matter, you will be voting to adopt a second amended and restated agreement and plan of merger, dated as of August 17, 2001, among Curtiss-Wright, Unitrin and CW Disposition Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of Unitrin, as a means to effect the recapitalization. The merger agreement provides for certain amendments to our certificate of incorporation that are necessary to effect the recapitalization.

The recapitalization, the distribution and the related transactions, which are described in the accompanying proxy statement, are designed to provide the following benefits:

The transactions will eliminate the substantial influence that Unitrin has the ability to exert in matters voted on by Curtiss-Wright stockholders.

The transactions will significantly increase the liquidity and public float of Curtiss-Wright's capital stock by increasing the number of shares held by public stockholders, other than Unitrin, from about 5.7 million shares to about 10.1 million shares. In addition, the transactions will result in a broader stockholder base when Unitrin distributes the Class B common stock to its approximately 8,000 stockholders, which will essentially triple our existing stockholder base of approximately 3,600 stockholders.

A broader stockholder base, coupled with increased liquidity for our shares, is expected to attract additional analyst coverage of Curtiss-Wright, which is expected to enhance the market's awareness of Curtiss-Wright capital stock and stimulate demand from new investors.

We expect that an increase in our stockholder base and broader exposure in the investment community will facilitate the use of Curtiss-Wright's capital stock as an acquisition currency and as a source of capital.

The transactions are expected to enhance our ability to provide equity incentives to existing management and top corporate employees, as well as to potential new management and employees.

You will also be asked to consider and vote upon four proposals that, if approved, will amend our certificate of incorporation to provide for changes which we believe will help foster our long-term growth as an independent company following the recapitalization and distribution and will help protect our stockholders from potentially coercive or abusive takeover tactics and efforts to acquire control of Curtiss-Wright at a price or on terms that are not in the best interests of all Curtiss-Wright stockholders. These corporate governance amendments are described in detail in the accompanying proxy statement.

THE ACCOMPANYING PROXY STATEMENT PROVIDES INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROPOSED TRANSACTIONS. OUR BOARD ENCOURAGES YOU TO READ THE ENTIRE PROXY STATEMENT AND THE APPENDICES CAREFULLY.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS DETERMINED THAT THE RECAPITALIZATION PROPOSAL AND THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS ARE ADVISABLE AND IN YOUR BEST INTERESTS AND RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE 'FOR' THESE PROPOSALS.

Thank you for your continued support.

Very truly yours,
MARTIN R. BENANTE

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

, 2001

To the Stockholders of CURTISS-WRIGHT CORPORATION:

We are giving you notice that a special meeting of stockholders of Curtiss-Wright Corporation, a Delaware corporation, will be held at the Renaissance Meadowlands Hotel, 801 Rutherford Avenue, Rutherford, New Jersey on , 2001, at 10:00 a.m., local time, for the following purposes:

(1) Recapitalization Proposal. To approve the adoption of a second amended and restated agreement and plan of merger, dated as of August 17, 2001, among Curtiss-Wright, Unitrin and CW Disposition Company, a newly formed, wholly owned subsidiary of Unitrin. The merger agreement provides for a recapitalization of Curtiss-Wright involving the creation of a new Class B common stock of Curtiss-Wright having the right to elect at least 80% of the Curtiss-Wright board of directors. The recapitalization is being proposed to facilitate the tax-free distribution by Unitrin to its stockholders of its approximately 44% interest in Curtiss-Wright. In the recapitalization, Unitrin will effectively exchange the 4,382,400 shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock held by it for an equal number of shares of Class B common stock of Curtiss-Wright. The exchange will be effected through the merger of CW Disposition Company with and into Curtiss-Wright. Immediately following the merger, Unitrin will distribute the shares of Class B common stock to its stockholders.

(2) Corporate Governance Amendments. You are also being asked to approve a number of proposals that would, if approved, amend our certificate of incorporation at the effective time of the merger of CW Disposition Company with and into Curtiss-Wright as follows:

(a) Board Size Proposal. To approve an amendment to our certificate of incorporation to place a ten member maximum on the size of the board.

(b) Written Consent Proposal. To approve an amendment to our certificate of incorporation to eliminate the ability of our stockholders to act by written consent.

(c) Special Meeting Proposal. To approve an amendment to our certificate of incorporation to eliminate the ability of our stockholders to call special meetings.

(d) Supermajority Voting Proposal. To approve an amendment to our certificate of incorporation to require approval of 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of our stock entitled to vote, voting together as a single class, to alter, amend, rescind or repeal our by-laws by action of our stockholders or to adopt or modify the provisions of our certificate of incorporation relating to:

the size of the board and the filling of board vacancies and newly created directorships;

the inability of our stockholders to act by written consent;

the inability of our stockholders to call special meetings of the stockholders; and the 66 2/3% vote required in order for our stockholders to modify any of the provisions of the certificate of incorporation described above, including the 66 2/3% voting requirement.

None of the corporate governance amendments will become effective unless the recapitalization is completed. These items of business are more fully described in the proxy statement accompanying this notice.

Unitrin has agreed to vote its shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock in favor of the recapitalization proposal and each of the corporate governance amendments.

(3) Other Business. To conduct such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements, including, if submitted to a vote of the stockholders, a motion to adjourn the special meeting to another time or place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS DETERMINED THAT THE RECAPITALIZATION PROPOSAL AND THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS ARE ADVISABLE AND IN YOUR BEST INTERESTS AND RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE 'FOR' THESE PROPOSALS.

Stockholders of Record

Only holders of record of common stock at the close of business on , 2001 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. A list of those holders will be available for examination by any stockholder at the special meeting and at the offices of Curtiss-Wright, 1200 Wall Street West, Suite 501, Lyndhurst, New Jersey 07071, during ordinary business hours during the ten-day period prior to the special meeting date.

All stockholders are cordially invited to attend the meeting in person. Stockholders who plan to attend the meeting in person are nevertheless requested to sign and return their proxies to ensure that their stock will be represented at the meeting should they be prevented unexpectedly from attending.

THIS IS AN IMPORTANT SPECIAL MEETING THAT AFFECTS YOUR INVESTMENT IN CURTISS-WRIGHT.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE RECAPITALIZATION AND THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS

Q: WHAT AM I BEING ASKED TO VOTE UPON IN THE RECAPITALIZATION?

A: You are being asked to adopt a merger agreement providing for the recapitalization of Curtiss-Wright. This will involve the creation of a new class of common stock of Curtiss-Wright. The new class of common stock will be called Class B common stock and will have the right to elect 80% of our directors or the next highest whole number. The holders of shares of common stock will have the right to elect the remaining members of the Curtiss-Wright board of directors. Shares of Class B common stock will be issued to Unitrin in the recapitalization in exchange for the approximately 4.4 million shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock currently held by Unitrin. Unitrin will then distribute the Class B common stock to its stockholders in the distribution.

Q: OTHER THAN THE VOTING RIGHTS FOR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, IS THERE ANY DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A SHARE OF COMMON STOCK AND A SHARE OF CLASS B COMMON STOCK?

A: No. In all other respects the rights of the holders of the common stock and the Class B common stock will be identical, including with respect to voting rights on fundamental transactions affecting Curtiss-Wright.

Q: WHAT STOCKHOLDER APPROVALS ARE NEEDED FOR THE RECAPITALIZATION PROPOSAL?

A: The recapitalization requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock. In addition, the recapitalization will happen only if approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of our common stock, other than shares held by Unitrin, that vote on the recapitalization in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Unitrin has agreed to vote its shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock in favor of the recapitalization proposal.

Q: WHY IS CURTISS-WRIGHT PROPOSING THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS?

A: We believe that after the recapitalization and distribution, we will be vulnerable to unsolicited attempts to acquire control of our company. We believe that the corporate governance amendments will help foster our long-term growth as an independent company following the recapitalization and the distribution and will help protect our stockholders from potentially abusive takeover tactics to acquire control of Curtiss-Wright at a price or on terms that are not in the best interests of all Curtiss-Wright stockholders.

Q: WHAT STOCKHOLDER APPROVALS ARE NEEDED FOR THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS?

A: Each of the corporate governance amendments requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock. Unitrin has agreed to vote its shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock in favor of each of the corporate governance amendments.

Q: WILL THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS BE IMPLEMENTED EVEN IF THE RECAPITALIZATION AND DISTRIBUTION DO NOT HAPPEN?

A: No.

Q: WILL THE RECAPITALIZATION AND DISTRIBUTION HAPPEN IF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS ARE NOT APPROVED?

A: Yes.

Q: WHAT IF I DO NOT VOTE?

A: If you fail to respond, it will have the same effect as a vote against the recapitalization and the corporate governance amendments. If you respond and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the recapitalization and the corporate governance amendments. If you respond and abstain from voting, your proxy will have the same effect as a vote against the recapitalization and the corporate governance amendments, although your abstention will have no effect with respect to the separate required vote of the shares not held by Unitrin.

Q: CAN I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE DELIVERED MY PROXY?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways. First, you can revoke your proxy. Second, you can submit a new proxy. If you choose either of these two methods, you must submit your notice of revocation or your new proxy to the secretary of Curtiss-Wright before the special meeting. If your shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm or bank, you should contact your brokerage firm or bank to change your vote. Third, if you are a holder of record, you can attend the special meeting and vote in person.

Q: SHOULD I SEND IN MY STOCK CERTIFICATES NOW?

A: No. Other than Unitrin, stockholders of Curtiss-Wright will not be exchanging share certificates. Please do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy.

Q: WILL THE SHARES OF CURTISS-WRIGHT COMMON STOCK CONTINUE TO BE LISTED ON THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE?

A: Following the recapitalization and distribution, shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock will continue to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol 'CW.' The Class B common stock is expected to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol 'CWB.'

Q: WHEN DO YOU EXPECT THE RECAPITALIZATION AND DISTRIBUTION TO BE COMPLETED?

A: We expect the recapitalization and the distribution to be completed promptly following receipt of stockholder approval of the recapitalization proposal.

Q: WHO CAN HELP ANSWER MY QUESTIONS?

A: If you have any questions about the recapitalization or how to submit your proxy, or if you need additional copies of this proxy statement or the enclosed proxy card or voting instructions, you should contact:

Background and Proposed Transactions

Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin, the holder of approximately 44% of Curtiss-Wright's outstanding capital stock, have previously announced a series of transactions that will permit Unitrin to distribute to its stockholders in a tax-free distribution the approximately 4.4 million shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock currently held by Unitrin. In order to permit this distribution to be tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes, Curtiss-Wright proposes to make the changes to its capital structure described in this proxy statement.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

Recapitalization Proposal. You are being asked to approve the adoption of a second amended and restated agreement and plan of merger, dated as of August 17, 2001, among Curtiss-Wright, Unitrin and CW Disposition Company, a newly formed and wholly owned subsidiary of Unitrin. The merger agreement provides for a recapitalization of Curtiss-Wright involving the creation of a new class of common stock of Curtiss-Wright called Class B common stock. The recapitalization is being proposed because current U.S. federal income tax law requires that, in order for the distribution to be tax-free to Unitrin and its stockholders, among other things, Unitrin must own, at the time of the distribution, capital stock of Curtiss-Wright having the right to elect at least 80% of our board of directors, and must distribute all of that stock to its stockholders in a single transaction. First, Unitrin will contribute to CW Disposition Company all of its Curtiss-Wright common stock. Second, CW Disposition Company will merge with and into Curtiss-Wright and the shares of common stock of CW Disposition Company held by Unitrin will be converted into 4,382,400 shares of Class B common stock of Curtiss-Wright. Each Curtiss-Wright stockholder other than Unitrin will retain its shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock. All shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock held by CW Disposition Company will be canceled in accordance with the merger agreement. We refer to these transactions in this proxy statement as the recapitalization.

The holders of shares of Class B common stock will be entitled to elect at least 80% of our board of directors. The holders of shares of common stock will have the right to elect the remaining members of our board of directors. In all other respects the rights of the holders of the common stock and the Class B common stock will be identical, including with respect to voting rights on fundamental transactions affecting Curtiss-Wright. The minimum number of directors on our board will be set at five so that the holders of common stock will always be entitled to elect at least one director. All of the Class B common stock issued to Unitrin in the recapitalization will be distributed by Unitrin to its stockholders immediately following the recapitalization. See 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Description of the Recapitalization Amendments' on page 17 and 'Description of the Merger Agreement and Distribution Agreement -- The Merger Agreement -- Recapitalization and Merger' on page 25.

Distribution. If the recapitalization proposal is approved and the other conditions described in the merger agreement and the second amended and restated distribution agreement, dated as of August 17, 2001, between Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin are met, then immediately following the completion of the recapitalization, but only on the date that the recapitalization is completed, Unitrin will distribute to its stockholders, in proportion to the number of Unitrin shares they hold, all of the shares of Class B common stock that Unitrin receives in the recapitalization. See 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions' on page 12 and 'Description of the Merger Agreement and Distribution Agreement -- The Distribution Agreement' on page 28.

Corporate Governance Amendments. You are also being asked to approve a number of proposals that would, if approved, amend our certificate of incorporation as follows:

Board Size Proposal. If this proposal is approved, our certificate of incorporation will be amended to place a ten member maximum on the size of the board.

Written Consent Proposal. If this proposal is approved, our certificate of incorporation will be amended to eliminate the ability of our stockholders to act by written consent.

Special Meeting Proposal. If this proposal is approved, our certificate of incorporation will be amended to eliminate the ability of our stockholders to call special meetings.

Supermajority Voting Proposals. If this proposal is approved, our certificate of incorporation will be amended to require approval of 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of our stock entitled to vote, voting together as a single class, to alter, amend, rescind or repeal our by-laws by action of our stockholders or to adopt or modify the provisions of our certificate of incorporation relating to:

the size of the board and the filling of board vacancies and newly created directorships,

the inability of our stockholders to act by written consent,

the inability of our stockholders to call special meetings of the stockholders, and the 66 2/3% vote required in order for our stockholders to modify any of the provisions of the certificate of incorporation described above.

See 'Proposals Two, Three, Four and Five: Corporate Governance Amendments -- The Corporate Governance Amendments' on page 36.

Expected Benefits of the Transactions to Curtiss-Wright and its Stockholders

The recapitalization, the distribution and the related transactions described in this proxy statement are designed to produce the following benefits, which are described in greater detail under 'Proposal

One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Curtiss-Wright's Reasons for the Recapitalization and Related Transactions' on page 15:

The transactions will eliminate the substantial influence that Unitrin has the ability to exert in matters voted on by Curtiss-Wright stockholders.

The transactions will significantly increase the liquidity and public float of Curtiss-Wright's capital stock by increasing the number of shares held by public stockholders, other than Unitrin, from about 5.7 million shares to about 10.1 million shares. In addition, the transactions will result in a broader stockholder base when Unitrin distributes the Class B common stock to its approximately 8,000 stockholders which will essentially triple our existing stockholder base of approximately 3,600 stockholders.

A broader stockholder base, coupled with increased liquidity for our shares, is expected to attract additional analyst coverage of Curtiss-Wright, which is expected to enhance the market's awareness of Curtiss-Wright capital stock and stimulate demand from new investors.

We expect that an increase in our stockholder base and broader exposure in the investment community will facilitate the use of Curtiss-Wright's capital stock as an acquisition currency and as a source of capital.

The transactions are expected to enhance our ability to provide equity incentives to existing management and top corporate employees, as well as to potential new management and employees.

The transactions are expected to be the least disruptive method for Unitrin to dispose of its ownership interest in Curtiss-Wright. Alternative transactions could have resulted in one or more large, new Curtiss-Wright stockholders or could have involved public sales that could adversely affect Curtiss-Wright's stock price.

The corporate governance amendments will help foster our long-term growth as an independent company following the recapitalization and the distribution and will help protect our stockholders from potentially coercive or abusive takeover tactics and efforts to acquire control of Curtiss-Wright at a price or on terms that are not in the best interests of all Curtiss-Wright stockholders.

Expenses

Unitrin and Curtiss-Wright will each pay their own expenses in connection with the recapitalization and distribution, except that Unitrin has agreed to reimburse Curtiss-Wright on the date that the recapitalization and distribution are completed for up to $1.75 million in documented out-of-pocket expenses solely and directly related to the transactions. See 'Description of the Merger Agreement and Distribution Agreement -- The Merger Agreement -- Expenses' on page 27 and ' -- The Distribution Agreement -- Other Agreements -- Expenses' on page 32.

Conditions to the Transactions and Other Proposals

The recapitalization and the distribution will only happen if all of the necessary conditions are satisfied or waived. These conditions include, among other things, the receipt of a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (which was received on May 24, 2001) and the approval of the recapitalization proposal by the vote set forth below under ' -- Required Vote' on page 6. None of the corporate governance amendments will be implemented unless the recapitalization is completed. For a description of the other conditions to the recapitalization and the distribution, see 'Description of the Merger Agreement and Distribution Agreement -- The Merger Agreement -- Conditions to the Merger' on page 25 and ' -- The Distribution Agreement -- Conditions to the Declaration and Distribution' on page 28.

Board of Directors Recommendation

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS DETERMINED THAT THE RECAPITALIZATION PROPOSAL AND THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS ARE ADVISABLE AND IN YOUR BEST INTERESTS AND RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE 'FOR' EACH OF THESE PROPOSALS. See 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Recommendation of the Curtiss-Wright Board' on page 21 and 'Proposals Two, Three, Four and Five:

Corporate Governance Amendments -- Recommendation of the Curtiss-Wright Board' on page 38.

Required Vote

Each outstanding share of Curtiss-Wright common stock is entitled to one vote on each proposal. Under Delaware law, adoption of the merger agreement and approval of each of the corporate governance amendments requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Curtiss-Wright common stock entitled to vote on such proposal. In addition, the recapitalization will happen only if the holders of a majority of the shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock present in person or by proxy at the special meeting and voting on the recapitalization proposal, other than shares held by Unitrin, vote to adopt the merger agreement. Throughout this proxy statement, when we refer to the approval of the recapitalization proposal by our stockholders we are referring to both the adoption of the merger agreement under Delaware law and the vote described in the previous sentence. See 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Required Vote' on page 21 and 'Proposals Two, Three, Four and Five: Corporate Governance Amendments -- Required Vote' on page 38.

Unitrin has agreed to vote its shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock in favor of the recapitalization proposal and each of the corporate governance amendments.

Appendices to be Read Carefully

The merger agreement is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement. The distribution agreement is attached as Appendix B. We have attached two versions of the certificate of incorporation. Appendix C-1 includes the recapitalization amendments and the corporate governance amendments, which will become effective if the recapitalization proposal and all of the corporate governance amendments are approved. Appendix C-2 includes the recapitalization amendments and shows how our certificate of incorporation will read if only some of the corporate governance amendments are approved. We have also attached two versions of the by-laws. Appendix D-1 includes amendments adopted in connection with our board's approval of the recapitalization proposal as well as changes to our by-laws relating solely to the corporate governance amendments, which will become effective if the recapitalization proposal and all of the corporate governance amendments are approved. Appendix D-2 includes amendments adopted in connection with our board's approval of the recapitalization proposal and shows how our by-laws will read if only some of the corporate governance amendments are approved.

WE ENCOURAGE YOU TO READ THIS PROXY STATEMENT, THE MERGER AGREEMENT, THE DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT AND BOTH VERSIONS OF THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BY-LAWS CAREFULLY IN THEIR ENTIRETY.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Corporate Governance Amendments. Our board of directors has determined that each of the board size proposal, the written consent proposal, the special meeting proposal and the supermajority voting proposal is advisable and in the best interests of Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE 'FOR' APPROVAL OF EACH OF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS.

RECORD DATE AND SHARES ENTITLED TO VOTE

Only holders of record of Curtiss-Wright's common stock at the close of business on the record date, which is , 2001, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. A list of the stockholders of record will be available for inspection at the special meeting and at our headquarters located at 1200 Wall Street West, Suite 501, Lyndhurst, New Jersey 07071, during ordinary business hours for the ten-day period prior to the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, there were shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. A majority of these shares, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

VOTING OF PROXIES

The proxy accompanying this proxy statement is solicited on behalf of your board of directors for use at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. Stockholders are requested to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and promptly return it in the enclosed envelope. So long as they are not revoked, all properly executed proxies received by Curtiss-Wright prior to the vote at the special meeting will be voted at the special meeting in accordance with the instructions indicated on the proxies or, if no direction is indicated, to approve the recapitalization proposal and each of the corporate governance amendments and to approve those other matters that may properly come before the special meeting at the discretion of the person named in the proxy. You may revoke your proxy at any time before its use by delivering to the secretary of Curtiss-Wright at the above address, written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

REQUIRED VOTE

Each outstanding share of Curtiss-Wright common stock is entitled to one vote on each of the proposals and any other matter which properly comes before the special meeting.

Recapitalization Proposal. Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote thereon. In addition, the recapitalization will be implemented only if the holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock voting on the recapitalization proposal in person or by proxy at the special meeting, other than Unitrin, vote to adopt the merger agreement.

Board Size Proposal. The board size proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock.

Written Consent Proposal. The written consent proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock.

Special Meeting Proposal. The special meeting proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock.

Supermajority Voting Proposal. The supermajority voting proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock.

Shares Held by Unitrin and by Curtiss-Wright Executive Officers and Directors. As of the record date and the date of this proxy statement, Unitrin owned 4,382,400 shares of common stock, representing approximately 44% of the shares outstanding as of these dates. In addition, as of the record date, current executive officers and directors of Curtiss-Wright beneficially owned an additional shares of common stock, representing approximately % of the shares outstanding. Curtiss-Wright expects that all executive officers and directors will vote in favor of each of the proposals being submitted for stockholder approval.

Vote by Unitrin. Unitrin has agreed with Curtiss-Wright to vote or cause to be voted all shares of common stock owned by it and any of its subsidiaries, representing approximately 44% of the outstanding shares of common stock, to approve the recapitalization proposal and each of the corporate governance amendments.

QUORUM, ABSTENTIONS AND BROKER NON-VOTES

The required quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting is the presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the shares of common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. If your shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm or bank, you must instruct them on how to vote your shares. If an executed proxy card is returned by a broker or bank holding shares which indicates that the broker or bank does not have discretionary authority to vote for approval of the recapitalization proposal and/or the corporate governance amendments, this will be considered to be a broker non-vote. Abstentions and broker non-votes each will be included in determining the number of shares present at the special meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. Because under applicable law approval of the recapitalization proposal and each of the corporate governance amendments requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote thereon, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against each of the proposals. Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin have agreed that the approval of the recapitalization proposal will also require the approval of the holders of a majority of the shares of Curtiss-Wright's common stock that are present in person or by proxy at the special meeting and vote on the proposal, other than shares held by Unitrin. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted in that vote and therefore will not have any effect on the special approval condition for the recapitalization proposal.

The actions proposed in this proxy statement are not matters that can be voted on by brokers holding shares for beneficial owners without the owners' specific instructions. Accordingly, all beneficial owners of common stock are urged to instruct their brokers how to vote.

OTHER MATTERS

The board of directors is not currently aware of any business to be acted upon at the special meeting, other than as described herein. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the special meeting, the persons appointed as proxies will have discretion to vote or act on these matters according to their best judgment, unless otherwise indicated on any particular proxy. The persons appointed as proxies also will have discretion to vote on a motion to adjourn the special meeting, if such a motion is submitted to a vote of the stockholders. Any adjournments may be for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, shares represented by proxies voting against any proposal described in this proxy statement will not be voted in favor of a proposal to adjourn the special meeting for the purposes of soliciting additional proxies with respect to such proposal.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES AND EXPENSES

We have engaged Innisfree M&A, Incorporated to assist us in soliciting proxies from banks, brokers and nominees. Innisfree M&A, Incorporated will be paid fees of approximately $25,000, plus out of pocket expenses. In addition, the directors, officers and employees of Curtiss-Wright may solicit proxies from stockholders by telephone, facsimile or in person. Following the original mailing of this proxy statement and other solicitation materials, Curtiss-Wright will request banks, brokers, custodians, nominees and other record holders to forward copies of this proxy statement and other solicitation materials to people on whose behalf they hold shares of common stock and to request authority for the exercise of proxies by the record holders on behalf of those people. In those cases, Curtiss-Wright, upon the request of the record holders, will reimburse those holders for their reasonable expenses incurred in connection with requesting authority to vote.

THE MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE SPECIAL MEETING ARE OF GREAT IMPORTANCE TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF CURTISS-WRIGHT. ACCORDINGLY, YOU ARE URGED TO READ AND CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE INFORMATION PRESENTED IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT AND THE ATTACHMENTS, AND TO COMPLETE, DATE, SIGN AND PROMPTLY RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD IN THE ENCLOSED POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE. CERTAIN CONSIDERATIONS

You should carefully consider the factors described below before voting on the proposals set forth in this proxy statement.

THE TAX-FREE DISTRIBUTION BY UNITRIN RESULTS IN POTENTIALLY SIGNIFICANT LIMITATIONS ON OUR BUSINESS OPERATIONS AND COULD POTENTIALLY RESULT IN SIGNIFICANT LIABILITIES TO CURTISS-WRIGHT

We have agreed that, if the recapitalization and distribution are completed, until two years after the distribution, we will not merge or consolidate with or into any other corporation, liquidate or partially liquidate, sell or transfer all or substantially all of our assets in a single transaction or series of transactions, or, except as permitted under the Internal Revenue Service procedures applicable to spin-offs, redeem or otherwise repurchase any Curtiss-Wright capital stock, or, subject to certain exceptions, take any other actions that would cause or permit one or more persons to acquire stock representing a 50% or greater interest in Curtiss-Wright, unless, before taking any of these actions, Unitrin obtains a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service at the expense of or, at the election of Unitrin, Curtiss-Wright receives an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to Unitrin and Curtiss-Wright, that those actions will not result in the distribution failing to qualify as a tax-free distribution. We have agreed, as set forth in the distribution agreement, to indemnify Unitrin for specified taxes that may become payable by Unitrin, each member of the consolidated group of corporations of which Unitrin is the common parent corporation and each direct and indirect subsidiary of Unitrin or its stockholders, if our actions give rise to the imposition of those taxes. This indemnification obligation is limited to a total of $135 million. As a result of this agreement and the indemnification obligation, we may be reluctant to pursue or undertake acquisitions and other transactions that become available within the two-year period following the recapitalization and distribution, unless either Unitrin obtains an additional ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or Curtiss-Wright receives an opinion of counsel addressing any proposed transaction. These risks and restrictions may make Curtiss-Wright less attractive to a potential acquiror and otherwise restrict our acquisition activities. See 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Curtiss-Wright's Reasons for the Recapitalization and Related Transactions' on page 15 and ' -- Tax Matters -- Recapitalization and Distribution' on page 22.

STOCK SALES FOLLOWING THE DISTRIBUTION MAY AFFECT OUR STOCK PRICE

The Unitrin stockholders who receive shares of Class B common stock in the distribution may sell all or a substantial portion of these shares in the public market, which could result in downward pressure on our stock price.

POTENTIAL ANTI-TAKEOVER EFFECTS OF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS

The corporate governance amendments, together with the by-laws amendments, the Delaware business combination statute, as described under 'Proposals Two, Three, Four and Five: Corporate Governance Amendments -- Purpose and Effects of the Corporate Governance Amendments' on page 34, and our stockholders' rights plan, which we expect our board will modify in connection with the recapitalization and distribution, as described under ' -- Stockholders Rights Plan' on page 38, may discourage unsolicited takeover bids from third parties or efforts to remove incumbent management or our board of directors, or make these actions more difficult to accomplish, even if a substantial number of stockholders feel this would be in their best interests.

The written consent proposal and the special meeting proposal might lengthen the amount of time required to take stockholder action. The elimination of the ability of stockholders to act by written consent and to call a special meeting will delay stockholders in taking some actions and will require stockholders to wait until the annual meeting or until a special meeting is called by the chairman, the president or the board to take these actions. This may deter or delay some takeover bids.

The supermajority voting proposal permits a minority of the stockholders to block an attempt to amend or repeal some of the provisions of our certificate of incorporation, even if the holders of a majority of our stock were to vote in favor of a repeal or amendment of this provision. The supermajority voting provision also permits a minority of the stockholders to block an attempt by our stockholders to amend or repeal our by-laws.

If the rights under our stockholders' rights plan become exercisable, the economic interest and voting rights of a person or group that attempts to acquire control of or merge with Curtiss-Wright will become diluted. Accordingly, the existence of the rights may deter potential acquirors from making an unsolicited takeover proposal. 'See Proposals Two, Three, Four and Five: Corporate Governance Amendments -- Stockholders' Rights Plan' on page 38.

OWNERSHIP OF CURTISS-WRIGHT COMMON STOCK BY THE SINGLETON GROUP LLC

The Singleton Group LLC currently holds approximately 21% of the equity securities of Unitrin and will own the same percentage of the Class B common stock following the distribution, which will equal approximately 9% of the combined common stock and Class B common stock. If the distribution of the Class B common stock to the Singleton Group LLC occurs, the Singleton Group LLC may have the opportunity to exert substantial influence over the election of the Class B directors.

PROPOSAL ONE: THE RECAPITALIZATION AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

BACKGROUND OF THE RECAPITALIZATION AND THE TRANSACTIONS

Unitrin and its predecessors in interest (principally Teledyne, Inc. and its subsidiaries) have held a substantial equity position in Curtiss-Wright since 1977. Unitrin is engaged through its subsidiaries primarily in the business of selling insurance products to individuals, families and businesses and it also provides thrift and loan products through one of its subsidiaries. In the late 1980s and early 1990s, Teledyne decided to separate its insurance and consumer finance businesses from its manufacturing businesses. Accordingly, in February of 1990, Teledyne formed Unitrin as a wholly owned subsidiary and holding company for its remaining insurance and consumer finance subsidiaries, which together owned the shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock currently held by Unitrin, in order to effect this separation. In April of 1990, Teledyne distributed its entire interest in Unitrin to its stockholders.

In the middle of last year, Unitrin management indicated to Curtiss-Wright that, with the death of Dr. Henry Singleton, the former chairman of Unitrin and Teledyne, and the retirement of Dr. George Roberts, a former director of Unitrin and chairman of the board of directors of Teledyne, both of whom had actively managed Unitrin's interest in Curtiss-Wright, Unitrin could no longer maintain its interest in Curtiss-Wright without diluting the focus of Unitrin's current management from Unitrin's core insurance business. Unitrin further indicated to Curtiss-Wright that, although it had made no determination to do so, Unitrin was considering a distribution to its stockholders of its Curtiss-Wright stock if it could do so on a tax-free basis. Unitrin indicated that it was considering the distribution for a number of reasons, including:

improving the ability of Unitrin's management to focus on its core insurance business;

avoiding the possibility of having to consolidate Unitrin's interest in Curtiss-Wright for accounting purposes; and providing Unitrin a tax-efficient means to dispose of its interest in Curtiss-Wright.

Unitrin's management reviewed with Curtiss-Wright's management the potential terms of a possible recapitalization, including the impact on Curtiss-Wright's capital structure and stockholders' rights, the benefits that would accrue to Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders as a result of a recapitalization and distribution and the restrictions on conduct and indemnification provisions for which Unitrin would seek Curtiss-Wright's agreement.

In response, Curtiss-Wright engaged independent advisors to assist management and its board in considering a possible recapitalization and distribution by Unitrin of its Curtiss-Wright common stock. Curtiss-Wright also asked its advisors to assist it in evaluating the potential impact of any announcement by Unitrin that it had determined to distribute its Curtiss-Wright common stock, the potential transactions that might be undertaken by Unitrin if it were to decide to divest its Curtiss-Wright common stock in any other transaction and the potential impact on Curtiss-Wright of any other divestiture. Curtiss-Wright engaged Salomon Smith Barney Inc. as its financial advisor and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett as its legal advisor to help structure a transaction that would be in the best interests of Curtiss-Wright's stockholders.

Curtiss-Wright and its advisors carefully evaluated the recapitalization and distribution and the possible impact that these transactions would have on Curtiss-Wright's existing public stockholders. Although Unitrin had not indicated to Curtiss-Wright any plans to dispose of its Curtiss-Wright shares other than in a tax-free distribution, Curtiss-Wright and its advisors also considered other transactions that could be effected by Unitrin if a tax-free distribution could not be accomplished. Curtiss-Wright believed that some of the transactions that Unitrin could undertake might not be in the best interests of Curtiss-Wright's other stockholders. For example, Curtiss-Wright believed that a sale by Unitrin of its approximately 44% interest in Curtiss-Wright could divert Curtiss-Wright from its long-term strategic objective without producing any value to other stockholders. Curtiss-Wright also believed that any public market sales by Unitrin of Curtiss-Wright common stock could have a depressing effect on the Curtiss-Wright common stock price.

On September 18, 2000, at a regularly scheduled board meeting, Curtiss-Wright's management and advisors presented to its board of directors a summary of the basic terms of a recapitalization and distribution. Management and the advisors discussed with the board the possible actions Unitrin could take if Curtiss-Wright did not choose to pursue these transactions, and whether those transactions would be in the best interests of all Curtiss-Wright stockholders. Management also reviewed with the board a summary of the provisions of Curtiss-Wright's certificate of incorporation and by-laws and of Delaware law that could provide Curtiss-Wright and its board the ability to react and respond to unsolicited overtures to acquire control of Curtiss-Wright under the present circumstances as well as if the recapitalization and distribution were completed. This review demonstrated Curtiss-Wright's vulnerability to these types of overtures, which the board believed could arise both as a result of a potential announcement by Unitrin that it intended to distribute its interest in Curtiss-Wright to its stockholders and as a result of the completion of the distribution, when Curtiss-Wright would no longer have the benefit of the stability afforded by the presence of a 44% stockholder. Curtiss-Wright's management and advisors then discussed possible amendments to Curtiss-Wright's certificate of incorporation and by-laws to address this vulnerability, and the advantages and disadvantages of adopting a stockholders' rights plan at that time or at the time of announcing any agreement with Unitrin. Our board believed that the amendments to the certificate of incorporation and by-laws, as well as a rights plan, would foster the long-term growth of Curtiss-Wright as an independent corporation and protect Curtiss-Wright stockholders from potentially coercive or abusive takeover tactics and efforts to acquire a controlling interest in Curtiss-Wright at a price or on terms that are not in the best interests of all Curtiss-Wright stockholders. Following an extensive discussion about these matters, our board indicated to management its interest in pursuing the transactions, and instructed management to enter into negotiations with Unitrin regarding specific terms. Our board also directed management to continue to consider the feasibility of adopting a stockholders' rights plan.

Between September 18, 2000 and November 1, 2000, Unitrin and its advisors and Curtiss-Wright and its advisors negotiated the terms of the original merger agreement and the original distribution agreement and worked together to develop the request for a letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service. At the same time, Curtiss-Wright's management and its legal and financial advisors began to develop the terms of a stockholders' rights plan to be considered by our board at the time it considered the approval of the proposed recapitalization and distribution. Curtiss-Wright, assisted by its financial and legal advisors, conducted extensive negotiations with Unitrin. In the course of these negotiations, Unitrin and Curtiss-Wright agreed to various accommodations with respect to the terms of the agreements. In particular, Unitrin had agreed at Curtiss-Wright's request to waive its portion of a $.25 per share cash dividend that had been intended to be declared by Curtiss-Wright at the time of the recapitalization. In addition, Unitrin agreed at Curtiss-Wright's request to the following:

to forego its request for a right to terminate the original merger agreement and the original distribution agreement in its sole discretion; to provide that the recapitalization and distribution would not occur if the corporate governance amendments were not approved by the required vote; and to place a limit of a total of $135 million on Curtiss-Wright's potential tax indemnification obligations.

On November 1, 2000, our board of directors met, together with representatives of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett and Salomon Smith Barney, to consider the original merger agreement, the corporate governance amendments, the original distribution agreement, the proposed stockholders' rights plan and other matters related to the proposed transactions. At this meeting, presentations were made by representatives of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett and Salomon Smith Barney regarding the proposed transactions, and our board of directors asked questions of the representatives regarding the proposed transactions. Our board also considered the implications of deciding to pursue, and of deciding not to pursue, the proposed transactions. Our board expressed reservations about the scope of the indemnity obligation to be assumed by Curtiss-Wright reflected in the original distribution agreement, as well as the absence of any standstill provisions governing Unitrin's activities pending completion of the transactions. Accordingly, no formal action was taken at this meeting.

Subsequent to the November 1, 2000 meeting of our board, Curtiss-Wright management continued negotiations with Unitrin regarding the terms of the proposed recapitalization and distribution and Unitrin and Curtiss-Wright agreed to changes to the original distribution agreement and merger agreement that had been presented to our board on November 1 which addressed our board's principal concerns. These changes are reflected under 'Description of the Merger Agreement and Distribution Agreement -- The Distribution Agreement -- Other Agreements -- Standstill Agreement' on page 29 and ' -- Indemnification Against Tax and Other Liabilities' on page 30.

On November 6, 2000, our board of directors met telephonically, together with representatives of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett and Salomon Smith Barney, to consider the final terms of the original merger agreement and the original distribution agreement.

After a careful evaluation of the proposed transactions and their anticipated effect on Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders, the board of directors approved the original merger agreement, the original distribution agreement, the recapitalization and the corporate governance amendments. The board of directors also determined that the stockholders' rights plan was in the best interests of Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders and approved the adoption of the stockholders' rights plan, which was effected by means of a distribution of rights to the Curtiss-Wright stockholders on November 21, 2000.

Between November 6, 2000 and January 11, 2001, Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin agreed to make some technical changes to the original merger agreement and the original distribution agreement relating to the presentation of the corporate governance amendments for stockholder approval. Accordingly, the Curtiss-Wright board, by unanimous written consent dated as of January 11, 2001, approved the first amended and restated merger agreement, the first amended and restated distribution agreement, the recapitalization and each of the corporate governance amendments.

In the period following January 11, 2001, in connection with Unitrin's discussions with the Internal Revenue Service relating to obtaining a letter ruling to the effect that the distribution would be tax-free to Unitrin and its stockholders, the Internal Revenue Service expressed concerns about the proposed $.25 per share special cash dividend that Curtiss-Wright had intended to declare at the time of the recapitalization and the related waiver by Unitrin of its share of that dividend. In response to these concerns, Unitrin and Curtiss-Wright determined that it would be appropriate to eliminate the special cash dividend.

Following the public announcement of the recapitalization and the distribution, Curtiss-Wright was contacted by some of its institutional stockholders. These stockholders expressed concern, both directly to Curtiss-Wright and in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, over some of the elements of the recapitalization proposal and the corporate governance amendments. In response to these concerns, Curtiss-Wright determined to modify some of the terms of the transactions including the following:

Curtiss-Wright determined to remove a proposal to implement a classified board. If implemented, the classified board would have divided the directors into three classes serving three-year staggered terms, with the term of one-third of the directors expiring each year.

Curtiss-Wright modified a provision of the proposed amendments to its certificate of incorporation relating to the recapitalization to provide that any stockholder vote to eliminate the special voting rights of the Class B common stock would require a vote of the common stock and the Class B common stock voting as a single class and not a separate vote of each class of stock.

Unitrin requested that Curtiss-Wright indemnify Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group and its direct and indirect subsidiaries for any tax liability resulting from any transaction that occurs, or is the subject of (or is similar to any transaction that was the subject of) any agreement, understanding, arrangement or substantial negotiations, prior to the date that is six months after the date of the distribution that, together with the increase of Unitrin's voting interest in Curtiss-Wright as a result of the recapitalization, would cause or permit one or more persons to acquire stock representing a 50% or greater voting interest in Curtiss-Wright.

Curtiss-Wright determined to eliminate a condition to the transactions that provided that the recapitalization and distribution would not occur if the corporate governance amendments were not approved by a majority of the outstanding shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock. This means that the recapitalization proposal could be approved and the corporate governance amendments not be implemented. None of the corporate governance amendments will be implemented unless the recapitalization is completed.

In addition to the changes described above, in May 2001, Unitrin proposed to Curtiss-Wright that, in recognition and consideration of the unanticipated level of time and expense required in connection with the recapitalization and distribution, Unitrin would reimburse Curtiss-Wright on the date that the recapitalization and distribution are completed for up to $1.75 million in documented out-of-pocket expenses solely and directly related to the transactions.

Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin worked together to incorporate the changes described above into the first amended and restated merger agreement and the first amended and restated distribution agreement. On August , 2001, the Curtiss-Wright board met and determined that the second amended and restated merger agreement, the second amended and restated distribution agreement, the recapitalization and each of the corporate governance amendments are advisable and in the best interests of Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders and approved the second amended and restated merger agreement, the second amended and restated distribution agreement, the recapitalization, and each of the corporate governance amendments. The board further determined to recommend that the stockholders of Curtiss-Wright vote 'FOR' the adoption of the merger agreement and each of the corporate governance amendments.

Our board believes that the recapitalization and distribution suit the purposes of both Unitrin and Curtiss-Wright. The transactions allow for the orderly transfer of Unitrin's large ownership interest to its stockholders, leaving Curtiss-Wright as a widely held public company. Among other things, the transactions may make it more likely that all Curtiss-Wright stockholders would share in any premium associated with any transfer of a substantial amount of Curtiss-Wright common stock. The transactions also allow Unitrin to dispose of its interest in Curtiss-Wright and deliver value to its stockholders, while at the same time providing value for Curtiss-Wright stockholders.

Salomon Smith Barney provided to Curtiss-Wright advice and assistance regarding the structuring and planning of the transactions, including assistance in evaluating potential alternative transactions and the impact of the recapitalization on Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders. In addition, Salomon Smith Barney advised Curtiss-Wright in its negotiation of the principal terms and conditions of the transactions. Salomon Smith Barney will receive customary fees for its service as financial advisor to Curtiss-Wright in connection with the transactions. Salomon Smith Barney also has provided and provides advice to Curtiss-Wright from time to time on other matters, for which it receives customary fees.

CURTISS-WRIGHT'S REASONS FOR THE RECAPITALIZATION AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Our board of directors has determined that the merger agreement, the recapitalization and the corporate governance amendments and the related transactions are advisable and are in the best interests of Curtiss-Wright and the Curtiss-Wright stockholders. In reaching their conclusion, our board of directors considered a number of factors including the following:

Expected Benefits of the Transactions to Curtiss-Wright and its Stockholders.

The transactions will eliminate the substantial influence that Unitrin has the ability to exert in matters voted on by Curtiss-Wright stockholders.

The transactions will significantly increase the liquidity and public float of Curtiss-Wright's capital stock by increasing the number of shares held by public stockholders other than Unitrin from about 5.7 million shares to about 10.1 million shares. In addition, the transactions will result in a broader stockholder base when Unitrin distributes the Class B common stock to its approximately 8,000 stockholders, which will essentially triple our existing stockholder base of approximately 3,600 stockholders.

A broader stockholder base, coupled with increased liquidity for our shares, is expected to attract additional analyst coverage of Curtiss-Wright, which is expected to enhance the market's awareness of Curtiss-Wright capital stock and to stimulate demand from new investors.

We expect that an increase in our stockholder base and broader exposure in the investment community will facilitate the use of Curtiss-Wright's capital stock as an acquisition currency and as a source of capital.

The transactions are expected to enhance our ability to provide equity incentives to existing management and top corporate employees, as well as to potential new management and employees.

The transactions are expected to be the least disruptive method for Unitrin to dispose of its ownership interest in Curtiss-Wright. Alternative transactions could have resulted in one or more large, new Curtiss-Wright stockholders or could have involved public sales that could adversely affect Curtiss-Wright's stock price.

The corporate governance amendments will help foster our long-term growth as an independent company following the recapitalization and the distribution and will help protect our stockholders from potentially coercive or abusive takeover tactics and efforts to acquire control of Curtiss-Wright at a price or on terms that are not in the best interests of all Curtiss-Wright stockholders.

Economic and Financial Factors. Our board considered the economic and financial factors associated with the transactions, including the effect of the recapitalization and the distribution on the expected trading price of both classes of Curtiss-Wright common stock following the distribution and the impact on Curtiss-Wright's financial position following the distribution. In this regard they considered the following factors:

The recapitalization and the distribution are structured to be tax-free to Curtiss-Wright stockholders.

The advice of Salomon Smith Barney that, all other facts being equal, the trading characteristics of Curtiss-Wright's equity securities, including trading volume and liquidity, institutional shareholdings, research analyst coverage and stock price, will improve compared to the trading characteristics if the transactions do not occur.

The transactions will not have any material impact on Curtiss-Wright's financial position following the distribution.

Unitrin has agreed to reimburse Curtiss-Wright on the date that the recapitalization and distribution are completed for up to $1.75 million in documented out-of-pocket expenses solely and directly related to the transactions.

Governance Matters. Our board considered that, as a result of the recapitalization and the distribution, Curtiss-Wright might be more vulnerable to third parties seeking to acquire control of Curtiss-Wright as a result of the elimination of Unitrin's approximately 44% ownership stake. In that regard they considered the following factors:

The restrictions on Curtiss-Wright's ability to undertake a sale of Curtiss-Wright and other transactions for two years following the distribution, which, if undertaken, could impair the tax-free status of the distribution to Unitrin and its stockholders.

Curtiss-Wright's obligation to indemnify Unitrin in the event that Curtiss-Wright takes actions which result in the distribution failing to qualify as a tax-free distribution, and the circumstances under which this indemnity obligation would apply as described under ' -- Tax Matters Recapitalization and Distribution' on page 22 and 'Description of the Merger Agreement and Distribution Agreement -- The Distribution Agreement -- Other Agreements -- Indemnification Against Tax and Other Liabilities' on page 30.

If the corporate governance amendments are approved, the benefits of having the protections of the corporate governance amendments in place following the distribution when Curtiss-Wright may be vulnerable to potentially coercive or abusive takeover tactics and efforts to acquire control of Curtiss-Wright at a price or on terms that are not in the best interests of all Curtiss-Wright stockholders, particularly during the first two years following the distribution, when the risk to Curtiss-Wright of liability under the tax indemnity is greatest.

The risk that the dual class structure could lead to a person or group gaining control of our board by acquiring a majority of the Class B common stock, and the fact that this risk would be reduced if the corporate governance amendments are approved.

The potential impact of the recapitalization amendments, the corporate governance amendments and our stockholders' rights plan, which we expect our board to modify, on the ability of a third party to acquire control of Curtiss-Wright at a price or on terms not in the best interests of our stockholders.

The fact that the ability of the holders of Class B common stock to elect at least 80% of our board will not provide those holders with materially different rights than Unitrin currently possesses because as the holder of approximately 44% of the outstanding Curtiss-Wright common stock, Unitrin currently has the ability to exert substantial influence in the election of our board.

Negative Factors. In addition, our board of directors considered and balanced against the potential benefits of the recapitalization and related transactions a number of potentially negative factors, including the following:

There may be a short-term adverse impact on the market price of Curtiss-Wright's common stock resulting from any sales of Curtiss-Wright Class B common stock by Unitrin stockholders who receive Class B common stock in the distribution.

The transactions potentially limit the ability of Curtiss-Wright to undertake some types of transactions for a period of time in the future which, if pursued or undertaken, could impair the tax-free nature of the distribution to Unitrin and its stockholders and give rise to an indemnification obligation of Curtiss-Wright to Unitrin.

An acquisition of Curtiss-Wright at any time within two years following the distribution could, in some circumstances, trigger significant tax liability to Unitrin and its stockholders, for which Curtiss-Wright may be responsible under its indemnity obligation to Unitrin. This potential tax liability is itself a potentially negative factor, and also could reduce the likelihood of an acquisition of Curtiss-Wright within this time period. See 'Certain Considerations -- The Tax-Free Distribution by Unitrin Results in Potentially Significant Limitations on Our Business Operations and Could Potentially Result in Significant Liabilities to Curtiss-Wright' on page 10 and ' -- Tax Matters -- Recapitalization and Distribution' on page 22.

The possibility that the recapitalization proposal be approved by the required vote as described under ' -- Required Vote' on page 21 and the corporate governance amendments not be approved by the required vote as described under 'Proposals Two, Three, Four and Five: Corporate Governance Amendments -- Required Vote' on page 38. This would mean that the recapitalization would be completed but the corporate governance amendments would not be implemented.

The factors described above were considered by our board of directors in its assessment of the transactions. The board of directors did not quantify or attach any particular weight to the various factors that it considered in reaching its determination that the transactions are advisable and in the best interests of Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders. Different members of our board may have assigned different weights to different factors. In reaching its determination, our board of directors took the various factors into account collectively and did not perform a factor-by-factor analysis.

DESCRIPTION OF THE RECAPITALIZATION AMENDMENTS

If the stockholders of Curtiss-Wright approve the adoption of the merger agreement, Curtiss-Wright's certificate of incorporation will, upon filing the certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, be amended and restated to include the recapitalization amendments described below and included in Appendices C-1 and C-2. The recapitalization amendments include the changes necessary to permit the distribution to be tax-free to Unitrin and its stockholders.

For the distribution to be tax-free to Unitrin and its stockholders, current U.S. federal income tax law requires, among other things, that Unitrin own, at the time of the distribution, capital stock of Curtiss-Wright having the right to elect at least 80% of the board of directors, and that Unitrin distribute all of that stock to its stockholders in a single transaction. Accordingly, the recapitalization amendments create a new Class B common stock of Curtiss-Wright that is entitled to elect at least 80% of our board of directors. The minimum number of directors on our board will be set at five so that the holders of common stock will always be entitled to elect at least one director. All of the Class B common stock will be distributed by Unitrin to its stockholders promptly following the recapitalization in the distribution.

The recapitalization amendments also:

provide for the designation of common stock directors and Class B common stock directors and related matters; and provide that vacancies on our board may be filled only by the directors, or if there are no directors, by the stockholders, of the class, whether common stock or Class B common stock, in which the vacancy exists.

The recapitalization amendments also modify the terms of our existing authorized but unissued preferred stock to allow the board to determine all the rights of any series of preferred stock, including with respect to voting and priority for dividends and distributions upon liquidation. The following is a discussion of the material terms of the recapitalization amendments.

Authorization of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. The 23,150,000 shares of authorized capital stock of Curtiss-Wright will be divided among three classes of capital stock: 11,250,000 shares of common stock, 11,250,000 shares of Class B common stock and 650,000 shares of preferred stock. The authorized number of shares of any class of capital stock of Curtiss-Wright may be increased or decreased by the vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Curtiss-Wright. The common stock and the Class B common stock will have the same rights except for the fact that the holders of the Class B common stock will have the power to elect 80% of our board, or the next highest whole number, and the holders of common stock will have the power to elect the remaining members of our board. If approved by our board, the special class voting rights of the common stock and Class B common stock with respect to the election of directors may be terminated by a majority of the outstanding shares of the common stock and the Class B common stock, voting together as a single class, at any annual or special meeting of stockholders. Except as required by law, the holders of the common stock and Class B common stock will vote together as one class on all other matters, including acquisitions and other fundamental transactions, with each share of common stock and Class B common stock having one vote.

Creation of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock Directors. Currently, our board has one class of directors. The recapitalization amendments would amend the certificate of incorporation to provide for two classes of directors. Upon completion of the recapitalization, S. Marce Fuller would be designated the 'common stock director' and the remaining seven directors would be designated 'Class B common stock directors.' In future elections, the director designated a common stock director will be elected by the holders of the common stock and the directors designated as Class B common stock directors will be elected by the holders of the Class B common stock.

Filling of Board Vacancies. The recapitalization amendments would amend the certificate of incorporation to provide that any vacancy in the office of a common stock director or Class B common stock director will be filled only by the vote of the majority of the remaining directors in the class in which the vacancy exists, or the sole remaining director in the class, unless there are no remaining directors in the class, in which case the vacancy will be filled by the vote of the stockholders entitled to elect the members of the class in which the vacancy exists. All newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors will first be allocated to a class and then filled only by the vote of the majority of the directors in the class in which the newly created directorships exist, or the sole remaining director in the class, unless there are no directors in the class, in which case the newly created directorships will be filled by the vote of the stockholders entitled to elect members of that class. If there is only one common stock director and he or she resigns, dies or is removed for cause, it is possible that there will be no common stock director until the next annual meeting of stockholders.

Modification of Preferred Stock. Our certificate of incorporation already provides for the creation of series of preferred stock by our board of directors and allows our board of directors to determine most of the terms of each series of preferred stock that it authorizes. This 'blank check' preferred stock power allows our board to authorize the issuance of preferred stock without further action by our stockholders, unless action is required by applicable law or the rules of any exchange on which our securities may be listed. However, our certificate of incorporation currently requires that each share of preferred stock have one vote in all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. It also currently requires that all series of preferred stock be on a parity with respect to dividends, distributions and rights upon liquidation. In connection with the recapitalization, we propose to modify the 'blank check' preferred stock power to permit our board to set all the rights of each series of preferred stock and to fix the relative rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions applicable to each series of preferred stock and eliminate any restrictions on the board's flexibility to set those terms, including with respect to voting power and priority with respect to payment of dividends and distributions of assets upon liquidation. The blank check preferred stock power could discourage a person from acquiring Curtiss-Wright's common stock or Class B common stock because of the possibility that our board would issue the preferred stock with terms that significantly disadvantage the rights of Curtiss-Wright's common stockholders or Class B common stockholders.

DESCRIPTION OF BY-LAWS AMENDMENTS

In connection with the proposed recapitalization and distribution, our board has also approved amendments to our by-laws. Under the terms of our existing certificate of incorporation, our directors have the power to amend our by-laws without stockholder approval. As a result, separate stockholder approval is not required to adopt the by-laws amendments. The by-laws amendments will become effective at the time of the recapitalization. Even if the recapitalization proposal is not approved, our board may choose to implement those by-laws amendments described below that are not directly related to the recapitalization.

We refer you to the full text of the amendments to our by-laws which are attached as Appendices D-1 and D-2 which were approved in connection with the recapitalization proposal and are referred to in this proxy statement as the recapitalization by-laws amendments.

The recapitalization by-laws amendments require that, at any annual meeting of stockholders, the only nominations of persons for election to the board to be considered and business to be conducted will be the nominations made or business brought before the meeting:

pursuant to Curtiss-Wright's notice of meeting;

by or at the direction of the Curtiss-Wright board; or by a stockholder of Curtiss-Wright who is a stockholder of record at the time of giving of the notice provided for in the by-laws, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth below.

For nominations and other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting of stockholders pursuant to the third point above, the stockholder must give written notice to the secretary of Curtiss-Wright not later than 90 days nor earlier than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting. If the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 70 days after the anniversary date of the immediately preceding meeting, the stockholder must give written notice not earlier than 120 days prior to the annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the day that is 90 days prior to the annual meeting or 10 days following the date on which public announcement of the annual meeting is first given. The notice must set forth:

as to nominations, all information relating to the proposed nominee that is required to be disclosed under Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;

as to other business, a description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the text of any proposal to be presented to the stockholders and the reasons for conducting the business at the meeting;

the name and address, as they appear on Curtiss-Wright's books, of the stockholder who is proposing the business, and the name and address of the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made;

the number and class of shares of stock of Curtiss-Wright that are owned by the stockholder, or the beneficial owner on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made;

a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of Curtiss-Wright entitled to vote at the meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose the business or nomination;

any material interest of the stockholder of record and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made, in the business; and a representation as to whether the stockholder of record or the beneficial owner, if any, intends, or are part of a group which intends, to solicit proxies in support of the nominee or proposal.

The recapitalization by-laws amendments also provide that at any special meeting of the stockholders of Curtiss-Wright, the only business that may be brought before the special meeting is the business specified in the notice of special meeting. Accordingly, the stockholders of Curtiss-Wright may not raise any other matters for consideration at a special meeting.

With respect to an election of directors to be held at a special meeting of the stockholders as determined by Curtiss-Wright's notice of special meeting, a stockholder may make a nomination pursuant to notice given not earlier than 120 days prior to the special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the day that is 90 days prior to the special meeting or 10 days following the date on which public announcement of the special meeting is first made.

This amendment may preclude nominations or the conduct of business by stockholders at a particular stockholders meeting if the proper procedures are not followed, and may discourage or deter a third party from attempting to obtain control of Curtiss-Wright, even if this attempt might be viewed as beneficial to Curtiss-Wright by its stockholders.

The presiding officer of the meeting will determine and declare to the meeting whether the business was properly brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures described above and may declare the nominations or the business as not properly brought before the meeting and not recognize the bringing of the nominations or the business.

The stockholder bringing a nomination or business in accordance with the above requirements must appear at the annual or special meeting of stockholders to present the nomination or business to be considered at the meeting.

In addition to the provisions described above, the recapitalization by-laws amendments contain changes necessary to conform the by-laws to our certificate of incorporation if the recapitalization proposal is approved.

CERTAIN OTHER CHANGES TO OUR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BY-LAWS

Our board also approved amendments to our certificate of incorporation and by-laws summarized below that are not related to the proposed recapitalization or corporate governance amendments. These modifications are technical or procedural changes which conform to current Delaware law or best practices.

We are proposing one technical change to our certificate of incorporation. Our directors, officers, employees and representatives are currently entitled to indemnification against claims or suits for actions taken in their employment or representative capacity. The certificate of incorporation currently provides that the right to indemnification includes the right to advancement of any expenses incurred in defending against these proceedings. The proposed amendment to our certificate of incorporation would clarify that the right to advancement of expenses is separate and distinct from and independent of the right to indemnification.

Our board has approved the following changes to our by-laws:

we have removed the provision directing the board to call a special meeting when an annual meeting has not been called;

we have increased the board's quorum requirement from two to three;

we have provided that a committee of the board of directors may replace an absent or disqualified member of the committee at any committee meeting, even without a quorum;

we have provided that when determining which stockholders are entitled to notice for a stockholder's meeting, the board may not set a record date that occurs prior to the adoption of the resolution to set the date; if no record date is set, then the record date shall be close of business on the day before the notice is given; and we have provided that when determining which stockholders are entitled to dividends or other rights, the board may not set a record date prior to the adoption of the resolution to set the date; if no record date is set, then the record date shall be the close of business on the day that the resolution was adopted.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE CURTISS-WRIGHT BOARD

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS APPROVED THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE RECAPITALIZATION PROPOSAL AND HAS DETERMINED THAT THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE RECAPITALIZATION PROPOSAL ARE ADVISABLE AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF CURTISS-WRIGHT AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS. OUR BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS OF CURTISS-WRIGHT VOTE 'FOR' THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE APPROVAL OF THE RECAPITALIZATION PROPOSAL.

REQUIRED VOTE

Each outstanding share of Curtiss-Wright common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter which may properly come before the special meeting. Under Delaware law, adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock, including shares held by Unitrin. Unitrin currently owns approximately 44% of Curtiss-Wright's outstanding common stock and has agreed to vote these shares in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. In addition, the recapitalization will be implemented only if the holders of a majority of the shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock voting in person or by proxy at the special meeting on the adoption of the merger agreement, other than Unitrin, vote to adopt the merger agreement.

EFFECTS OF THE RECAPITALIZATION ON OUTSTANDING SHARES

Curtiss-Wright's common stock and Class B common stock will have the same rights except for voting rights with respect to the election of our board of directors. The holders of Class B common stock will be entitled to elect 80% of the board of directors or, if 80% is not a whole number, then the nearest higher whole number of directors. If, in the future, there are shares of any other class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Class B common stock for the election of directors, the holders of shares of that class or series of stock will be entitled to vote with the Class B common stock for the election of the directors of Curtiss-Wright. The holders of common stock will be entitled to elect the remaining directors of Curtiss-Wright. If, in the future, there are shares of any other class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the common stock for the election of directors, the holders of shares of the class or series of stock will be entitled to vote with the common stock for the election of the remaining directors of Curtiss-Wright. On all other matters requiring a stockholder vote, including acquisitions and other fundamental transactions, the holders of common stock and Class B common stock will vote together as a single class on a one-share, one-vote basis.

TAX MATTERS -- RECAPITALIZATION AND DISTRIBUTION

On May 24, 2001, Unitrin received a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service to the effect that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, among other things:

the recapitalization will be a tax-free transaction to Unitrin and Curtiss-Wright under Sections 354 and 1032 of the Internal Revenue Code, respectively; and the distribution will be tax-free to Unitrin and its stockholders under Section 355 of the Internal Revenue Code.

To preserve the tax-free status of the distribution to Unitrin and its stockholders, we have agreed that, for a period of two years after the date of the distribution, we will maintain our status as a company engaged in the active conduct of a trade or business. If we fail to comply with this obligation, take any action or fail to take any required action, and that failure to comply, action or omission contributes to a determination that the distribution fails to qualify under Section 355(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or that the Curtiss-Wright shares fail to qualify as qualified property for purposes of Section 355(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code by reason of Section 355(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, we will be required to indemnify Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group and its direct and indirect subsidiaries:

for all federal, state and local taxes, including any interest, penalty or additions to tax, incurred or imposed upon Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group and its direct and indirect subsidiaries, and for any established tax liabilities of Unitrin stockholders resulting from the distribution evidenced by (i) an amended tax return of the Unitrin stockholder reflecting the amount of the tax liability, together with proof of payment of the amount, or (ii) a deficiency notice received by the Unitrin stockholder from the Internal Revenue Service setting forth the amount of the tax liability, together with proof of payment of the amount.

Under Section 355(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, the distribution will be taxable to Unitrin if the distribution is part of a plan or series of related transactions pursuant to which one or more persons acquire directly or indirectly stock representing a 50% or greater interest, based on either vote or value, in Unitrin or Curtiss-Wright. Acquisitions that occur during the period beginning two years before the distribution and ending two years after the distribution are subject to a rebuttable presumption that they are part of a plan. If Unitrin becomes subject to tax under Section 355(e), its tax liability will be based upon the difference between the fair market value of the Class B common stock at the time of the distribution and its adjusted basis in the stock at that time, and this tax liability will be a significant amount.

Accordingly, under the distribution agreement, Curtiss-Wright has agreed that, until two years after the distribution date, it will not:

merge or consolidate with or into any other corporation, liquidate or partially liquidate, sell or transfer all or substantially all of its assets in a single transaction or series of transactions, redeem or otherwise repurchase any Curtiss-Wright capital stock, except as permitted under the Internal Revenue Service procedures applicable to spin-offs, or take any other action or actions, other than making some technical changes to the stockholders' rights plan in connection with the recapitalization and distribution which, in the aggregate, would have the effect of causing or permitting one or more persons to acquire directly or indirectly stock representing a 50% or greater interest, within the meaning of Section 355(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, in Curtiss-Wright, unless prior to taking any action set forth in the list above, at the election of Unitrin either (i) Unitrin has obtained, at the expense of Curtiss-Wright, a supplemental ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or (ii) Curtiss-Wright has obtained an opinion in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Unitrin and Curtiss-Wright, that the action will not result in:

the distribution failing to qualify under Section 355(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or the Curtiss-Wright shares failing to qualify as qualified property for purposes of Section 355(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code by reason of Section 355(e) of the Code.

Unitrin has agreed to use all reasonable efforts in obtaining any supplemental ruling, including, where appropriate, by providing written representations as to factual events that occurred prior to the distribution date.

We have also agreed to indemnify Unitrin, each member of the consolidated group of corporations of which Unitrin is the common parent corporation and each direct and indirect subsidiary of Unitrin for:

all federal, state and local taxes, including any interest, penalty or additions to tax, incurred or imposed upon Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group or its direct or indirect subsidiaries, and any established tax liabilities of any stockholder of Unitrin evidenced by

(i) an amended tax return of the Unitrin stockholder reflecting the amount of the tax liability, together with proof of payment of the amount or (ii) a deficiency notice received by the Unitrin stockholder from the Internal Revenue Service setting forth the amount of the tax liability, together with proof of payment of the amount, arising from any inaccuracy in, or failure by Curtiss-Wright to comply with, any representation or undertaking made by Curtiss-Wright to the Internal Revenue Service in connection with the Internal Revenue Service ruling request, subject to some exceptions.

Curtiss-Wright will not be obligated to indemnify Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group or its direct or indirect subsidiaries for any liability that results solely from an inaccuracy in or failure by Unitrin to comply with any representation or undertaking by Unitrin to the Internal Revenue Service in connection with the Internal Revenue Service ruling request. Further, if any liability arises as a result of both:

either (i) our taking or failing to take any action that contributes to the distribution not being treated as a tax-free transaction or (ii) an inaccuracy in, or failure by us to comply with, any representation or undertaking made by us to the Internal Revenue Service in connection with Internal Revenue Service ruling request, and an inaccuracy in or failure by Unitrin to comply with any representation or undertaking by Unitrin to the Internal Revenue Service in connection with the Internal Revenue Service ruling request and each failure is an independent cause of such liability, then Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin will allocate the resulting liability among themselves in a proportion that reflects the relative fault of each party.

Curtiss-Wright will not be obligated to indemnify Unitrin for any Unitrin tax liability that would not have been imposed or incurred but for:

the aggregation of (i) the increase in Unitrin's voting power with respect to its Curtiss-Wright stock as a result of the recapitalization and (ii) a transaction that occurs, or is the subject of any agreement, understanding, arrangement or substantial negotiations, after the date that is six months after the date of the distribution (but not including a transaction that occurs after the date that is six months after the date of the distribution that was negotiated or agreed to prior to such date or that is similar to a transaction that was negotiated or agreed to prior to such date) or the failure of any representation made by Unitrin (i) in the Internal Revenue Service ruling request regarding sales by Unitrin stockholders of stock or securities of Unitrin or Curtiss-Wright or (ii) in the distribution agreement regarding the absence of a plan or arrangement on the part of Unitrin to dispose of its interest in Curtiss-Wright to be true, correct and complete.

Curtiss-Wright's maximum tax indemnification obligation under the distribution agreement is limited to a total of $135 million.

INTERESTS OF OUR OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS IN THE RECAPITALIZATION

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors, you should be aware that some of our officers and directors may have interests in the recapitalization that are or may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the Curtiss-Wright public stockholders. As of , 2001, the directors of Curtiss-Wright and the executive officers of Curtiss-Wright beneficially owned an aggregate of shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock, including shares that may be acquired upon the exercise of outstanding stock options exercisable within 60 days of the record date. As of , 2001, none of the directors of Curtiss-Wright beneficially owned any shares of common stock of Unitrin.

The merger agreement provides that our board of directors following the recapitalization will consist of eight members. Each member of our board will remain a director of our board following the completion of the recapitalization. S. Marce Fuller will become the common stock director upon completion of the recapitalization. Our remaining directors will become the Class B directors upon completion of the transactions. The composition of our board otherwise will not be affected by the recapitalization or the distribution. See 'Board of Directors and Management of Curtiss-Wright' on page 43.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE APPROVALS

We are in the process of obtaining the necessary approval from the New York Stock Exchange in order to list the shares of Class B common stock. Our common stock is currently listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol 'CW.' Following the recapitalization and distribution, the common stock will continue to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol 'CW' and the Class B common stock is expected to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol 'CWB.'

FEDERAL SECURITIES LAW CONSEQUENCES

All shares of Class B common stock received by holders of Unitrin common stock following the recapitalization and distribution will be freely transferable, except that shares of Class B common stock received by persons who are deemed to be affiliates of Curtiss-Wright may be resold by them only in transactions permitted by the resale provision of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or otherwise in compliance with, or pursuant to an exemption from, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

NO APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Holders of Curtiss-Wright common stock are not entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware in connection with the recapitalization or any of the other transactions discussed in this proxy statement.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin have entered into a merger agreement and a distribution agreement which will govern the terms of the recapitalization and the distribution.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A. This summary does not contain all of the terms of the merger agreement. All stockholders are urged to read carefully the merger agreement in its entirety.

RECAPITALIZATION AND MERGER

The recapitalization will be implemented by a merger of CW Disposition Company into Curtiss-Wright. The merger agreement provides for the amendment of Curtiss-Wright's certificate of incorporation to provide for the Class B common stock, as well as other amendments to implement the corporate governance amendments, if approved.

If the merger agreement is adopted by a majority of the outstanding shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock, and by a majority of those stockholders present in person or by proxy and voting on the recapitalization proposal, other than Unitrin, Curtiss-Wright's certificate of incorporation will be amended to create the Class B common stock. None of the corporate governance amendments will be implemented unless the recapitalization and distribution are completed.

Unitrin has agreed to vote, or cause to be voted, all the shares of common stock owned by it and its subsidiaries in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and each of the corporate governance amendments.

MERGER AND EXCHANGE OF SHARES

The merger agreement provides that before the recapitalization, Unitrin will contribute all 4,382,400 shares of Curtiss-Wright's common stock held by it to CW Disposition Company. At the effective time of the merger, CW Disposition Company will be merged into Curtiss-Wright and the separate corporate existence of CW Disposition Company will cease and Curtiss-Wright will be the surviving corporation. All of the shares of CW Disposition Company common stock outstanding immediately before the effective time of the merger will be converted into 4,382,400 shares of Curtiss-Wright's Class B common stock, each of the shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock held by CW Disposition Company will automatically be canceled and retired, and each other share of Curtiss-Wright common stock will remain issued and outstanding. As a result of and following the recapitalization, Unitrin will own 4,382,400 shares of Class B common stock. Each other stockholder of Curtiss-Wright will own the same number of shares of common stock as it owned before the recapitalization.

CONDITIONS TO THE MERGER

Conditions to Both Parties' Obligations. Neither we nor Unitrin nor CW Disposition Company are obligated to complete the recapitalization unless the following conditions are satisfied or waived, except that none of us may waive the required stockholder approvals with respect to the merger agreement:

the adoption of the merger agreement by the holders of a majority of the Curtiss-Wright common stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon, and a majority of the shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock, other than shares held of record or beneficially owned by Unitrin, that are present in person or by proxy at the special meeting and voting on the recapitalization proposal;

the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the waiting period terminated on December 8, 2000);

the absence of any law, order or injunction prohibiting, and any proceeding challenging, the completion of the recapitalization or the distribution; and the completion of all actions or filings with any governmental entity required to permit the completion of the recapitalization, except those that would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on any party's ability to complete the transactions.

These conditions are for the benefit of Curtiss-Wright or Unitrin, as applicable, and do not give rise to or create any duty on the part of Curtiss-Wright or Unitrin, as applicable, to waive or not waive any of these conditions.

Conditions to Curtiss-Wright's Obligations. In addition, we are not obligated to complete the recapitalization unless the following additional conditions are satisfied or waived by us:

the declaration of the distribution by the board of directors of Unitrin, subject to the completion of the recapitalization, the satisfaction of all conditions to the distribution set forth in the distribution agreement, other than the completion of the recapitalization, the absence of any circumstance that would reasonably be expected to prevent the completion of the distribution immediately following the recapitalization, and the distribution agreement remaining in full force and effect;

Unitrin's representations and warranties in the distribution agreement, other than the representation and warranty relating to actions, suits or judgments that seek to enjoin or rescind the transactions, and Unitrin's and CW Disposition Company's representations and warranties in the merger agreement that are qualified as to materiality being true and correct and any representations and warranties that are not qualified as to materiality being true and correct in all material respects as of the effective time of the merger and Curtiss-Wright having received a certificate executed by the chief executive officer of Unitrin to this effect;

Unitrin and CW Disposition Company having performed all covenants in the merger agreement and Unitrin having performed all covenants in the distribution agreement in all material respects at or prior to the effective time of the merger and Curtiss-Wright having received a certificate executed by the chief executive officer of Unitrin to this effect;

the receipt by Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin of all consents required in connection with the completion of the transactions, and any material governmental approvals and consents needed to complete the transactions;

the approval of the Class B common stock for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance;

no event outside the control of Curtiss-Wright having occurred or failed to occur that prevents legal completion of the recapitalization;

the compliance of the transactions in all material respects with applicable federal and state securities and other applicable laws;

the completion, in form or substance reasonably satisfactory to Curtiss-Wright, of all actions and other documents and instruments reasonably necessary in connection with the transactions; and either: (i) the issuance of the Internal Revenue Service letter ruling (which was received on May 24, 2001) and compliance by Unitrin with all provisions of the ruling required to be complied with prior to the date of the declaration of the distribution and the distribution, or (ii) the receipt by Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin of a written legal opinion to the same effect as the ruling if the ruling is not obtained.

These conditions are for the sole benefit of Curtiss-Wright and do not give rise to or create any duty on the part of Curtiss-Wright to waive or not to waive any of these conditions.

Conditions to Unitrin's Obligations. In addition, Unitrin and CW Disposition Company are not obligated to consummate the recapitalization unless the following additional conditions are satisfied or waived by them:

the issuance of the Internal Revenue Service letter ruling (which was received on May 24, 2001) and the compliance by Curtiss-Wright with all provisions set forth in the Internal Revenue Service letter ruling that are required to be complied with prior to the dates of the declaration of the distribution and the distribution;

the satisfaction or waiver of all the conditions to the declaration of the distribution and the distribution, other than the completion of the recapitalization, the absence of any circumstance that would reasonably be expected to prevent the completion of the distribution immediately following the merger and the full force and effect of the distribution agreement;

Curtiss-Wright's representations and warranties in the distribution agreement, other than the representation and warranty relating to actions, suits or judgments that seek to enjoin or rescind the transactions, and the merger agreement that are qualified as to materiality being true and correct, and Curtiss-Wright's representations and warranties that are not qualified as to materiality being true and correct in all material respects as of the effective time of the merger and Unitrin having received a certificate executed by the chief executive officer of Curtiss-Wright to this effect; and

Curtiss-Wright having performed all covenants in the merger agreement or the distribution agreement at or prior to the effective time of the merger in all material respects and Unitrin having received a certificate executed by the chief executive officer of Curtiss-Wright to this effect.

These conditions are for the sole benefit of Unitrin and CW Disposition Company and do not give rise to or create any duty on the part of Unitrin or CW Disposition Company to waive or not waive any of these conditions.

TERMINATION

The merger agreement, and, as a result, the distribution agreement, may be terminated and the recapitalization may be abandoned at any time before the effective time of the merger, notwithstanding any approval of the merger agreement by the stockholders of Curtiss-Wright:

by mutual written consent of Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin;

by either Curtiss-Wright or Unitrin, if the completion of the merger or the distribution is illegal or otherwise prohibited or if any judgment, injunction, order or decree enjoining Curtiss-Wright or CW Disposition Company from completing the merger or Unitrin from completing the distribution is entered and becomes final and nonappealable;

by either Curtiss-Wright or Unitrin, if the required Curtiss-Wright stockholder approval for the recapitalization proposal is not obtained; by either Curtiss-Wright or Unitrin, if the merger is not completed by October 26, 2001, but this right is not available to any party in material breach of its obligations under the merger agreement or the distribution agreement. If the merger agreement has been adopted by the vote set forth under 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Required Vote' on page 21 by October 26, 2001 but the merger has not been completed by October 26, 2001, then the time period set forth in this bullet point will be extended for a period that ends 30 days after the stockholders meeting at which the merger agreement was adopted by the requisite vote; or by either Curtiss-Wright or Unitrin, if its board is required by its fiduciary duties to terminate the distribution agreement or, in the case of Curtiss-Wright, the merger agreement, to accept an alternative proposal by a third party.

The merger agreement terminates automatically if the distribution agreement is terminated according to its terms. Likewise, the distribution agreement terminates automatically if the merger agreement is terminated according to its terms.

EXPENSES

The merger agreement also provides that, except as set forth under ' -- Termination' above, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the recapitalization, the merger agreement, the distribution agreement, the distribution and the other transactions contemplated by those agreements will be paid by the party incurring such costs and expenses, except that Unitrin will reimburse Curtiss-Wright on the date that the recapitalization and distribution are completed for up to $1.75 million in documented out-of-pocket expenses that are solely and directly related to the recapitalization, the merger agreement, the distribution, the distribution agreement and the other transactions contemplated by those agreements.

OTHER AGREEMENTS

Under the merger agreement, Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin agree to provide to the other party, subject to limited conditions, access to corporate records and information. Each party has also agreed to exercise all reasonable efforts promptly to obtain any necessary consents and approvals and to take actions as may be necessary or desirable to obtain these consents and approvals.

THE DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin have entered into the distribution agreement. The following is a summary of the material terms of the distribution agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix B. This summary does not contain all of the terms of the distribution agreement. All stockholders are urged to read carefully the distribution agreement in its entirety.

THE DISTRIBUTION

Unitrin will appoint a distribution agent to distribute to the holders of record of Unitrin common stock in proportion to the number of Unitrin shares they hold on the record date for the distribution, all shares of Class B common stock held by Unitrin on the date of the distribution. The distribution agent will aggregate all fractional shares of Class B common stock that would otherwise be distributed and sell them in an orderly manner after the date of the distribution in the open market and, after completion of the sales, distribute the pro rata portion of the net proceeds from these sales to each stockholder of Unitrin who would otherwise have received a fractional share.

CONDITIONS TO THE DECLARATION AND DISTRIBUTION

The board of directors of Unitrin will irrevocably declare the distribution and cause the distribution to occur, as soon as reasonably practicable following the satisfaction or waiver, as determined by Unitrin in its sole discretion, of the conditions set forth below. These conditions must be satisfied or waived on or prior to the time of the declaration of the dividend, unless the condition can only be satisfied after the declaration of the dividend, in which case the condition must be satisfied or waived on or prior to the time of the distribution:

the issuance of the Internal Revenue Service letter ruling (which was received on May 24, 2001) and the ruling being satisfactory to Unitrin and the compliance by Curtiss-Wright with all provisions in the Internal Revenue Service letter ruling to be complied with prior to the declaration of the distribution and the distribution;

no event outside the control of Unitrin that prevents the legal completion of the distribution having occurred;

the compliance of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the distribution agreement in all material respects with applicable federal and state securities and other applicable laws;

the receipt by Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin of all consents required in connection with the completion of the transactions, and any material governmental approvals and consents needed to complete the transactions;

the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to the recapitalization, other than, in the case of the declaration of the distribution, the declaration and completion of the distribution, and no circumstances existing that would reasonably be expected to prevent the completion of the recapitalization immediately prior to the distribution and, in the case of the distribution, the recapitalization having been completed;

the filing of a registration statement on Form 8-A registering the Class B common stock under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including all amendments with the Securities and Exchange Commission;

the approval of the Class B common stock for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance;

Curtiss-Wright's representations and warranties set forth in the distribution agreement and the merger agreement that are qualified as to materiality being true and correct, and any representations and warranties that are not qualified as to materiality being true and correct in all material respects, as of the date of the declaration and the date of the distribution and Unitrin having received a certificate of the chief executive officer of Curtiss-Wright to this effect;

Curtiss-Wright having performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required to be performed by it under the distribution agreement and the merger agreement at or prior to the date of the declaration, or, if applicable, the date of the distribution and Unitrin having received a certificate of the chief executive officer of Curtiss-Wright to this effect; and all actions and other documents and instruments reasonably necessary in connection with the transactions contemplated by the distribution agreement and the merger agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Unitrin having been taken or executed.

These conditions are for the sole benefit of Unitrin but do not give rise to or create any duty on the part of Unitrin to waive or not waive any of these conditions.

Each of Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin has agreed that the declaration of the distribution and the distribution will occur as soon as reasonably practicable following the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the distribution. The parties have agreed to cause their respective boards of directors to meet on the date of the declaration of the distribution to take any corporate action at the meeting required to effect the transactions contemplated by the distribution agreement and the merger agreement. As soon as reasonably practicable and in no event more than 10 days following these meetings, but only on the date of the distribution, Curtiss-Wright will complete the recapitalization in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, including the filing of the certificate of merger relating to the recapitalization with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

OTHER AGREEMENTS

Voting Agreement by Unitrin. Unitrin has agreed to be present, and to cause CW Disposition Company to be present, in person or by proxy at each and every stockholders meeting of Curtiss-Wright at which the recapitalization proposal and the corporate governance amendments are submitted to the stockholders and to vote, or cause to be voted, all shares of common stock owned directly or indirectly by it and its subsidiaries in favor of the recapitalization proposal and each of the corporate governance amendments. If approved by our stockholders, the corporate governance amendments will become effective only if the merger occurs.

Standstill Agreement. Unitrin has agreed that, until the distribution agreement is terminated or the recapitalization is complete, it will not, and it will cause its affiliates not to, without the prior approval of our board:

solicit proxies with respect to the Curtiss-Wright common stock;

participate in any group of related people with respect to the Curtiss-Wright common stock;

act, alone or with others, to seek control of Curtiss-Wright;

disclose any intention with respect to any of these standstill provisions; or request that Curtiss-Wright waive any of these standstill provisions.

Indemnification Against Tax and Other Liabilities. The distribution agreement provides that Unitrin and Curtiss-Wright will comply with and not take any action during the relevant time period that is inconsistent with the representations made to the Internal Revenue Service in connection with the request for the Internal Revenue Service ruling described under 'Proposal One:

The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Tax Matters -- Recapitalization and Distribution' on page 22. In order to preserve the tax-free status of the distribution, we have agreed to maintain our status as a company engaged in the active conduct of a trade or business, as defined in Section 355(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, until the second anniversary of the distribution.

In addition, under Section 355(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, the distribution will be taxable to Unitrin if the distribution is part of a plan or series of related transactions pursuant to which one or more persons acquire directly or indirectly stock representing a 50% or greater interest, based on either vote or value, in Unitrin or Curtiss-Wright. Acquisitions that occur during the period beginning two years before the distribution and ending two years after the distribution are subject to a rebuttable presumption that they are part of such a plan. If Unitrin becomes subject to tax under Section 355(e), its tax liability will be based upon the difference between the fair market value of the Class B common stock at the time of the distribution and its adjusted basis in such stock at that time and this tax liability will be a significant amount.

If we take any action or fail to take any required action, and that failure to comply, action or omission contributes to a determination that the distribution fails to qualify under Section 355(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or that the Curtiss-Wright shares fail to qualify as qualified property for purposes of Section 355(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code by reason of Section 355(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, we have agreed to indemnify Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group and its direct or indirect subsidiaries for:

all federal, state and local taxes, including any interest, penalties or additions to tax; and any established liability of any Unitrin stockholders resulting from the distribution evidenced by (i) an amended tax return of the Unitrin stockholder reflecting the amount of the tax liability, together with proof of payment of the amount or (ii) a deficiency notice received by the Unitrin stockholder from the Internal Revenue Service setting forth the amount of the tax liability, together with proof of payment of the amount.

In addition, we have agreed to indemnify Unitrin, each member of the consolidated group of corporations of which Unitrin is the common parent corporation and each direct and indirect subsidiary of Unitrin for:

all actual tax liability of Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group and its direct or indirect subsidiaries, and for any established tax liabilities of any stockholder of Unitrin evidenced by (i) an amended tax return of the Unitrin stockholder reflecting the amount of the tax liability, together with proof of payment of the amount or (ii) a deficiency notice received by the Unitrin stockholder from the Internal Revenue Service setting forth the amount of the tax liability, together with proof of payment of the amount, arising from any inaccuracy in, or failure by Curtiss-Wright to comply with, any representation or undertaking made by Curtiss-Wright to the Internal Revenue Service in connection with the Internal Revenue Service ruling request, subject to certain exceptions.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the distribution agreement, Curtiss-Wright will not be obligated to indemnify Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group or its direct or indirect subsidiaries for any tax liability that results solely from an inaccuracy in or failure by Unitrin to comply with any representation or undertaking by Unitrin to the Internal Revenue Service in connection with the Internal Revenue Service ruling request. Furthermore, if any tax liability arises as a result of both either (i) our taking or failing to take any action that contributes to the distribution not being treated as a tax-free transaction or (ii) an inaccuracy in or failure by Curtiss-Wright to comply with any representation or undertaking made by Curtiss-Wright to the Internal Revenue Service in connection with the Internal Revenue Service ruling request, and

an inaccuracy in or failure by Unitrin to comply with any representation or undertaking by Unitrin to the Internal Revenue Service in connection with the Internal Revenue Service ruling request, and each failure is an independent cause of the liability, then Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin will allocate the tax liability among themselves in a proportion that reflects the relative fault of each party. In the event that Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin are jointly responsible for a shareholder level liability under the provisions described above, we are required to indemnify and pay to Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group and its direct or indirect subsidiaries our share of an established liability of a Unitrin stockholder if, and only to the extent that, Unitrin has agreed to pay the Unitrin stockholder its proportionate share of the established liability. If Unitrin does not actually pay its proportionate share of the established liability to the stockholder, Unitrin will reimburse Curtiss-Wright for any amounts paid by Curtiss-Wright to Unitrin in respect of the established liability.

We will not be obligated to indemnify Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group or its direct or indirect subsidiaries against any Unitrin tax liability that would not have been incurred but for the aggregation of (i) the increase of Unitrin's voting power with respect to its Curtiss-Wright stock as a result of the recapitalization and (ii) a transaction that occurs, or is the subject of any agreement, understanding, arrangement or substantial negotiations, after the date that is six months after the date of the distribution (but not including a transaction that occurs after the date that is six months after the date of the distribution that was negotiated or agreed to prior to such date or that is similar to a transaction that was negotiated or agreed to prior to such date). In addition, we will be entitled to rely upon any representations made by Unitrin in the distribution agreement with respect to the absence of a plan or arrangement on the part of Unitrin to dispose of its interest in Curtiss-Wright or in the Internal Revenue Service ruling request with respect to sales by Unitrin stockholders of stock or securities of Unitrin or Curtiss-Wright. In the event these representations are not true, correct or complete, we will not be obligated to indemnify Unitrin, the members of its consolidated group or its direct or indirect subsidiaries for any Unitrin tax liability that would not have been incurred but for the failure of these representations to be true, correct and complete, unless Curtiss-Wright had prior actual knowledge of the inaccuracy, failure or incompleteness.

Any indemnity payment made by Curtiss-Wright pursuant to the provisions described above will be made on an after-tax basis, calculated according to the actual tax position of the person receiving the payment. The total amount to be paid by Curtiss-Wright pursuant to its indemnity obligation under the distribution agreement will not exceed $135 million.

As a result of the representations in the Internal Revenue Service ruling request and the covenants in the distribution agreement, the acquisition of control of Curtiss-Wright prior to the second anniversary of the distribution date may be more difficult or less likely to occur because of the potential indemnification liability associated with a breach of these representations or covenants. In addition, Curtiss-Wright's ability to undertake acquisitions and other transactions may be substantially restricted for the two-year period following the distribution.

The distribution agreement also provides for assumptions of liabilities and cross-indemnities designed to allocate financial responsibility for former, current, or future liabilities arising out of or in connection with the businesses of each respective party.

No Solicitation. Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin have agreed not to solicit or negotiate in connection with any proposal for the acquisition by any third party of any shares of capital stock of Curtiss-Wright or the acquisition of, or business combination with, Curtiss-Wright during the pendency of the proposed transactions. Unitrin will be relieved of this obligation if:

our board of directors approves an alternative transaction during the pendency of the transactions, does not recommend or withdraws its recommendation in favor of the transactions or modifies its recommendation in a manner adverse to Unitrin,

Curtiss-Wright breaches or fails to comply with any of its material obligations under the distribution agreement or merger agreement and fails to cure the breach or failure within 30 days following notice, or Unitrin receives a written proposal for an alternative transaction and the board of directors of Unitrin in good faith determines, after consultation with outside counsel, that it would be inconsistent with the Unitrin board's fiduciary duties to Unitrin stockholders if the Unitrin board did not commence discussions or negotiations with the person making the proposal, but only with respect to that specific proposal.

We will be released from this obligation if we receive a written proposal for an alternative transaction and our board of directors in good faith determines after consultation with outside counsel, that it would be inconsistent with our fiduciary duties to our stockholders if we did not commence discussions or negotiations with the person making the proposal. This release will only be with respect to that specific proposal.

Expenses. The distribution agreement also provides that, except as set forth under ' -- The Merger Agreement -- Expenses' on page 27 and ' -- Termination' below, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the recapitalization, the distribution agreement, the merger agreement, the distribution and the other transactions contemplated thereby will be paid by the party incurring the costs and expenses.

TERMINATION

Prior to the filing of the certificate of merger related to the recapitalization, the distribution agreement may be terminated:

by Curtiss-Wright and Unitrin by mutual written consent;

by Curtiss-Wright or Unitrin if the other party is in breach of any of its obligations or representations and warranties under the distribution agreement or the merger agreement, and the breach would result in a material adverse effect on the party after giving effect to the distribution, and the breaching party fails to correct the breach within 30 days following notice;

by Curtiss-Wright if, following receipt of a proposal for an alternative transaction, our board of directors is required by its fiduciary duties to stockholders of Curtiss-Wright to terminate the merger agreement or the distribution agreement and accept the proposal; in this case Curtiss-Wright will pay the reasonable documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by Unitrin in connection with the distribution agreement, the merger agreement and the related transactions up to a total of $2.3 million, but only if Unitrin does not agree to, or otherwise vote in favor of, the alternative proposal;

by Unitrin if:

our board of directors withdraws its approval or recommendation of the transactions, does not recommend or modifies its approval or recommendation in a manner adverse to Unitrin or approves, recommends or enters into an agreement for any alternative proposal;

the stockholders of Curtiss-Wright do not approve the recapitalization; or following receipt of a proposal for an alternative transaction, the board of directors of Unitrin is required by its fiduciary duties to stockholders of Unitrin to terminate the distribution agreement and accept the alternative transaction proposal;

in the case of the first point directly above, Curtiss-Wright shall pay the reasonable documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by Unitrin in connection with the distribution agreement, the merger agreement and the related transactions up to a total of $2.3 million and in the case of the third point directly above, Unitrin shall pay the reasonable documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by Curtiss-Wright in connection with the distribution agreement, the merger agreement and the related transactions up to a total of $2.3 million;

by Curtiss-Wright or Unitrin if the recapitalization is not completed by October 26, 2001, but this right is not available to any party in material breach of its obligations under the distribution agreement or the merger agreement. If the merger agreement has been adopted by the vote set forth under 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Required Vote' on page 21 by October 26, 2001 but the recapitalization has not been completed by October 26,

2001, then the time period set forth in this bullet point will be extended for a period that ends 30 days after the stockholders meeting at which the merger agreement was adopted by the requisite vote; or automatically upon termination of the merger agreement.

Except in circumstances where a party is required to pay the fees and expenses of the other party as set forth above or as described under ' -- The Merger Agreement -- Expenses' on page 27, and except for liability for any breach by either party of the distribution agreement or merger agreement, no party will be liable to any other party or any other person as a result of termination of the distribution agreement. After the filing of the certificate of merger relating to the recapitalization, the distribution agreement may not be terminated except by an agreement in writing signed by both parties.

PROPOSALS TWO, THREE, FOUR AND FIVE: CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS

The corporate governance amendments will not be implemented if the recapitalization proposal is not approved.

The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the proposed amendments to our certificate of incorporation and by-laws, which are attached to this proxy statement.

GENERAL

The corporate governance amendments will amend our certificate of incorporation in ways that we believe are necessary to foster our long-term growth as an independent company following the recapitalization and the distribution and to protect our stockholders from unsolicited potentially coercive or abusive takeover tactics and efforts to acquire control of Curtiss-Wright at a price or on terms that are not in the best interests of all Curtiss-Wright stockholders.

Our board has also approved amendments to our by-laws which are attached as Appendices D-1 and D-2 and are described under 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Description of By-laws Amendments' on page 19 and ' -- Description of By-laws Amendments' on page 38. Under the terms of our existing certificate of incorporation, our board of directors has the power to amend the by-laws without stockholder approval. As a result, separate stockholder approval is not required to effect the by-laws amendments. However, the by-laws amendments relating to the corporate governance amendments are subject to the approval of the recapitalization proposal and the corporate governance amendments will become effective only upon the completion of the recapitalization. In addition to containing the amendments to the by-laws discussed in 'Proposal One: Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Description of By-laws Amendments' on page 19, the by-laws amendments contain changes necessary to conform the by-laws to our certificate of incorporation if the corporate governance amendments are approved.

Our board adopted a stockholders' rights plan at the time it approved the recapitalization and the distribution. We anticipate that our management will propose that our board amend and restate our rights plan at the time of the distribution to make some changes, including those required to take into account the two classes of Curtiss-Wright stock and to provide institutional investors with additional flexibility with regard to the acquisition of Curtiss-Wright stock. See ' -- Stockholders' Rights Plan' on page 38.

PURPOSE AND EFFECTS OF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS

The proposed recapitalization and distribution may make it easier for a single person or group of related persons to gain control over our company. Because Unitrin currently holds approximately 44% of the Curtiss-Wright common stock, it is unlikely at present that a person other than Unitrin would gain control of our company without Unitrin's consent. Following the recapitalization and distribution, however, holders of Class B common stock will have the right to elect at least 80% of our board. Accordingly, a person or group of related persons could gain control of our company by gaining control of our board by acquiring a majority of the outstanding Class B common stock, or the votes represented by those shares. Since the outstanding Class B common stock will represent approximately 44% of the total outstanding shares of Curtiss-Wright voting stock, the special class voting right of the Class B common stock would permit a person or group to gain control of our board by acquiring only approximately 22% or more of Curtiss-Wright's total outstanding voting securities. In addition, the substantial influence that Unitrin has the ability to exert in matters voted on by Curtiss-Wright stockholders will be eliminated as a result of the recapitalization and distribution. For these reasons, the proposed recapitalization and distribution could render Curtiss-Wright more susceptible to unsolicited takeover bids from third parties, including offers below the intrinsic value of Curtiss-Wright or other offers that would not be in the best interests of Curtiss-Wright's stockholders.

In order to reduce the concerns described above, the corporate governance amendments, together with the by-laws amendments and our stockholders' rights plan, giving effect to the changes we anticipate our board will adopt at the time of the distribution, are intended to make it more difficult for a potential acquiror of Curtiss-Wright to take advantage of Curtiss-Wright's new capital structure to acquire Curtiss-Wright by means of a transaction which is not negotiated with our board. The corporate governance amendments, the by-laws amendments and our stockholders' rights plan would reduce the vulnerability of Curtiss-Wright to an unsolicited takeover proposal. These provisions are designed to enable Curtiss-Wright to develop its business in a manner which will foster its long-term growth, with the threat of a takeover not deemed by our board to be in the best interests of Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders, and the potential disruption entailed by a threat of a takeover, reduced to the extent practicable. Eliminating Unitrin as an approximately 44% stockholder as a result of the distribution would, absent these provisions, increase Curtiss-Wright's vulnerability to an unsolicited takeover proposal. In addition, as discussed above under 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Tax Matters -- Recapitalization and Distribution' on page 22, Curtiss-Wright has agreed to indemnify Unitrin for tax liabilities under some circumstances if the distribution becomes subject to tax. The likelihood of the distribution losing its tax-free status and the likelihood of Curtiss-Wright being subject to liability under the tax indemnification provisions of the distribution agreement increase if Curtiss-Wright is acquired. By making a takeover of Curtiss-Wright without approval of our board more difficult, the corporate governance amendments, the by-laws amendments and our stockholders' rights plan will also protect Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders from potential liabilities resulting from the loss of the tax-free status of the distribution.

Our board believes that when companies do not have measures in place to address unsolicited takeover bids, change in control transactions do occur at prices below the best price that might otherwise be attainable. Many companies have put provisions in place which require potential acquirors to negotiate with the board of directors. Our board desires to provide Curtiss-Wright with the flexibility to grow its business without being subject to unsolicited takeover proposals either at inadequate prices or by means of unfair takeover tactics. Our board of directors is aware of, and committed to, its fiduciary obligations to Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders in respect of these measures.

State Anti-Takeover Statutes. Under the business combination statute of Delaware law, a corporation is generally restricted from engaging in a business combination with an interested stockholder for a three-year period following the time the stockholder became an interested stockholder. An interested stockholder is defined as a stockholder who, together with its affiliates or associates, owns, or who is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and within the prior three-year period did own, 15% or more of the corporation's voting stock. This restriction applies unless:

prior to the time the stockholder became an interested stockholder, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder;

the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation, excluding specified shares, upon completion of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder; or at or subsequent to the time the stockholder became an interested stockholder, the business combination was approved by the board of directors of the corporation and authorized by the affirmative vote, at an annual or special meeting, and not by written consent, of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation, excluding shares held by that interested stockholder.

A business combination generally includes:

mergers, consolidations and sales or other dispositions of 10% or more of the assets of a corporation to or with an interested stockholders;

transactions resulting in the issuance or transfer to an interested stockholder of any capital stock of the corporation or its subsidiaries, subject to certain exceptions;

transactions having the effect of increasing the proportionate share of the interested stockholder in the capital stock of the corporation or its subsidiaries, subject to certain exceptions; and other transactions resulting in a disproportionate financial benefit to an interested stockholder.

The provisions of the Delaware business combination statute do not apply to a corporation if, subject to certain requirements, the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of the corporation contain a provision expressly electing not to be governed by the provisions of the statute or the corporation does not have voting stock listed on a national securities exchange, authorized for quotation on the NASDAQ Stock Market or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders.

We have not adopted any provision in our certificate of incorporation or by-laws electing not to be governed by the Delaware business combination statute. As a result, the statute is applicable to business combinations involving Curtiss-Wright.

The corporate governance amendments, together with the by-laws amendments and our stockholders' rights plan, may reduce the ability of our stockholders to influence the governance of Curtiss-Wright.

THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS

In deciding to approve the corporate governance amendments, we determined that it would be beneficial to have the protections of the corporate governance amendments in place following the recapitalization and the distribution. Following is a description of the material terms of the corporate governance amendments.

Proposal Two: Board Size Proposal. If this proposal is approved, our certificate of incorporation will be amended to provide that our board will consist of not more than ten directors and that the exact number of directors will be fixed from time to time exclusively by our board by a resolution adopted by a majority of the Curtiss-Wright board. The effect of this provision is that the stockholders of Curtiss-Wright, acting on their own, will no longer have the power, without first obtaining board approval, to amend the by-laws to increase the size of the board and fill the new directorships with their own representatives. The provisions currently set forth in the certificate of incorporation and by-laws allow this to be done by vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock.

The vote of 66 2/3% of all the Curtiss-Wright capital stock entitled to vote, voting together as a single class, will be required to alter, amend, rescind or repeal this provision of the certificate of incorporation or to adopt any provision inconsistent with this provision if the supermajority vote proposal described below is adopted.

Proposal Three: Written Consent Proposal. Unless otherwise provided in a company's certificate of incorporation, Delaware law permits any action required or permitted to be taken by stockholders of a company at a meeting to be taken without notice, without a meeting and without a stockholder vote if a written consent setting forth the action to be taken is signed by the holders of shares of outstanding stock having the requisite number of votes that would be necessary to authorize the action at a meeting of stockholders at which all shares entitled to vote were present and voted. Our certificate of incorporation does not currently provide otherwise. Moreover, our by-laws currently provide for stockholder action by written consent. The written consent proposal will amend the certificate of incorporation, and conforming changes will be made to the by-laws, to require that stockholder action be taken at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, and will prohibit stockholder action by written consent.

The written consent proposal will give all stockholders of Curtiss-Wright the opportunity to participate in determining any proposed action and will prevent the holders of a majority of the voting stock from using the written consent procedure to take stockholder action without affording all stockholders an opportunity to participate. This proposal will prevent stockholders from taking action other than at an annual or special meeting of stockholders at which the proposal is submitted to stockholders in accordance with the advance notice provisions of our by-laws. This could lengthen the amount of time required to take stockholder actions, which will ensure that stockholders will have sufficient time to weigh the arguments presented by both sides in connection with any contested stockholder vote. If the special meeting proposal is adopted, stockholders will no longer have the ability to call a special meeting of stockholders of Curtiss-Wright to take corporate action between annual meetings. Accordingly, the written consent proposal in conjunction with the special meeting proposal may discourage, delay or prevent a change in control of Curtiss-Wright. For example, a proposal for the removal of directors for cause could, if the board of directors desired, be delayed until the next annual meeting of Curtiss- Wright stockholders.

The vote of 66 2/3% of all the Curtiss-Wright capital stock entitled to vote, voting together as a single class, will be required to alter, amend, rescind or repeal this provision of the certificate of incorporation or to adopt any provision inconsistent with this provision if the supermajority vote proposal described below is adopted.

Proposal Four: Special Meeting Proposal. Under our current by-laws, a special meeting of stockholders may be called by the Chairman, the President or one of the directors and is required to be called by the Secretary at the request in writing of a majority of the shares of common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote. If the special meeting proposal is adopted, our certificate of incorporation will be amended, and conforming changes will be made to our by-laws, to prohibit our stockholders from calling a special meeting. This would mean that proposals for stockholder action, such as a proposed amendment to the by-laws or a proposal for the removal of directors for cause, could, if the board of directors desired, be delayed until the next annual meeting of Curtiss-Wright's stockholders. A common tactic of bidders attempting a takeover is to initiate a proxy contest by calling a special meeting. By eliminating the stockholders' right to call a special meeting, expensive proxy contests cannot occur other than in connection with our annual meeting. Also, the board can still call a special meeting of the stockholders when issues arise that require a stockholder meeting. The inability of a stockholder to call a special meeting might impact upon a person's decision to purchase voting securities of Curtiss-Wright.

The vote of 66 2/3% of all the Curtiss-Wright capital stock entitled to vote, voting together as a single class, will be required to alter, amend, rescind or repeal this provision of the certificate of incorporation or to adopt any provision inconsistent with this provision if the supermajority vote proposal described below is adopted.

Proposal Five: Supermajority Voting Proposal. Currently, in addition to board approval, the approval of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote thereon is required to amend any provision of our certificate of incorporation. Delaware law permits a company to include provisions in its certificate of incorporation that require a greater vote than the vote otherwise required by law for any corporate action. The supermajority voting proposal would amend our certificate of incorporation to require the vote of at least 66 2/3% of all of the shares of capital stock of Curtiss-Wright which are entitled to vote, voting together as a single class, to alter, amend, rescind or repeal any of our by-laws by stockholder action or alter, amend, rescind or repeal certain provisions of our certificate of incorporation or to adopt any provision inconsistent therewith. The provisions in the certificate of incorporation affected by this amendment are:

The provisions concerning the size of the board and the filling of board vacancies and newly created directorships;

The provision concerning the inability of our stockholders to call special meetings;

The provision concerning the inability of our stockholders to act by written consent; and

The provision requiring a 66 2/3% vote of stockholders to amend the by-laws or to amend the provisions of the certificate of incorporation described above.

The 'supermajority' voting provisions may discourage or deter a person from attempting to obtain control of Curtiss-Wright by making it more difficult to amend some provisions of our certificate of incorporation or for our stockholders to amend any provision of our by-laws, whether to eliminate provisions that have an anti-takeover effect or those that protect the interests of minority stockholders. The supermajority voting provisions will make it more difficult for a stockholder or stockholder group to amend our by-laws or put pressure on our board to amend our certificate of incorporation to facilitate a takeover attempt. Adoption of the supermajority voting proposal requires only the approval of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock. If the supermajority voting proposal is adopted by less than a 66 2/3% vote, stockholders having the same percentage of voting power as those who voted in favor of its adoption will not have sufficient voting power to alter, amend or repeal these provisions at a later date.

REQUIRED VOTE

Approval of each of the corporate governance amendments requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Curtiss-Wright's common stock outstanding as of the record date. Unitrin has agreed to vote or cause to be voted all shares of common stock owned by it and any of its subsidiaries, approximately 44% of the total number of outstanding shares of common stock, in favor of the corporate governance amendments. Unless the merger agreement is adopted by the holders of Curtiss-Wright common stock as described under 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Required Vote' on page 21 and the recapitalization is completed, the corporate governance amendments will not be implemented.

If the corporate governance amendments are approved, and the recapitalization is completed Curtiss-Wright's certificate of incorporation will be amended as indicated in Appendix C-1, which includes both the recapitalization amendments and the corporate governance amendments. If the recapitalization proposal is approved but any of the corporate governance amendments are not approved, our certificate of incorporation will be amended as indicated in Appendix C-2.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE CURTISS-WRIGHT BOARD

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS APPROVED THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS AND HAS DETERMINED THAT EACH OF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS IS ADVISABLE AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF CURTISS-WRIGHT AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS. OUR BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS OF CURTISS-WRIGHT VOTE 'FOR' THE ADOPTION OF EACH OF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AMENDMENTS.

DESCRIPTION OF BY-LAWS AMENDMENTS

As discussed under 'Proposal One: The Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Description of By-laws Amendments' on page 19, our board has approved amendments to our by-laws. If the Curtiss-Wright stockholders vote to approve the recapitalization proposal and the corporate governance amendments, the by-laws amendments described under 'Proposal One: Recapitalization and Related Transactions -- Description of By-laws Amendments' on page 19 will be implemented as well as provisions necessary to conform the by-laws to the corporate governance amendments. If the recapitalization proposal is approved but any of the corporate governance amendments are not approved, our by-laws will be amended as indicated in Appendix D-2.

The by-laws amendments relating to the corporate governance amendments are subject to the approval of the recapitalization proposal and the corporate governance amendments and will become effective only upon the completion of the recapitalization. The by-laws amendments do not require separate stockholder approval. A description of the by-laws amendments is included in this proxy statement for informational purposes only.

STOCKHOLDERS' RIGHTS PLAN

Stockholders' rights plans are designed to encourage potential acquirors to negotiate with a company's board of directors to preserve for stockholders the value of a company in the event of a takeover attempt, particularly if the common stock of the company is trading at prices substantially less than the company's long-term value. Rights plans reduce the likelihood that a potential acquiror who is unwilling to pay a market premium that a company's board determines is sufficient will attempt to acquire stock by means of an open market accumulation, front-end loaded tender offer or other coercive or unfair takeover tactics. We currently have a stockholders' rights plan in place that may discourage unsolicited takeover bids from third parties or efforts to remove incumbent management, or make these actions more difficult to accomplish. The stockholders' rights plan was adopted to ensure that in the case of an unsolicited takeover offer, Curtiss-Wright and its stockholders would be protected from takeover attempts, or the acquisitions of a substantial block of equity, on terms which may be less favorable to its stockholders generally than would be available in transactions negotiated with and approved by the board. With the stockholders' rights plan in place, if a hostile takeover is threatened or an offer to acquire a substantial block of Curtiss-Wright common stock is made, the board is better able to manage the process to ensure that any proposal accepted is in the best interest of all stockholders and, if required and to the extent practicable, the price to the stockholders is maximized and that all stockholders are treated equally.

We anticipate that our management will propose that our board amend and restate our stockholders' rights plan at the time of the distribution to make some changes, including those required to take into account the two classes of Curtiss-Wright stock and to provide institutional investors with additional flexibility with regard to the acquisition of Curtiss-Wright stock. We believe that our stockholders' rights plan enhances our ability to protect and advance our interests and those of our stockholders in the event of an unsolicited proposal to acquire a significant interest in Curtiss-Wright in light of the completion of the recapitalization and distribution.

We anticipate that the changes to the stockholders' rights plan that management will propose to the board will provide that a right to purchase one share of Curtiss-Wright common stock or Class B common stock will be associated with each share of Curtiss-Wright common stock and Class B common stock, respectively, outstanding upon consummation of the recapitalization and will be attached to all future issuances of common stock and Class B common stock until the rights become exercisable. The changes to the rights plan that management expects to propose to our board will provide that the rights will become exercisable on the date that is the earlier of:

the tenth day following the public announcement that a person or group has acquired become an 'acquiring person' by having beneficial ownership of:

12 1/2% or more (17 1/2% or more in the case of qualified institutional investors) of the Class B common stock; or

15% or more (18 1/2% or more in the case of qualified institutional investors) of the total voting power represented by the common stock and the Class B common stock voting as a single class, or the tenth business day (or a later date as determined by the Curtiss-Wright board) following the commencement of or announcement of an intention to make a tender offer or exchange offer by any person which would result in such person owning at least:

12 1/2% or more (17 1/2% or more in the case of qualified institutional investors) of the Class B common stock; or 15% or more (18 1/2% or more in the case of qualified institutional investors) of the total voting power represented by the common stock and the Class B common stock voting together as a single class.

A person would be qualified as an institutional investor if that person:

is principally engaged in the business of managing investment funds for unaffiliated securities investors and, as part of that person's duties as agent for fully managed accounts, holds or exercises voting or dispositive power over shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock;

acquires beneficial ownership of shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock pursuant to trading activities undertaken in the ordinary course of such person's business and not with the purpose nor the effect, either alone or in concert with any person, of exercising the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of Curtiss-Wright or of otherwise changing or influencing the control of Curtiss-Wright, nor in connection with or as a participant in any transaction having such purpose or effect, and publicly discloses in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission that it has no intention to seek control of Curtiss-Wright.

The rights will be redeemable at a price of $.01 per right, by the vote of the Curtiss-Wright board, at any time prior to the time a person becomes an acquiring person.

In the event that any person becomes an acquiring person, each holder of a right (other than rights held by the acquiring person, which will become void) will have the right to receive upon exercise of the right at the then-current exercise price that number of shares of the class of Curtiss-Wright's common stock to which the right relates having a market value on that date of two times the exercise price of the right. If this right is exercised, the acquiring person's voting and economic interest in Curtiss-Wright would be diluted by the issuance by Curtiss-Wright of a large number of its shares of common stock and Class B common stock to its current stockholders other than the acquiring person at a reduced price.

Any person owning in excess of the applicable acquiring person threshold on the date of adoption of the rights plan or as a result of the distribution will be grandfathered so long as such person does not acquire additional shares representing more than 1% of the outstanding Class B common stock or 1% of the total voting power of the common stock and the Class B common stock after giving effect to the acquisition.

As a result, the Singleton Group LLC would not become an acquiring person on account of the Class B common stock received by it in the distribution so long as it does not collectively acquire additional shares that would, relative to its ownership on the date of the distribution, represent an additional 1% of the shares of Class B common stock or an additional 1% of the total voting power of the common stock and the Class B common stock then outstanding.

No assurance can be given that the terms actually proposed to our board and adopted by our board will be the same as those described above or that the percentages of beneficial ownership of Curtiss-Wright common stock and Class B common stock required for a person or group (including any qualified institutional investor) to become an 'acquiring person' will not be higher than those set forth above. If approved by our board, the changes to our stockholders' rights plan will not require stockholder approval.

STOCK OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT OF CURTISS-WRIGHT

The following table sets forth information as of August 17, 2001 with respect to the beneficial ownership of Curtiss-Wright common stock before and after the transactions by:

each person known to us to own beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Curtiss-Wright common stock or Unitrin common stock;

the four most highly-compensated executive officers, other than the Chief Executive Officer, of Curtiss-Wright;

each director of Curtiss-Wright; and all current executive officers and directors as a group.

There may be other people that own shares of both Curtiss-Wright common stock and Unitrin common stock who would own, collectively, following the recapitalization and the distribution, more than 5% of the total voting power of common stock and Class B common stock.

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of the Company and Merger Sub by resolutions duly adopted have approved the terms, and declared the advisability, of this Agreement and of the Merger, and the Company has directed the submission of this Agreement to its stockholders for adoption; and

WHEREAS, the Merger is intended to constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the 'Code').

NOW, THEREFORE in consideration of the premises and the mutual agreements and provisions herein contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I THE MERGER

SECTION 1.1 The Merger.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time (as defined below), Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company in accordance with the DGCL, whereupon the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease, and the Company shall be the surviving corporation (the 'Surviving Corporation').

(b) Following satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to the Merger, but only on the Distribution Date (as defined in the Distribution Agreement), the Company shall file a Certificate of Merger (the 'Certificate of Merger') with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and make all other filings or recordings required by the DGCL in connection with the Merger. The Merger shall become effective at such time as the Certificate of Merger is duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time as is specified in the Certificate of Merger (the 'Effective Time').

(c) At and after the Effective Time, the Merger shall have the effects set forth in the DGCL. Without limiting the foregoing and subject thereto, from and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall possess all the rights, privileges, powers and franchises and be subject to all the restrictions, disabilities and duties of the Company and Merger Sub, all as provided under the DGCL.

SECTION 1.2 Effect on Capital Stock at the Effective Time.

At the Effective Time:

(a) All the shares of Merger Sub Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted in the aggregate into and become 4,382,400 fully paid and non-assessable shares of Class B Common Stock of the Surviving Corporation and shall have the rights and privileges as set forth in the Surviving Corporation Certificate of Incorporation (as defined in Section 2.1).

(b) Each of the Contributed Shares shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no stock of the Surviving Corporation or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(c) Each share of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares to be canceled in accordance with Section 1.2(b)) shall remain issued and outstanding, and each share of Common Stock that immediately prior to the Effective Time was held in the treasury of the Company shall remain in the treasury of the Company and, in each case, shall have the rights and privileges as set forth in the Surviving Corporation Certificate of Incorporation (as defined in Section 2.1).

SECTION 1.3 Share Certificates.

(a) As soon as practicable after the Effective Time (but in any event on the date the Effective Time occurs):

(i) the Surviving Corporation shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to UNITRIN a number of certificates issued in the names of such persons, in each case, as UNITRIN shall direct, representing in the aggregate 4,382,400 shares of Class B Common Stock of the Surviving Corporation which UNITRIN has the right to receive upon conversion of shares of Merger Sub Common Stock pursuant to the provisions of Section 1.2 (a) hereof;

(ii) the Surviving Corporation shall cancel the share certificate or certificates that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented the shares of Common Stock owned directly by Merger Sub; and

(iii) the share certificates that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented shares of Common Stock that remain issued and outstanding or in the treasury of the Company pursuant to Section 1.2(c) hereof shall not be exchanged and shall continue to represent an equal number of shares of Common Stock of the Surviving Corporation without physical substitution of share certificates of the Surviving Corporation for existing share certificates of the Company.

(b) Any dividend or other distribution declared or made with respect to any shares of capital stock of the Company, whether the record date for such dividend or distribution is before or after the Effective Time, shall be paid to the holder of record of such shares of capital stock on such record date, regardless of whether such holder has surrendered its certificates representing Common Stock or received certificates representing Class B Common Stock pursuant to Section 1.3(a)(i).

ARTICLE II THE SURVIVING CORPORATION

SECTION 2.1 Certificate of Incorporation.

(a) In the event the adoption of this Agreement and each of the Board Size Proposal, the Written Consent Proposal, the Special Meeting Proposal and the Supermajority Voting Proposal (each defined below) are approved by the stockholders of the Company at the Stockholders Meeting (as defined below), at the Effective Time the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended so as to read in its entirety as set forth in Exhibit A-1(a) hereto and as so amended shall be the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) In the event the adoption of any of the Board Size Proposal, the Written Consent Proposal, the Special Meeting Proposal or the Supermajority Voting Proposal is not approved, but the adoption of this Agreement is approved, by the stockholders of the Company at the Stockholders Meeting, at the Effective Time the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended so as to read in its entirety as set forth in Exhibit A-1(b) hereto, with such changes thereto as are set forth in Exhibit A-1(b) hereto to reflect such of the Governance Amendments (as defined below), if any, as may be approved by the vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, and as so amended shall be the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation.

(c) The Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation that becomes effective pursuant to either Section 2.1(a) or 2.1(b) hereof is herein referred to as the 'Surviving Corporation Certificate of Incorporation.'

SECTION 2.2 By-Laws.

(a) In the event the adoption of this Agreement and each of the Board Size Proposal, the Written Consent Proposal, the Special Meeting Proposal and the Supermajority Voting Proposal are approved by the stockholders of the Company at the Stockholders Meeting, at the Effective Time the By-Laws of the Company as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended so as to read in their entirety as set forth in Exhibit A-1(c) hereto and as so amended shall be the By-Laws of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) In the event the adoption of any of the Board Size Proposal, the Written Consent Proposal, the Special Meeting Proposal or the Supermajority Voting Proposal is not approved, but the adoption of this Agreement is approved, by the stockholders of the Company at the Stockholders Meeting, at the Effective Time the By-Laws of the Company as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended so as to read in their entirety as set forth in Exhibit A-1(d) hereto, with such changes thereto as are set forth in Exhibit A-1(d) hereto to reflect the By-laws amendments relating to such of the Governance Amendments, if any, as may be approved by the vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, and as so amended shall be the By-Laws of the Surviving Corporation.

(c) The By-Laws of the Surviving Corporation as amended pursuant to either Section 2.2(a) or 2.2(b) hereof are herein referred to as the 'Surviving Corporation By-Laws.'

SECTION 2.3 Directors and Officers.

(a) The Surviving Corporation's board of directors shall consist of 8 members. From and after the Effective Time, until the earlier of their removal or resignation or until their successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified in accordance with applicable law, the directors of the Surviving Corporation shall consist of the directors of the Company in office at the Effective Time. Each such director shall be designated to serve as a Director or a Class B Director (each as defined in the Surviving Corporation Certificate of Incorporation), such designation to be mutually agreed between UNITRIN and the Company and disclosed in the Proxy Statement (as defined below).

(b) From and after the Effective Time, until the earlier of their removal or resignation or until their successors are duly appointed and qualified in accordance with applicable law and the Surviving Corporation By-Laws, the officers of the Company shall be the officers of the Surviving Corporation.

ARTICLE III COVENANTS AND REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

SECTION 3.1 Stockholders Meeting. The Company shall, as soon as practicable following the date of this Agreement, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders (the 'Stockholders Meeting') for the purpose of considering, as five separate proposals: (a) the adoption of this Agreement;

(b) the approval of an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation placing limits on the size of the Company's board and requiring, subject to certain limitations, that board vacancies and newly created directorships be filled only by remaining board members (the 'Board Size Proposal'); (c) the approval of an amendment to the Company's Restated

Certificate of Incorporation eliminating the ability of stockholders to act by written consent (the 'Written Consent Proposal'); (d) the approval of an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation eliminating the ability of stockholders to call a special meeting (the 'Special Meeting Proposal'); and (e) the approval of an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation requiring a supermajority vote to amend the Surviving Corporation By-Laws by stockholder action or to amend the Surviving Corporation Certificate of Incorporation (the 'Supermajority Voting Proposal') in a manner that would affect matters covered by the Board Size Proposal, the Written Consent Proposal, the Special Meeting Proposal or the Supermajority Voting Proposal if adopted, all as set forth in Exhibit A-1(a) hereto (collectively, the 'Governance Amendments'), to become effective solely upon effectiveness of the Merger. The Company shall, through its Board of Directors, recommend to its stockholders adoption of this Agreement and the approval of the Governance Amendments and shall not withdraw, change or modify such recommendation; provided, however, that the Company's Board of Directors may withdraw, change or modify such recommendation if it determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that it would be inconsistent with the Board's fiduciary duties to the stockholders of the Company not to withdraw, change or modify such recommendation.

SECTION 3.2 Filings; Other Actions.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement and the Distribution Agreement, the Company shall prepare and file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the 'SEC') a proxy statement (the 'Proxy Statement') for the solicitation of proxies in favor of (i) the adoption of this Agreement; and

(ii) the approval of each of the Governance Amendments as amendments to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to become effective solely upon the effectiveness of the Merger. The Company shall not propose to its stockholders the adoption of any of the Governance Amendments as independent amendments to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, but only as amendments to become effective solely upon the effectiveness of the Merger. The Company shall use all reasonable efforts to have the Proxy Statement cleared by the SEC for mailing in definitive form as promptly as practicable after such filing. The Company and UNITRIN shall cooperate with each other in the preparation of the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto, and the Company shall notify UNITRIN of the receipt of any comments of the SEC with respect to the Proxy Statement and of any requests by the SEC for any amendment or supplement thereto or for additional information and shall provide to UNITRIN promptly copies of all correspondence between the SEC and the Company or any of its advisors with respect to the Proxy Statement. The Company shall give UNITRIN and its counsel appropriate advance opportunity to review and comment upon the Proxy Statement and all responses to requests for additional information by, and replies to comments of, the SEC, and shall incorporate therein any reasonable comments UNITRIN may deliver to the Company with respect thereto, before such Proxy Statement, response or reply is filed with or sent to the SEC. The Company agrees to use all reasonable efforts, after consultation with UNITRIN and its advisors, to respond promptly to all such comments of, and requests by, the SEC and to cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to the holders of the Common Stock entitled to vote at the Stockholders Meeting as soon as reasonably possible following the execution hereof. UNITRIN shall provide the Company such information concerning the business and affairs of UNITRIN and Merger Sub as is reasonably required for inclusion in the Proxy Statement.

(b) Each of the Company and UNITRIN shall promptly, and in any event within fifteen business days after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, make all filings or submissions as are required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the 'HSR Act'), and any other applicable law.

(c) Each of the Company and UNITRIN agrees promptly to furnish to the other all copies of written communications (and to advise one another of the substance of all material oral communications) received by it, or any of its affiliates or representatives, from, or delivered by any of the foregoing to, any federal, state, local or international court, commission, governmental body, agency, authority, tribunal, board or other governmental entity (each a 'Governmental Entity') in respect of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(d) At the Stockholders' Meeting, UNITRIN agrees to vote, or cause to be voted, all shares of Common Stock owned by it and any of its subsidiaries or affiliates in favor of the adoption of this Agreement and the approval of each of the Governance Amendments.

(e) As soon as reasonably practicable following execution of this Agreement, UNITRIN, as the sole stockholder of Merger Sub, shall execute and deliver to Merger Sub in accordance with Section 228 of the DGCL a written consent to adoption of this Agreement.

SECTION 3.3 Reasonable Efforts. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of the parties hereto agrees to use all reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to obtain the adoption of this Agreement by the stockholders of the Company as contemplated by Sections 4.1(a) and 4.2(a) hereof and to consummate, as soon as practicable following such approval, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Distribution Agreement, including, but not limited to (a) the obtaining of all necessary actions, waivers, consents and approvals from all Governmental Entities and the making of all necessary registrations and filings (including filings with Governmental Entities) and the taking of all reasonable steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any Governmental Entity (including those in connection with the HSR Act), (b) the obtaining of all necessary consents, approvals or waivers from third parties, (c) the defending of any lawsuits or other legal proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement, the Distribution Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, including seeking to have any stay or temporary restraining order entered by any court or other Governmental Entity with respect to the Merger, this Agreement or the Distribution Agreement vacated or reversed, (d) the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Distribution Agreement and (e) causing all conditions to the parties' obligations to consummate (i) the Merger set forth in Article 4 hereof and (ii) the Distribution set forth in Section 2.1(b) of the Distribution Agreement to be satisfied. The Company and UNITRIN, upon the other's request, shall provide all such information reasonably necessary to accomplish the foregoing concerning the party's business and affairs to the other party.

SECTION 3.4 Representations and Warranties of the Company. The Company hereby represents and warrants to UNITRIN and Merger Sub that:

(a) the Company's Board of Directors has approved and declared advisable the Merger, this Agreement, the Distribution Agreement and each of the Governance Amendments and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, has determined that the Merger and each of the Governance Amendments and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Distribution Agreement are in the best interests of the stockholders of the Company and, subject to Section 3.1 hereof, has recommended that the stockholders of the Company vote in favor of the adoption of this Agreement and each of the Governance Amendments;

(b) the Proxy Statement, the form of proxy and any other solicitation materials used in connection therewith and any oral solicitations of proxies made by the Company shall not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading or omit any statement necessary to correct any statement in any earlier communication with respect to any solicitation of a proxy for any of the matters to be voted upon at the Stockholders Meeting which has become false or misleading, except that no representation or warranty is made by the Company with respect to information relating to UNITRIN or Merger Sub that is provided by UNITRIN for inclusion in the Proxy Statement or any such other proxy material or oral solicitation;

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and constitutes the valid and binding agreement of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, subject to the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and general equitable principles (whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law) and an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing; and

(d) subject to the changes in the Company's capitalization contemplated by this Agreement, the capitalization of the Company is as follows:

- (i) 22,500,000 authorized shares of Common Stock of which 10,071,740 shares were outstanding at the close of business on July 13, 2001;
- (ii) 4,926,470 shares of Common Stock which are held in the treasury of the Company as of July 13, 2001;

- (iv) no shares of any other class or series of capital stock are authorized, issued or outstanding.

SECTION 3.5 Representations and Warranties of UNITRIN and Merger Sub. Each of UNITRIN and Merger Sub jointly and severally represent and warrant to the Company that:

- (a) the Board of Directors of each of UNITRIN and Merger Sub, as applicable, has approved and declared advisable the Merger, this Agreement, the Distribution Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, and, other than as contemplated by Section 3.2 (e) hereof, no stockholder approval or other further corporate action will be required on the part of UNITRIN or Merger Sub;
- (b) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by UNITRIN and Merger Sub and constitutes the valid and binding agreement of each such corporation, enforceable against UNITRIN and Merger Sub in accordance with its terms, subject to the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and general equitable principles (whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law) and an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing;
- (c) UNITRIN owns all outstanding capital stock of Merger Sub free and clear of any claims, liens or encumbrances and no other person holds any capital stock of Merger Sub nor has any right to acquire any equity interest in Merger Sub;
- (d) as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, all of the Contributed Shares shall be owned beneficially and of record by Merger Sub, free and clear of any claims, liens or encumbrances; and
- (e) Merger Sub was formed by UNITRIN solely for the purposes of effectuating the Merger upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement; Merger Sub has no employees, will have no assets other than the Contributed Shares, has not entered into any contract, agreement or other commitment with any person except for customary corporate organizational matters or as specifically set forth in this Agreement, and has no liabilities, commitments or obligations of any kind (known or unknown, fixed or contingent), except for those obligations specifically set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV CONDITIONS TO THE MERGER

- (i) the private letter ruling requested from the IRS providing that, among other things, the Recapitalization and the Distribution will qualify, to the extent set forth therein, as tax-free transactions for federal income tax purposes under Sections 354 and 355 of the Code, respectively (the 'IRS Ruling') shall have been issued and shall continue in effect, such ruling shall be in form and substance satisfactory to UNITRIN in its sole discretion, and C-W shall have complied with all provisions set forth in the IRS Ruling that are required to be complied with prior to the Declaration Date and the Distribution Date;
- (ii) no event outside the control of UNITRIN shall have occurred or failed to occur that prevents the lawful consummation of the Distribution;

- (iv) each of C-W and UNITRIN shall have received all the Required Consents;

- (vi) the Form 8-A shall have been filed with the Commission;
- (vii) the Class B Common Stock shall have been approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance;
- (viii) each of the representations and warranties (other than the representation and warranty set forth in Section 2.3(a)(v) of this Agreement) of C-W set forth in this Agreement and the Recapitalization Agreement that are qualified as to materiality shall be true and correct, and any such representations and warranties that are not so qualified shall be true and correct in all material respects, as of the Declaration Date and the Distribution Date and UNITRIN shall have received a certificate of the chief executive officer of C-W as to the foregoing;
- (ix) C-W shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required to be performed by it under this Agreement and the Recapitalization Agreement at or prior to the Declaration Date or, if applicable, the Distribution Date and UNITRIN shall have received a certificate of the chief executive officer of C-W as to the foregoing; and
- (x) all actions and other documents and instruments reasonably necessary in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Recapitalization Agreement shall have been taken or executed, as the case may be, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to UNITRIN.

The foregoing conditions are for the sole benefit of UNITRIN and shall not give rise to or create any duty on the part of UNITRIN to waive or not waive any such condition.

(c) Sale of Fractional Shares. UNITRIN shall appoint the Distribution Agent as agent for each holder of record of UNITRIN Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive in the Distribution any fractional share of Class B Common Stock. The Distribution Agent shall aggregate all such fractional shares and sell them in an orderly manner as soon as practicable after the Distribution Date in the open market and, after completion of such sales, distribute a pro rata portion of the net proceeds from such sales, based upon the gross selling price of all such fractional shares net of all selling expenses, to each stockholder of UNITRIN who would otherwise have received a fractional share. UNITRIN shall reimburse the Distribution Agent for its reasonable costs, expenses and fees (other than selling expenses) in connection with the sale of fractional shares of Class B Common Stock and the distribution of the proceeds thereof in accordance with this Section 2.1(c).

UNITRIN shall give C-W and its counsel reasonably appropriate advance opportunity to review and comment upon such documents and shall consider in good faith any comments C-W timely delivers to UNITRIN with respect to such information. C-W agrees to cooperate with UNITRIN in the preparation of, and provide any information reasonably requested by UNITRIN for inclusion in, such mailing. C-W represents that all information provided to UNITRIN for such mailing shall be true and correct in all material respects. UNITRIN and C-W will prepare, and C-W will, to the extent required under applicable law, file with the Commission any such documentation, including any no action letters or other requests for interpretive or regulatory assistance, if any, which UNITRIN reasonably determines are necessary or desirable to effectuate the Distribution and the other transactions contemplated hereby and by the Recapitalization Agreement, and UNITRIN and C-W shall each use all reasonable efforts to obtain all necessary approvals from the Commission with respect thereto as soon as practicable.

(iv) C-W shall prepare and file the Form 8-A (which may include or incorporate by reference information contained in the Proxy Statement) with the Commission as promptly as practicable following the execution hereof, and shall use all reasonable efforts to cause the Form 8-A to become effective under the Exchange Act immediately following the consummation of the Recapitalization or as soon thereafter as practicable.

(v) On or prior to the Distribution Date, C-W shall, from time to time as and to the extent reasonably requested by UNITRIN or requested by the IRS, provide any documentation, certifications or other information necessary to enable UNITRIN to obtain the IRS Ruling.

(xii) On or prior to the Distribution Date, each of UNITRIN and C-W, as the case may be, shall, from time to time and to the extent reasonably requested by the other, provide any documentation, certifications or other information to make required filings in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Recapitalization Agreement.

As soon as reasonably practicable and in no event more than 10 days following such meeting, C-W shall take all actions required to consummate the Recapitalization in accordance with the terms of the Recapitalization Agreement, including the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on the Distribution Date.

(b) Subject to each of C-W's and UNITRIN's right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 5.10, in case at any time after the date hereof any further action is reasonably necessary or desirable to carry out the Distribution, the Recapitalization or any other purpose of this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement, the proper officers of each party to this Agreement shall take all such necessary action. Without limiting the foregoing, UNITRIN and C-W shall use all reasonable efforts promptly to obtain the IRS Ruling and all consents and approvals, to enter into all amendatory agreements and to make all filings and applications that may be required for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Recapitalization Agreement, including all applicable governmental and regulatory filings.

SECTION 2.3 Representations and Warranties.

(a) C-W hereby represents and warrants to UNITRIN as follows:

(i) Organization; Good Standing. C-W is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has all corporate power required to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Recapitalization Agreement.

(ii) Authorization. The execution, delivery and performance by C-W of this Agreement and the Recapitalization Agreement and the consummation by C-W of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of C-W, other than the adoption of the Recapitalization Agreement and the approval of each of the Governance Amendments by the stockholders of C-W. Each of this Agreement and the Recapitalization Agreement constitutes, and each other agreement or instrument executed and delivered or to be executed and delivered by C-W pursuant to this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement will, upon such execution and delivery, constitute, a legal, valid and binding obligation of C-W, enforceable against C-W in accordance with its terms, subject to the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally, and general equitable principles (whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law) and an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

(iii) Consents and Filings. Except (A) for the filing of the Certificate of Merger in connection with the Recapitalization and any other filings required to be made with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, (B) for the NYSE Listing Application and any filings in connection therewith, (C) as required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the 'HSR Act'), and (D) for the filing of the Proxy Statement, the Form 8-A and any other reports or documents required to be filed under the Exchange Act, no material consent of, or filing with, any Governmental Authority which has not been obtained or made is required to be obtained or made by C-W for or in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement by C-W, and the consummation by C-W of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

(iv) Noncontravention. Except in the case of any consents that will be obtained prior to the Distribution Date, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Recapitalization Agreement by C-W does not, and the consummation by C-W of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will not, (A) violate any applicable federal, state or local statute, law, rule or regulation, (B) violate any provision of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws of C-W or (C) violate any provision of, or result in the termination or acceleration of, or entitle any party to accelerate any obligation or indebtedness under, any mortgage, lease, franchise, license, permit, agreement, instrument, law, order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which C-W or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which any of them are bound, except for, in the case of clause (C) above, such violations that, individually or in the aggregate, would not (I) result in a Material Adverse Effect with respect to C-W or (II) reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on C-W's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement.

(v) Litigation. There are no actions or suits against C-W pending, or to the knowledge of C-W, threatened which seek to, and C-W is not subject to any judgments, decrees or orders which, enjoin or rescind the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement or otherwise prevent C-W from complying with the terms and provisions of this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement.

(vi) Change of Control Adjustments. Neither the Recapitalization nor the Distribution or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby or by the Recapitalization Agreement will (A) constitute a 'change of control' or otherwise result in the increase or acceleration of any benefits, including to employees of C-W, under any agreement to which C-W or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which it or any of its Subsidiaries is bound or (B) result in any adjustment of the number of shares subject to, or the terms of, including exercise price, any outstanding employee stock options of C-W.

(vii) Certain Transactions. Except for transactions that are described in Schedule 2.3(a)(vii), neither C-W nor any other member of the C-W Group has engaged in any transaction or taken any other action, or engaged in any negotiations or discussions, involving or relating to the issuance of stock of C-W or options, warrants or other rights to acquire stock of C-W (other than compensatory stock plan issuances). None of the transactions or other actions, negotiations or discussions described in Schedule 2.3(a)(vii) were undertaken by C-W in contemplation of the Distribution or are related to the Distribution.

(b) UNITRIN hereby represents and warrants to C-W as follows:

(i) Organization; Good Standing. UNITRIN is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has all corporate power required to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Recapitalization Agreement.

(ii) Authorization. The execution, delivery and performance by UNITRIN of this Agreement and the Recapitalization Agreement and the consummation by UNITRIN of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of UNITRIN, other than the formal declaration of the Distribution. Each of this Agreement and the Recapitalization Agreement constitutes, and each other agreement or instrument executed and delivered or to be executed and delivered by UNITRIN pursuant to this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement will, upon such execution and delivery, constitute, a legal, valid and binding obligation of UNITRIN, enforceable against UNITRIN in accordance with its terms, subject to the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally, and general equitable principles (whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law) and an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

(iii) Consents and Filings. Except (A) for the filing of the Certificate of Merger in connection with the Recapitalization and any other filings required to be made with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, (B) as required under the HSR Act and (C) for any reports or documents required to be filed under the Exchange Act, no material consent of, or filing with, any Governmental Authority which has not been obtained or made is required to be obtained or made by UNITRIN for or in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement by UNITRIN, and the consummation by UNITRIN of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

(iv) Noncontravention. Except in the case of consents that will be obtained on or prior to the Distribution Date, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Recapitalization Agreement by UNITRIN does not, and the consummation by UNITRIN of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will not, (A) violate any applicable federal, state or local statute, law, rule or regulation, (B) violate any provision of the Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws of UNITRIN or (C) violate any provision of, or result in the termination or acceleration of, or entitle any party to accelerate any obligation or indebtedness under, any mortgage, lease, franchise, license, permit, agreement, instrument, law, order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which UNITRIN or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which any of them are bound, except for, in the case of clause (C) above, such violations that, individually or in the aggregate, would not (I) result in a Material Adverse Effect with respect to UNITRIN or (II) reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on UNITRIN's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement.

(v) Litigation. There are no actions or suits against UNITRIN pending, or to the knowledge of UNITRIN, threatened which seek to, and UNITRIN is not subject to any judgments, decrees or orders which, enjoin or rescind the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement or otherwise prevent UNITRIN from complying with the terms and provisions of this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement.

(vi) Plan or Series of Related Transactions. As of the date hereof, there is not, and as of the Distribution Date, there will not be (except as permitted pursuant to Section 4.3 hereof and disclosed to C-W in accordance with the terms of Section 4.3 and except for the contemplated Distribution), any agreement, understanding, arrangement or substantial negotiations involving UNITRIN and concerning the acquisition by any party or parties of C-W or UNITRIN'S interest in C-W.

SECTION 2.4 Certain Post-Distribution Transactions.

(a) (i) C-W and UNITRIN shall each comply with, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to comply with, and otherwise not take, and prevent any of its Subsidiaries from taking, during the relevant time period, any action inconsistent with any representation made by such respective party to the IRS in connection with the request by UNITRIN for the IRS Ruling (other than, in the case of C-W, the representation contained in Section IV.B.18 of the request for the IRS Ruling, provided that C-W has not breached its obligations under Section 2.4(b) hereof that relate to Section 355(e) of the Code), and (ii) until two years after the Distribution Date, C-W will maintain its status as a company engaged in the active conduct of a trade or business, as defined in Section 355(b) of the Code.

(b) C-W agrees that (i) prior to the two year anniversary of the Distribution Date, it shall not (A) merge or consolidate with or into any other corporation, (B) liquidate or partially liquidate, (C) sell or transfer all or substantially all of its assets (within the meaning of Rev. Proc. 77-37, 1977-2 C.B. 568) in a single transaction or series of transactions or (D) redeem or otherwise repurchase any C-W stock (other than as described in Section 4.05(1)(b) of Rev. Proc. 96-30, 1996-1 C.B. 696), and (ii) prior to the date that is six months after the Distribution Date, it shall not take any action or actions (including, but not limited to, entering into any agreements, understandings, arrangements or substantial negotiations and including the issuance of options to acquire stock of C-W or securities that are convertible into stock of C-W) (other than the adoption of a stockholder rights plan in customary form and amendments thereof), which in the aggregate would have the effect of causing or permitting one or more persons to acquire directly or indirectly stock representing a 50 percent or greater interest (within the meaning of Section 355(e) of the Code) in C-W, unless prior to taking any such action or actions set forth in clauses (i) or (ii), at the election of UNITRIN, either C-W has obtained (and provided to UNITRIN) a written opinion in form and substance reasonably acceptable to UNITRIN and C-W, or UNITRIN has obtained (at the expense of C-W) a supplemental ruling from the IRS, that such action or actions will not result in (1) the Distribution failing to qualify under Section 355(a) of the Code or (2) the C-W shares failing to qualify as qualified property for purposes of Section 355(c)(2) of the Code by reason of Section 355(e) of the Code; provided, however, that if the action or actions in question (I) occur after the date that is six months after the Distribution Date, (II) were not, and are not similar to actions that were, the subject of any agreement, understanding, arrangement or substantial negotiations prior to that time and (III) would not result in a direct or indirect acquisition of a 50% or greater interest in C-W stock within the meaning of Section 355(e) of the Code but for any increase in UNITRIN's voting power with respect to Common Stock as a result of the Recapitalization, then the written opinion or supplemental ruling described in clause (2) above will not be required. C-W further agrees that prior to the five year anniversary of the Distribution Date, it shall not initiate or support, or permit its stockholders to vote on, any action that would in any way alter the ability of the holders of the Class B Common Stock to

(i) elect at least 80% of the members of the Board of Directors of C-W (to the extent, and in the manner set forth in, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of C-W, as in effect immediately after the consummation of the Recapitalization) or (ii) otherwise possess at least 80% of the total combined voting power of all classes of C-W stock entitled to vote (as described in Section 368(c) of the Code), unless prior to taking any such action, UNITRIN has obtained (at the expense of C-W) a supplemental ruling from the IRS, that such action or actions will not result in (A) the Distribution failing to qualify under Section 355(a) of the Code or (B) the C-W shares failing to qualify as qualified property for purposes of Section 355(c)(2) of the Code by reason of Section 355(e) of the Code. UNITRIN agrees to cooperate with C-W in obtaining any opinion pursuant to the terms of this clause (b) or, as the case may be, to use all reasonable efforts in obtaining any supplemental ruling pursuant to the terms of this clause (b), including, where appropriate, by providing written representations as to factual events that transpired prior to the Distribution Date.

ARTICLE III INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 3.1 Indemnification by C-W.

(a) C-W shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the UNITRIN Indemnitees from and against any and all C-W Liabilities or third party allegations of C-W Liabilities.

(b) Subject to Section 3.1(d)(i), C-W shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless (i) UNITRIN, (ii) each member of the consolidated group of corporations of which UNITRIN is the common parent corporation (within the meaning of Section 1504 of the Code) and (iii) each direct or indirect Subsidiary of UNITRIN (each Person referred to in clauses (ii) and (iii), a "UNITRIN Member") from and against (A) any actual Liability of UNITRIN or any UNITRIN

Member (including any actual Liability for Taxes to the extent that, in the absence of any Liability for Taxes resulting from a determination that the Distribution fails to qualify under Section 355(a) of the Code or that the C-W shares fail to qualify as qualified property for purposes of Section 355(c)(2) of the Code by reason of Section 355(e) of the Code, such Liability would otherwise have been reduced or eliminated by a net operating loss deduction (within the meaning of Section 172 of the Code and the Treasury regulations thereunder)), and (B) any Established Liability of any stockholder of UNITRIN (it being understood that any Established Liability of any stockholder of UNITRIN shall be deemed to be an actual Liability of UNITRIN for purposes of determining C-W's indemnification obligation hereunder, regardless of whether such stockholder actually has or pursues a valid claim for such Established Liability against UNITRIN), in each case arising from any inaccuracy in, or failure by C-W to comply with, any representation or undertaking made by C-W to the IRS in connection with the request by UNITRIN for the IRS Ruling (other than any representation or undertaking (express or otherwise) contained in Part III.B of UNITRIN's letter request for the IRS Ruling) (referred to herein as a 'C-W Failure' (it being understood that a Clause (d) Failure (as defined below) shall not constitute a C-W Failure for purposes of this Article 3)); provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, C-W shall not indemnify UNITRIN or any UNITRIN Member for any Liability or Established Liability that results solely from a UNITRIN Failure (as defined in Section 3.2(b) hereof) (except to the extent that any such UNITRIN Failure is in respect of a representation based in whole or in part upon information provided by C-W); and provided, further, that if any Liability or Established Liability described in this clause (b) arises as a result of both a C-W Failure and a UNITRIN failure, and each such failure is an independent cause of such Liability or Established Liability, then C-W and UNITRIN shall allocate such Liability or Established Liability between themselves in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of C-W on the one hand and UNITRIN on the other with respect to such Liability or Established Liability.

(c) If C-W (or any of its Subsidiaries) fails to comply with any of its obligations under Section 2.4(a) or (b) above or takes any action or fails to take any action, and such failure to comply, action or omission contributes to a determination that the Distribution fails to qualify under Section 355(a) of the Code or that the C-W shares fail to qualify as qualified property for purposes of Section 355(c)(2) of the Code by reason of Section 355(e) of the Code (each a '355 Failure' (it being understood that a Clause (d) Failure shall not constitute a 355 Failure for purposes of this Article 3)), then C-W shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless UNITRIN and each UNITRIN Member from and against (i) any and all federal, state and local Taxes, including any interest, penalties or additions to Tax, imposed upon or incurred by UNITRIN and any UNITRIN Member and (ii) any Established Liability of any stockholder of UNITRIN (it being understood that any Established Liability of any stockholder of UNITRIN shall be deemed to be a UNITRIN Tax Liability (as defined below) for purposes of determining C-W's indemnification obligation hereunder, regardless of whether such stockholder actually has or pursues a valid claim for such Established Liability against UNITRIN), in each case as a result of the failure of the Distribution to qualify under Section 355(a) of the Code or the application of Section 355(e) (any such Tax, interest, penalty or addition to Tax, together with any such Established Liability, a 'UNITRIN Tax Liability'); provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, C-W shall not indemnify UNITRIN or any UNITRIN Member for any UNITRIN Tax Liability that results solely from a UNITRIN Failure (except to the extent that any such UNITRIN Failure is in respect of a representation based in whole or in part upon information provided by C-W); and provided, further, that if any UNITRIN Tax Liability described in this clause (c) arises as a result of both a 355 Failure and a UNITRIN Failure, and each such failure is an independent cause of such UNITRIN Tax Liability, then C-W and UNITRIN shall allocate such UNITRIN Tax Liability between themselves in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of C-W on the one hand and UNITRIN on the other with respect to such UNITRIN Tax Liability.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement:

(i) C-W shall not be required to indemnify and hold harmless, and shall have no liability to, UNITRIN or any UNITRIN Member for any UNITRIN Tax Liability that would not have been imposed or incurred but for the increase in UNITRIN's voting power with respect to Common Stock as a result of the Recapitalization; provided, however, that C-W shall be required to indemnify and hold UNITRIN and any UNITRIN Member harmless for any UNITRIN Tax

Liability that would not have been imposed or incurred but for the aggregation of (A) the increase in UNITRIN's voting power with respect to the Common Stock as a result of the Recapitalization and (B) the direct or indirect acquisition of C-W stock or securities pursuant to (1) a transaction that occurs (or is the subject of any agreement, understanding, arrangement or substantial negotiations) prior to the date that is six months after the Distribution Date or (2) a transaction that occurs after the date that is six months after the Distribution Date but is similar to a transaction that was the subject of an agreement, understanding, arrangement or substantial negotiations that occurred prior to the date that is six months after the Distribution Date; and

(ii) Subject to the proviso hereto, C-W shall be entitled to rely without limitation on any representations made by UNITRIN in (A) Section 2.3(b)(vi) hereof or (B) its letter request for the IRS Ruling with respect to sales by UNITRIN stockholders of stock or securities of UNITRIN or C-W, and in the event that any such representations are not true, correct and complete in all respects, subject to the proviso hereto, C-W shall not indemnify UNITRIN or any UNITRIN Member for any UNITRIN Tax Liability that would not have been incurred but for the failure of any such representations to be true, correct and complete in all respects; provided, however, that C-W shall not be entitled to rely on, and will not be relieved of its indemnification obligations hereunder as a result of inaccuracies or failures in, or incompleteness of, the representations made by UNITRIN in its letter request for the IRS Ruling with respect to sales by UNITRIN stockholders of stock or securities of UNITRIN or C-W if, before taking or failing to take any action, C-W has actual knowledge of any such inaccuracy, failure or incompleteness.

The exceptions to C-W's indemnification obligations hereunder that are referred to in subclauses (i) and (ii) of this clause (d) are referred to herein as 'Clause (d) Failures.'

(e) Any indemnity payment made by C-W pursuant to either clause (b) or (c) above shall be made on an after-tax basis, based on the actual tax position of UNITRIN, the UNITRIN Member or UNITRIN stockholder, as the case may be, in the taxable year such indemnity payment is received and taking into account the deductibility for federal income tax purposes of any state taxes. The aggregate amount to be paid by C-W pursuant to its indemnity obligations set forth in clauses (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of this Section 3.1 shall not exceed $135 million.

(f) In the event that C-W and UNITRIN are jointly liable under either clause (b) or (c) above, C-W shall be required to indemnify and pay UNITRIN or a UNITRIN Member, with respect to an Established Liability of a UNITRIN stockholder, for C-W's proportionate share of such Established Liability (if any) only if, and to the extent that, UNITRIN shall have agreed (in form reasonably satisfactory to C-W) to pay such UNITRIN stockholder for UNITRIN's proportionate share of such Established Liability. In the event that UNITRIN does not actually pay such UNITRIN stockholder for UNITRIN's proportionate share of such Established Liability, then UNITRIN will reimburse C-W for any amounts paid by C-W to UNITRIN in respect of C-W's proportionate share of such Established Liability.

SECTION 3.2 Indemnification by UNITRIN.

(a) UNITRIN shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the C-W Indemnitees from and against any and all UNITRIN Liabilities or third party allegations of UNITRIN Liabilities.

(b) UNITRIN shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless C-W and each member of the consolidated group of corporations of which C-W is the common parent corporation (within the meaning of Section 1504 of the Code) (each a 'C-W Member') from and against any actual Liability of C-W or any C-W Member arising from any inaccuracy in, or failure by UNITRIN to comply with, any representation or undertaking made by UNITRIN to the IRS in connection with the request by UNITRIN for the IRS Ruling or pursuant to Section 2.3(b)(vi) hereof (referred to herein as a 'UNITRIN Failure'); provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, UNITRIN shall not indemnify C-W or any C-W Member for any liability that results solely from a C-W Failure or a 355 Failure (except to the extent that any such failure is in respect of a representation based in whole or in part upon information provided by UNITRIN); and provided, further, that if any Liability described in this clause (b) arises as a result of both a UNITRIN Failure and a C-W Failure and/or a 355 Failure, and each such failure is an independent cause of such Liability, then UNITRIN and C-W shall allocate such Liability between themselves in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of UNITRIN on the one hand and C-W on the other with respect to such Liability.

SECTION 3.3 Treatment of Payments. UNITRIN agrees to consider in good faith treating for federal income tax purposes any indemnity payments it receives pursuant to this Agreement as payments to which Section 301 of the Code applies.

SECTION 3.4 Procedures for Indemnification. (a) If (i) a claim or demand is made against C-W, any C-W Indemnitee, any C-W Member, UNITRIN, any UNITRIN Indemnitee or any UNITRIN Member (each, an 'Indemnitee') by any person who is not a party to this Agreement (each a 'Third Party Claim') as to which such Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Agreement, such Indemnitee shall notify the party which is or may be required pursuant to the terms hereof to make such indemnification (the 'Indemnifying Party') in writing, and in reasonable detail, of the Third Party Claim promptly (and in any event within 15 business days) after receipt by such Indemnitee of written notice of the Third Party Claim; provided, however, that failure to give such notification shall not affect the indemnification provided hereunder except to the extent the Indemnifying Party shall have been actually prejudiced as a result of such failure. Thereafter, the Indemnitee shall deliver to the Indemnifying Party, promptly (and in any event within five business days) after the Indemnitee's receipt thereof, copies of all notices and documents (including court papers) received by the Indemnitee relating to the Third Party Claim.

If a Third Party Claim is made against an Indemnitee with respect to which a claim for indemnification is made pursuant to Section 3.1 or Section 3.2 hereof, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to participate in the defense thereof and, if it so chooses and acknowledges in writing its obligation to indemnify the Indemnitee therefor, to assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party; provided that such counsel is not reasonably objected to by the Indemnitee. Should the Indemnifying Party so elect to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall, within 30 days (or sooner if the nature of the Third Party Claim so requires), notify the Indemnitee of its intent to do so, and the Indemnifying Party shall thereafter not be liable to the Indemnitee for legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with the defense thereof; provided, that such Indemnitee shall have the right to employ counsel to represent such Indemnitee if, in such Indemnitee's reasonable judgment, a conflict of interest between such Indemnitee and such Indemnifying Party exists in respect of such claim which would make representation of both such parties by one counsel inappropriate, and in such event the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel shall be paid by such Indemnifying Party. If the Indemnifying Party assumes such defense, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate in the defense thereof and to employ counsel, subject to the proviso of the preceding sentence, at its own expense, separate from the counsel employed by the Indemnifying Party, it being understood that the Indemnifying Party shall control such defense. The Indemnifying Party shall be liable for the fees and expenses of counsel employed by the Indemnitee for any period during which the Indemnifying Party has failed to assume the defense thereof. If the Indemnifying Party so elects to assume the defense of any Third Party Claim, all of the Indemnitees shall cooperate with the Indemnifying Party in the defense or prosecution thereof, including by providing or causing to be provided, records and witnesses as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving any request therefor from or on behalf of the Indemnifying Party.

Unless otherwise required by law, in no event will an Indemnitee admit any liability with respect to, or settle, compromise or discharge, any Third Party Claim without the Indemnifying Party's prior written consent (which will not be unreasonably withheld); provided, however, that the Indemnitee shall have the right to settle, compromise or discharge such Third Party Claim without the consent of the Indemnifying Party if the Indemnitee releases the Indemnifying Party from its indemnification obligation hereunder with respect to such Third Party Claim and such settlement, compromise or discharge would not otherwise adversely affect the Indemnifying Party. If the Indemnifying Party acknowledges in writing liability for a Third Party Claim (as between the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnitee), the Indemnifying Party shall be permitted to enter into, and the Indemnitee will agree to, any settlement, compromise or discharge of a Third Party Claim that the Indemnifying Party may recommend and that by its terms obligates the Indemnifying Party to pay the full amount of the liability in connection with such Third Party Claim and releases the Indemnatee completely in connection with such Third Party Claim and that would not otherwise adversely affect the Indemnatee; provided, however, that the Indemnatee may refuse to agree to any such settlement, compromise or discharge if the Indemnatee agrees that the Indemnifying Party's indemnification obligation with respect to such Third Party Claim shall not exceed the amount that would be required to be paid by or on behalf of the Indemnifying Party in connection with such settlement, compromise or discharge; and provided further that the Indemnifying Party shall not agree to any other settlement, compromise or discharge of a Third Party Claim not described above without the prior written consent of the Indemnatee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. If an Indemnifying Party elects not to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim, or fails to notify an Indemnatee of its election to do so as provided herein, such Indemnatee may compromise, settle or defend such Third Party Claim. In such case, the Indemnifying Party shall be responsible for the cost of such compromise, settlement or defense.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to assume the defense of any Third Party Claim (and shall be liable for the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel incurred by the Indemnatee in defending such Third Party Claim) if the Third Party Claim seeks an order, injunction or other equitable relief or relief for other than money damages against the Indemnatee which the Indemnatee reasonably determines, after conferring with its counsel, cannot be separated from any related claim for money damages. If such equitable relief or other relief portion of the Third Party Claim can be so separated from that for money damages, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to assume the defense of the portion relating to money damages.

(b) In the event any Tax Claim (as defined below) is disposed of pursuant to the provisions of this Section 3.4 or a Final Determination has been made in circumstances that give rise to a Tax Liability or an Established Liability on the part of UNITRIN, any UNITRIN Member or any UNITRIN stockholder, as the case may be, then C-W shall pay to UNITRIN all amounts in respect of any Tax Claim within twenty (20) business days after such Tax Claim is disposed of or such Final Determination has been made. For purposes of this Section 3.4(b),

(i) 'Tax Claim' shall mean any notice of deficiency, proposed adjustment, adjustment, assessment, audit, examination, suit, dispute or other written claim which is commenced or initiated against UNITRIN, any UNITRIN Member or any UNITRIN stockholder with respect to Taxes that are attributable to the Recapitalization or Distribution and which result from any act or acts of C-W or its Subsidiaries described in Section 2.4 of this Agreement or the breach by C-W of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement and (ii) 'Final Determination' shall mean (1) the entry of a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction at such time as an appeal may no longer be taken from such decision or (2) the execution of a closing agreement or its equivalent between the particular taxpayer and the particular relevant taxing authority.

SECTION 3.5 Remedies Not Exclusive. The remedies provided in this Article 3 shall be cumulative and shall not preclude assertion by any Indemnatee of any other rights or the seeking of any and all other remedies against any Indemnifying Party.

SECTION 3.6 Subrogation. In the event of payment by an Indemnifying Party to any Indemnatee in connection with any Third Party Claim, such Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated to and shall stand in the place of such Indemnatee as to any events or circumstances in respect of which such Indemnatee may have any right or claim relating to such Third Party Claim. Such Indemnatee shall cooperate with such Indemnifying Party in a reasonable manner, and at the cost and expense of such Indemnifying Party, in prosecuting any subrogated right or claim.

SECTION 3.7 Indemnification Payments. Indemnification required by this Article 3 shall be made by periodic payments of the amount thereof during the course of the investigation or defense, as and when bills are received or loss, liability, claim, damage or expense is incurred.

ARTICLE IV COVENANTS

SECTION 4.1 Access to Information.

(a) Other than in circumstances in which indemnification is sought pursuant to Article 3 (in which event the provisions of such Article will govern), from and after the Distribution Date, each of C-W and

UNITRIN shall afford to the other and its authorized accountants, counsel and other designated representatives reasonable access during normal business hours, subject to appropriate restrictions for classified, privileged or confidential information, to the personnel, properties, books and records of such party and its Subsidiaries to the extent such access is reasonably required by the other party in order to perform its obligations under this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement or to comply with such party's financial, tax and other reporting obligations.

(b) A party providing information or access to information to the other party under this Article 4 shall be entitled to receive from the recipient, upon the presentation of invoices therefor, payments for such amounts, relating to supplies, disbursements and other out-of-pocket expenses, as may be reasonably incurred in providing such information or access to information.

(c) For a period of two years following the Distribution Date, C-W shall provide to UNITRIN: (i) promptly following the date (the 'Target Date'), as of which there has been an aggregate change in the outstanding equity or capital structure of C-W (measured during the period beginning on the Distribution Date and ending on the Target Date and not taking into account the Recapitalization or transfers of shares by C-W stockholders, unless C-W participates in such transfers or such transfers are reported on a Schedule 13D or 13G under the Exchange Act) that accounts for at least 10% of the total outstanding equity of C-W as of the Distribution Date written notice of such change and (ii) after the Target Date, reasonably detailed reports delivered promptly following the occurrence of each additional change or changes (if any) in the outstanding equity or capital structure of C-W that, individually or in the aggregate (not taking into account the Recapitalization or transfers of shares by C-W stockholders, unless C-W participates in such transfers or such transfers are reported on a Schedule 13D or 13G under the Exchange Act), account for at least 5% of the total outstanding equity of C-W as of the Distribution Date.

SECTION 4.2 Confidentiality. Each of C-W and its Subsidiaries and UNITRIN and its Subsidiaries shall keep, and shall cause its employees, consultants, advisors and agents to keep, confidential all information concerning the other parties in its possession, its custody or under its control (except to the extent that (a) such information is then in the public domain through no fault of such party, (b) such information has been lawfully acquired from other sources by such party or (c) this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement or any other agreement entered into pursuant hereto or thereto permits the use or disclosure of such information) and each party shall not (without the prior written consent of the other) otherwise release or disclose such information to any other Person, except such party's auditors and attorneys, unless compelled to disclose such information by judicial or administrative process or unless such disclosure is required by law and such party has used all reasonable efforts to consult with the other affected party or parties prior to such disclosure, and in such case shall exercise all reasonable efforts to obtain reliable assurance that such information will be accorded confidential treatment.

SECTION 4.3 No Solicitation.

(a) Subject to Sections 4.3(b) and 4.3(c), each of UNITRIN and C-W agree not to directly or indirectly, through any officer, director, employee, representative, securityholder or agent solicit, initiate or encourage any inquiries, offers or proposals or any indication of interest or the commencement of negotiations or continue any current negotiations or conduct any negotiations or enter into any agreement or provide any nonpublic information regarding or in connection with any proposal for the acquisition by any third party of any shares of capital stock of C-W from C-W or UNITRIN (other than issuances of common stock by C-W pursuant to employee stock plans in the ordinary course of business) or the acquisition of, or business combination with, C-W through any other means including a merger or purchase of assets (an 'Acquisition Proposal') until the earlier to occur of the termination of this Agreement or the time at which the Distribution is consummated; provided, however, that UNITRIN and C-W may respond to any unsolicited inquiries or proposals solely to indicate that it is bound by this Section 4.3. If either of C-W or UNITRIN receives any such inquiry or proposal, then C-W or UNITRIN, as the case may be, shall inform the other of the terms and conditions, if any, of such inquiry or proposal and the identity of the Person making the proposal and shall keep such party promptly advised of all further communications relating to such inquiry or proposal.

(b) UNITRIN shall be relieved of its obligations under Section 4.3(a) (in the case of clause (iii) below, only to the extent set forth therein) if:

(i) the Board of Directors of C-W shall or shall resolve to (A) not recommend, or withdraw its approval or recommendation of, the Recapitalization, the Recapitalization Agreement, this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated thereby or hereby, (B) modify any such approval or recommendation in a manner adverse to UNITRIN or (C) approve, recommend or enter into any agreement for any Acquisition Proposal;

(ii) C-W breaches or fails to comply with any of its material obligations set forth in this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement and fails to cure such breach or failure within 30 days following notice from UNITRIN; or

(iii) after receipt of a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal, the Board of Directors of UNITRIN in good faith determines, after consultation with its outside counsel, that it would be inconsistent with the Board's fiduciary duties to stockholders of UNITRIN not to commence discussions or negotiations with, or provide nonpublic information (other than nonpublic information with respect to C-W) to the person making such Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that UNITRIN shall only be released from its obligations under Section 4.3(a) pursuant to this Section 4.3(b)(iii) with respect to such Acquisition Proposal.

(c) C-W shall be relieved of its obligations under Section 4.3(a) (to the extent specifically set forth in this Section 4.3(c)) if after receipt of a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal, the Board of Directors of C-W in good faith determines, after consultation with its outside counsel, that it would be inconsistent with the Board's fiduciary duties to stockholders of C-W not to commence discussions or negotiations with, or provide nonpublic information to, the person making such Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that C-W shall only be released from its obligations under Section 4.3(a) pursuant to this Section 4.3(c) with respect to such Acquisition Proposal.

SECTION 4.4 Certain Other Agreements. During the period commencing on the date hereof and continuing until the earlier of the termination of this Agreement or the consummation of the Recapitalization, UNITRIN hereby agrees that it shall not, and that it shall cause each of its Affiliates not to, without the prior approval of the Board of Directors of C-W, directly or indirectly, (a) make, or in any way participate in, any 'solicitation' of 'proxies' (as such terms are defined or used in Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act) to consent or vote or seek to advise or influence any Person with respect to the voting of any shares of Common Stock; (b) form, join or in any way participate in any Group (other than with respect to its Affiliates) with respect to any of the shares of Common Stock; (c) otherwise act, either alone or in concert with others, to seek control of C-W, including by submitting any written consent in furtherance of the foregoing or calling a special meeting of C-W stockholders; (d) publicly disclose any intention, proposal, plan or arrangement with respect to any foregoing; or (e) make any demand, request or proposal to amend, waive or terminate any provision of this Section 4.4.

SECTION 4.5 Public Announcements. Each of UNITRIN and C-W agrees that no public release or announcement concerning the Recapitalization or the Distribution shall be issued by either party without the prior written consent of the other (which shall not be unreasonably withheld), except as such release or announcement may be required by law or the rules or regulations of any United States securities exchange or the Nasdaq Stock Market, in which case the party required to make the release or announcement shall use all reasonable efforts to allow each other party reasonable time to comment on each release or announcement in advance of such issuance.

SECTION 4.6 Required Consents. Each of UNITRIN and C-W shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain all of the consents, waivers or authorizations required in connection with the completion of the Recapitalization and the Distribution, including, without limitation, (a) any material governmental approvals and consents necessary to consummate the Distribution and the other transactions contemplated hereby and by the Recapitalization Agreement and (b) those consents listed on Schedule 4.6 (collectively, the 'Required Consents').

SECTION 4.7 Litigation Cooperation. Each of UNITRIN and C-W shall use reasonable efforts to make available to the other party, upon written request and at the expense of the other party, its officers, directors, employees and agents as witnesses to the extent such Persons may reasonably be required in connection with any Action arising out of

(a) the business of such other party and its predecessors, if any, in which the requesting party may from time to time be involved; provided that such Action does not involve a claim by either of UNITRIN or C-W against the other or
(b) the matters contained in Section 2.4 and Article 3 hereof.

SECTION 4.8 Other Matters. Each of UNITRIN and C-W shall negotiate in good faith to execute prior to the Distribution Date such further certificates, agreements and other documents which are reasonably necessary to consummate or implement the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Recapitalization Agreement.

SECTION 5.10 Termination.

(a) Prior to the filing of the Certificate of Merger, this Agreement may be terminated:

(i) by mutual written consent of UNITRIN and C-W;

(ii) by either UNITRIN or C-W if the other party is in breach of any of its obligations or representations and warranties herein or under the Recapitalization Agreement, which breach would result in a Material Adverse Effect on such party after giving effect to the Distribution, and such other party fails to cure such breach within 30 days following notice;

(iii) by C-W if, following receipt of an Acquisition Proposal, the Board of Directors of C-W is required by its fiduciary duties to stockholders of C-W to terminate this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement and accept such Acquisition Proposal; provided that in such event C-W shall pay the reasonable documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by UNITRIN in connection with this Agreement, the Recapitalization Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby in an aggregate amount of up to $2.3 million, but only to the extent that UNITRIN does not agree to, or otherwise vote in favor of, such Acquisition Proposal;

(iv) by UNITRIN if (A) the Board of Directors of C-W shall or shall resolve to (I) not recommend, or withdraw its approval or recommendation of, the Recapitalization, the Recapitalization Agreement, this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated thereby or hereby, (II) modify any such approval or recommendation in a manner adverse to UNITRIN or (III) approve, recommend or enter into an agreement for any Acquisition Proposal, (B) the stockholders of C-W shall not approve the Recapitalization or (C) following receipt of an

Acquisition Proposal, the Board of Directors of UNITRIN is required by its fiduciary duties to stockholders of UNITRIN to terminate this Agreement and accept such Acquisition Proposal; provided that (I) in the case of clause (A) above, C-W shall pay the reasonable documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by UNITRIN in connection with this Agreement, the Recapitalization Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby in an aggregate amount of up to $2.3 million and (II) in the case of clause (C) above, UNITRIN shall pay the reasonable documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by C-W in connection with this Agreement, the Recapitalization Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby in an aggregate amount of up to $2.3 million; or

(v) by either UNITRIN or C-W if the Recapitalization is not consummated by October 26, 2001; provided that if the conditions set forth in Section 4.1(a) and 4.2(a) of the Recapitalization Agreement shall have been satisfied by October 26, 2001 but the Recapitalization shall not have been consummated by such date, then the time period set forth in this clause (v) shall be extended to the date that is 30 days after the Stockholders Meeting at which the conditions set forth in Section 4.1(a) and 4.2(a) of the Recapitalization Agreement were satisfied; provided further that this right shall not be available to any party that is in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement or the Recapitalization.

(b) This Agreement shall terminate automatically without any action on the part of C-W or UNITRIN in the event the Recapitalization Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

(c) Except as specifically set forth in clause (a) above or the Recapitalization Agreement and for any liability in respect of any breach of this Agreement or the Recapitalization Agreement by either party, no party shall have any liability of any kind to any other party or any other person as a result of the termination of this Agreement. After the filing of the Certificate of Merger relating to the Recapitalization, this Agreement may not be terminated except by an agreement in writing signed by both parties.

SECTION 5.11 Subsidiaries. Each of the parties hereto shall cause to be performed, and hereby guarantees the performance of, all actions, agreements and obligations set forth herein to be performed by any Subsidiary of such party or by any entity that is contemplated to be a Subsidiary of such party on or after the Distribution Date (it being understood that C-W and its Subsidiaries shall not be considered a Subsidiary of UNITRIN).

SECTION 5.12 Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as provided in Article 3 relating to Indemnitees, this Agreement is solely for the benefit of the parties hereto and should not be deemed to confer upon third parties any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, claim of action or other right in excess of those existing without reference to this Agreement.

SECTION 5.13 Title and Headings. Titles and headings to sections herein are inserted for the convenience of reference only and are not intended to be a part of or to affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

SECTION 5.14 Exhibits and Schedules. The Exhibits and Schedules shall be construed with and as an integral part of this Agreement to the same extent as if the same had been set forth verbatim herein.

Each of the parties irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any state court of the State of Delaware and the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, for the purposes of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby. Each of the parties agrees to commence any action, suit or proceeding relating hereto in such Delaware court. Each of the parties further agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to such party's respective address set forth above shall be effective service of process for any action, suit or proceeding in Delaware with respect to any matters to which it has submitted to jurisdiction in this Section 5.16. Each of the parties irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby in such Delaware court and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

SECTION 5.17 Severability. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and therein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby; provided, however, that the consummation of the Recapitalization is conditioned upon and is not severable from the Distribution, and that the Distribution is not severable from the Recapitalization. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions, the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the day and year first above written.

RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION OF CURTISS-WRIGHT CORPORATION

The original Certificate of Incorporation of Curtiss-Wright Corporation was filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on August 9, 1929. This Restated Certificate of Incorporation, which further amends and restates the certificate of incorporation as heretofore amended and restated, was duly adopted in accordance with the provisions of Sections 242 and 245 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware ('DGCL').

1. The name of the Corporation is CURTISS-WRIGHT CORPORATION.
2. The registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware is 1209 Orange Street, in the City of Wilmington and County of New Castle. The registered agent at said address is the Corporation Trust Company.
3. The nature of the business and purposes to be conducted and promoted are to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the DGCL.
4. Authorized Stock. The Corporation is authorized to issue three classes of stock. The total number of shares which the Corporation is authorized to issue is Twenty-Three Million One Hundred Fifty Thousand (23,150,000) shares, of which Eleven Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand (11,250,000) shares shall be designated Common Stock, par value $1 per share (the 'Common Stock'), Eleven Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand (11,250,000) shares shall be designated Class B Common Stock, par value $1 per share (the 'Class B Common Stock' and, together with the Common Stock, the 'Corporation Common Stock'), and Six Hundred Fifty Thousand (650,000) shares shall be designated Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share (the 'Preferred Stock'). The authorized number of shares of any such class or classes of stock may be increased or decreased by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the Corporation entitled to vote irrespective of Section 242(b)(2) of the DGCL or any successor provision thereto.
5. Preferred Stock. The Board of Directors of the Corporation is hereby authorized from time to time to provide by resolution for the issuance of shares of Preferred Stock in one or more series and to determine with respect to each such series the designation of and the number of shares comprising such series and the powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions, of such series.
6. Common Stock. The Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock shall be identical in all respects, except as otherwise provided by law or expressly provided herein. The relative powers, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations and restrictions of the shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall be as follows:
 - (a) Cash Dividends. Subject to the rights and preferences of any outstanding series of Preferred Stock, and except as otherwise provided for herein, the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends out of assets legally available therefor at such times and in such per share amounts as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine; provided that whenever a cash dividend is paid, the same amount shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.
 - (b) Stock Dividends. If at any time a dividend is to be paid in shares of Common Stock or shares of Class B Common Stock (a 'stock dividend'), such stock dividend may be declared and paid only as follows: only Common Stock may be paid to holders of Common Stock and only Class B Common Stock may be paid to holders of Class B Common Stock. Whenever a stock dividend is paid, the same rate or ratio of shares shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.
 - (c) Property Dividends. If at any time a dividend is to be paid in rights to purchase shares of the capital stock of the Corporation (a 'rights dividend'), then: (i) if the rights dividend is of rights that entitle the holder thereof to purchase shares of Common Stock (or shares of capital stock of the Corporation having voting rights equivalent to those of the Common Stock ('Equivalent Shares')) or Class B Common Stock (or shares of capital stock of the Corporation having voting rights equivalent to those of the Class B Common Stock ('Equivalent Class B Shares')) (whether initially or upon any adjustment thereunder), then only rights to acquire Common Stock or Equivalent Shares may be paid to holders of Common Stock and only rights to acquire Class B Common Stock or Equivalent Class B Shares may be paid to holders of Class B Common Stock; and (ii) if the rights dividend is of rights that entitle the holder thereof to purchase shares of capital stock of the Corporation other than Common Stock (or Equivalent Shares) or Class B Common Stock (or Equivalent Class B Shares) (whether initially or upon any adjustment thereunder), then the Board of Directors of the Corporation may pay such dividend of rights to the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock in such manner as the Board of Directors may determine. Whenever any property dividend is paid, the same rate or ratio of rights, securities or other property shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

(d) Stock Subdivisions and Combinations. The Corporation shall not subdivide, reclassify or combine stock of any class of Corporation Common Stock without at the same time making a proportionate subdivision, reclassification or combination of shares of the other class.

(e) Voting. Voting power shall be divided between the classes of stock as follows:

(i) Subject to Article 6(e)(ii), in the election of directors holders of Class B Common Stock, voting separately as a class together with the holders of shares of any other class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Class B Common Stock for the election of directors (the Class B Common Stock, together with such other shares, the 'Voting B Shares'), shall be entitled to elect that number of directors which constitutes 80% of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors (or, if such 80% is not a whole number, then the nearest higher whole number) (the 'Class B Common Stock Directors'). Each share of Class B Common Stock shall have one vote in the election of the Class B Common Stock Directors. Subject to Article 6(e)(ii), holders of Common Stock, voting separately as a class together with the holders of shares of any other class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Common Stock for the election of directors (the Common Stock, together with such other shares, the 'Voting Shares'), shall be entitled to elect the remaining directors (the 'Common Stock Directors'). Each share of Common Stock shall have one vote in the election of such directors. The initial Common Stock Director shall be designated by a majority of the directors of the Corporation as of the effectiveness of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation, and the holders of Voting Shares, voting separately as a class, shall be entitled to vote for the election or replacement of such Common Stock Director at the next annual meeting of stockholders. The initial Class B Directors shall be designated by a majority of the directors of the Corporation as of the effectiveness of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation, and the holders of the Voting B Shares, voting separately as a class, shall be entitled to vote for the election or replacement of such Class B Directors at the next annual meeting of stockholders. For purposes of this Article 6(e)(i), references to the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors shall not include any directors which the holders of any shares of any series of Preferred Stock have the right to elect voting separately as one or more series.

(ii) For purposes of this Article 6(e)(ii), 'Special Voting Rights' means the different voting rights of the holders of Common Stock, on the one hand, and the holders of Class B Common Stock, on the other hand, with respect to the election of the applicable percentage of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors as described in Article 6(e)(i). If approved by the Board of Directors, at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, a majority of the outstanding shares of the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, voting together as a class, may vote to eliminate the Special Voting Rights (the 'Elimination Vote'), in which case the Special Voting Rights provided for in Article 6(e)(i) shall have no further force or effect, and thereafter holders of the Corporation Common Stock shall have equal voting rights in all respects, except as otherwise required by law, and shall be entitled to elect the total authorized number of members of the Board of Directors voting together (along with the holders of any other Voting Stock (as defined below)) as a single class. 'Voting Stock' shall mean the Common Stock, the Class B Common Stock and the shares of any class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Common Stock or the Class B Common Stock for the election of directors.

(iii) Unless the Special Voting Rights have been eliminated in accordance with Article 6(e)(ii), all newly-created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors shall be allocated between Common Stock Directors and Class B Directors such that at all times the number of Class B Common Stock directorships shall be 80% of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors (or, if such 80% is not a whole number, then the nearest higher whole number) and the remaining directorships shall be Common Stock directorships.

(iv) Except as otherwise specified herein or required by law, the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall in all matters not otherwise specified in this Article 6(e) vote together as one class, with each share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock having one vote.

(f) Merger or Consolidation. The Corporation shall not enter into any consolidation of the Corporation with one or more other corporations, a merger of the Corporation with another corporation, a reorganization of the Corporation or other similar combination of the Corporation with one or more third parties, unless each holder of a share of Common Stock or Class B Common Stock is entitled to receive with respect to such share the same kind and amount of shares of stock and other securities and property (including cash) receivable upon such consolidation, merger, reorganization or other combination as each other holder of a share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock; provided that, in any such transaction consummated prior to the Elimination Vote, the holders of shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock may each receive different kinds of shares of stock that differ to the extent and only to the extent that the Board of Directors determines in good faith that such shares differ with respect to the rights of holders of such shares to the same extent as the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock differ as provided herein.

(g) Liquidation. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall participate equally per share in any distribution to stockholders, without distinction between classes.

7. The following provisions are inserted for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation, and for the purpose of creating, defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the Corporation and its directors and stockholders:

(a) Except as otherwise fixed pursuant to Article 5 of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation relating to the rights of the holders of any one or more series of Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation acting separately as one or more series to elect, under specified circumstances, directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the Board of Directors shall consist of not less than five nor more than ten persons, the exact number to be fixed from time to time exclusively by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors. A director need not be a stockholder. The election of directors of the Corporation need not be by ballot unless the By-Laws so require.

(b) Subject to Articles 7(d) and 7(e), any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. Any director elected to fill a vacancy not resulting from an increase in the number of directors shall have the same remaining term as that of his predecessor.

Whenever the holders of any one or more series of Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation shall have the right, voting separately as a series or together as series, to elect directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the election, term of office, filling of vacancies and other features of such directorships shall be governed by the terms of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation applicable thereto.

(c) The Board of Directors may, by resolution or resolutions, passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of two or more of the directors of the Corporation, which to the extent permitted by law and provided in said resolution or resolutions or in the By-Laws of the Corporation shall have and may exercise the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation and may have the power to authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which require it. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be stated in the By-Laws of the Corporation, or as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors.

(d) Any vacancy in the office of a director created by the death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office of a director or other cause, elected by (or appointed on behalf of) the holders of the Voting B Shares, on the one hand, or the holders of the Voting Shares, on the other hand, as the case may be, shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors (or the sole remaining director) elected by (or appointed on behalf of) such holders of Voting B Shares, on the one hand, or Voting Shares, on the other hand, as the case may be, unless there are no such directors in such class, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the holders of the Voting B Shares or Voting Shares, respectively, or unless the Elimination Vote shall have occurred, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors (or the sole remaining director) then in office, even if less than a quorum, regardless of any quorum requirements set out in the By-Laws.

(e) Unless the Elimination Vote shall have occurred, all newly-created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors shall be allocated pursuant to Article 6(e)(iii). Once such newly-created directorships have been allocated as Common Stock Directors or Class B Directors, such newly-created directorships shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors in such class (or the sole remaining director in such class), as the case may be, unless there are no such directors in such class, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the holders of the Voting Shares or Voting B Shares, respectively, or unless the Elimination Vote shall have occurred, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors (or the sole remaining director) then in office, even if less than a quorum, regardless of any quorum requirements set out in the By-Laws. Any director elected in accordance with the preceding sentence shall hold office until the next annual meeting or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation or removal. No decrease in the number of authorized directors constituting the entire Board of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

8. To the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, no director of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. Neither the amendment nor repeal of this Article 8, nor the adoption of any provision of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation inconsistent with this Article 8, shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this Article 8 in respect of any act or omission of any director of the Corporation or any matter occurring, or any cause of action, suit or claim that, but for this Article 8, would accrue or arise, prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision.

9. (a) Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other (hereinafter a 'proceeding'), by reason of the fact that such person, or a person of whom such person is the legal representative, is or was a director, officer or employee of the Corporation or is or was serving in the course of such employment, or at the request of the Corporation, as a director, officer, employee or representative of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action or inaction in an official capacity as such a director, officer, employee or representative or in any other capacity while serving as such a director, officer, employee or representative, shall be indemnified

and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or representative and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives; provided, however that, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this Article 9, the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with such a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such proceeding (or part thereof), or the initiation thereof, was authorized or approved by the Corporation. The Corporation shall pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by such a person described in the preceding sentence (but subject to the proviso thereto) in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided, that, to the extent required by law, such payment of expenses in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding shall be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay all amounts advanced if it should be ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article 9 or otherwise.

(b) If a claim under paragraph (a) of this Article 9 is not paid in full by the Corporation within thirty (30) days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the requirements of the Delaware General Corporation Law have been complied with by the claimant) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the Delaware General Corporation Law for the Corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because the claimant has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard or conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create the presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(c) The rights conferred by this Article 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, By-Law, Agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

(d) The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself, its subsidiary and affiliated corporations, and any such director, officer, employee or representative of the Corporation or other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any such expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

10. Except as otherwise fixed pursuant to the provisions of Article 5 of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation relating to the rights of the holders of any one or more series of Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation to call an annual or special meeting of stockholders, special meetings of the stockholders of the Corporation may be called only by the Chairman, or in his absence by the President, by the Board of Directors, or by the Secretary at the request in writing of a majority of the Board of Directors and may not be called by the stockholders of the Corporation.

11. Any action required to be taken or which may be taken by the holders of the Corporation Common Stock must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting of such holders and may not be taken by written consent in lieu of a meeting.

12. The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt, alter, amend and repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation, in any manner not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Delaware, subject to the power of the stockholders to adopt, amend or repeal the By-Laws. Notwithstanding anything else contained in this Restated Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws to the contrary, the affirmative vote of the holders of record of at least 66 2/3% of the combined voting power of all of the outstanding stock of the company entitled to vote in respect thereof, voting together as a single class, shall be required (A) to alter, amend, rescind or repeal Article 7, Article 10, Article 11 or this Article 12 of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation or to adopt any provision inconsistent therewith or (B) in order for the stockholders to adopt, alter, amend, rescind or repeal any By-Laws of the Corporation.

13. Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between this Corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between this Corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of this Corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for this Corporation under the provisions of Section 291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for this Corporation under the provisions of Section 279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of this Corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of this Corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of this Corporation as consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of this Corporation, as the case may be, and also on this Corporation.

APPENDIX C-2

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION
CURTISS-WRIGHT CORPORATION

The original Certificate of Incorporation of Curtiss-Wright Corporation was filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on August 9, 1929. This Restated Certificate of Incorporation, which further amends and restates the certificate of incorporation as heretofore amended and restated, was duly adopted in accordance with the provisions of Sections 242 and 245 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware ('DGCL').

1. The name of the Corporation is CURTISS-WRIGHT CORPORATION.
2. The registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware is 1209 Orange Street, in the City of Wilmington and County of New Castle. The registered agent at said address is the Corporation Trust Company.
3. The nature of the business and purposes to be conducted and promoted are to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the DGCL.
4. Authorized Stock. The Corporation is authorized to issue three classes of stock. The total number of shares which the Corporation is authorized to issue is Twenty-Three Million One Hundred Fifty Thousand (23,150,000) shares, of which Eleven Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand (11,250,000) shares shall be designated Common Stock, par value $1 per share (the 'Common Stock'), Eleven Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand (11,250,000) shares shall be designated Class B Common Stock, par value $1 per share (the 'Class B Common Stock' and, together with the Common Stock, the 'Corporation Common Stock'), and Six Hundred Fifty Thousand (650,000) shares shall be designated Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share (the 'Preferred Stock'). The authorized number of shares of any such class or classes of stock may be increased or decreased by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the Corporation entitled to vote irrespective of Section 242(b)(2) of the DGCL or any successor provision thereto.
5. Preferred Stock. The Board of Directors of the Corporation is hereby authorized from time to time to provide by resolution for the issuance of shares of Preferred Stock in one or more series and to determine with respect to each such series the designation of and the number of shares comprising such series and the powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions, of such series.
6. Common Stock. The Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock shall be identical in all respects, except as otherwise provided by law or expressly provided herein. The relative powers, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations and restrictions of the shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall be as follows:
 - (a) Cash Dividends. Subject to the rights and preferences of any outstanding series of Preferred Stock, and except as otherwise provided for herein, the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends out of assets legally available therefor at such times and in such per share amounts as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine; provided that whenever a cash dividend is paid, the same amount shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.
 - (b) Stock Dividends. If at any time a dividend is to be paid in shares of Common Stock or shares of Class B Common Stock (a 'stock dividend'), such stock dividend may be declared and paid only as follows: only Common Stock may be paid to holders of Common Stock and only Class B Common Stock may be paid to holders of Class B Common Stock. Whenever a stock dividend is paid, the same rate or ratio of shares shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.
 - (c) Property Dividends. If at any time a dividend is to be paid in rights to purchase shares of the capital stock of the Corporation (a 'rights dividend'), then: (i) if the rights dividend is of rights that entitle the holder thereof to purchase shares of Common Stock (or shares of capital stock of the Corporation having voting rights equivalent to those of the Common Stock ('Equivalent Shares')) or Class B Common Stock (or shares of capital stock of the Corporation having voting rights equivalent to those of the Class B Common Stock ('Equivalent Class B Shares')) (whether initially or upon any adjustment thereunder), then only rights to acquire Common Stock or Equivalent Shares may be paid to holders of Common Stock and only rights to acquire Class B Common Stock or Equivalent Class B Shares may be paid to holders of Class B Common Stock; and (ii) if the rights dividend is of rights that entitle the holder thereof to purchase shares of capital stock of the Corporation other than Common Stock (or Equivalent Shares) or Class B Common Stock (or Equivalent Class B Shares) (whether initially or upon any adjustment thereunder), then the Board of Directors of the Corporation may pay such dividend of rights to the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock in such manner as the Board of Directors may determine. Whenever any property dividend is paid, the same rate or ratio of rights, securities or other property shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

(d) Stock Subdivisions and Combinations. The Corporation shall not subdivide, reclassify or combine stock of any class of Corporation Common Stock without at the same time making a proportionate subdivision, reclassification or combination of shares of the other class.

(e) Voting. Voting power shall be divided between the classes of stock as follows:

(i) Subject to Article 6(e)(ii), in the election of directors holders of Class B Common Stock, voting separately as a class together with the holders of shares of any other class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Class B Common Stock for the election of directors (the Class B Common Stock, together with such other shares, the 'Voting B Shares'), shall be entitled to elect that number of directors which constitutes 80% of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors (or, if such 80% is not a whole number, then the nearest higher whole number) (the 'Class B Common Stock Directors'). Each share of Class B Common Stock shall have one vote in the election of the Class B Common Stock Directors. Subject to Article 6(e)(ii), holders of Common Stock, voting separately as a class together with the holders of shares of any other class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Common Stock for the election of directors (the Common Stock, together with such other shares, the 'Voting Shares'), shall be entitled to elect the remaining directors (the 'Common Stock Directors'). Each share of Common Stock shall have one vote in the election of such directors. The initial Common Stock Director shall be designated by a majority of the directors of the Corporation as of the effectiveness of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation, and the holders of Voting Shares, voting separately as a class, shall be entitled to vote for the election or replacement of such Common Stock Director at the next annual meeting of stockholders. The initial Class B Directors shall be designated by a majority of the directors of the Corporation as of the effectiveness of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation, and the holders of the Voting B Shares, voting separately as a class, shall be entitled to vote for the election or replacement of such Class B Directors at the next annual meeting of stockholders. For purposes of this Article 6(e)(i), references to the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors shall not include any directors which the holders of any shares of any series of Preferred Stock have the right to elect voting separately as one or more series.

(ii) For purposes of this Article 6(e)(ii), 'Special Voting Rights' means the different voting rights of the holders of Common Stock, on the one hand, and the holders of Class B Common Stock, on the other hand, with respect to the election of the applicable percentage of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors as described in Article 6(e)(i). If approved by the Board of Directors, at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, a majority of the outstanding shares of the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, voting together as a class, may vote to eliminate the Special Voting Rights (the 'Elimination Vote'), in which case the Special Voting Rights provided for in Article 6(e)(i) shall have no further force or effect, and thereafter holders of the Corporation Common Stock shall have equal voting rights in all respects, except as otherwise required by law, and shall be entitled to elect the total authorized number of members of the Board of Directors voting together (along with the holders of any other Voting Stock (as defined below)) as a single class. 'Voting Stock' shall mean the Common Stock, the Class B Common Stock and the shares of any class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Common Stock or the Class B Common Stock for the election of directors.

(iii) Unless the Special Voting Rights have been eliminated in accordance with Article 6(e)(ii), all newly-created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors shall be allocated between Common Stock Directors and Class B Directors such that at all times the number of Class B Common Stock directorships shall be 80% of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors (or, if such 80% is not a whole number, then the nearest higher whole number) and the remaining directorships shall be Common Stock directorships.

(iv) Except as otherwise specified herein or required by law, the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall in all matters not otherwise specified in this Article 6(e) vote together as one class, with each share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock having one vote.

(f) Merger or Consolidation. The Corporation shall not enter into any consolidation of the Corporation with one or more other corporations, a merger of the Corporation with another corporation, a reorganization of the Corporation or other similar combination of the Corporation with one or more third parties, unless each holder of a share of Common Stock or Class B Common Stock is entitled to receive with respect to such share the same kind and amount of shares of stock and other securities and property (including cash) receivable upon such consolidation, merger, reorganization or other combination as each other holder of a share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock; provided that, in any such transaction consummated prior to the Elimination Vote, the holders of shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock may each receive different kinds of shares of stock that differ to the extent and only to the extent that the Board of Directors determines in good faith that such shares differ with respect to the rights of holders of such shares to the same extent as the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock differ as provided herein.

(g) Liquidation. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall participate equally per share in any distribution to stockholders, without distinction between classes.

7. The following provisions are inserted for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation, and for the purpose of creating, defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the Corporation and its directors and stockholders:

(a) [The By-Laws of the Corporation shall fix the number of directors and prescribe their term of office, and from time to time the number of directors may be increased or decreased by amendment of the By-Laws, provided that the number of directors shall not be less than five (5). A director need not be a stockholder. The election of directors of the Corporation need not be by ballot unless the By-Laws so require.]¹ [Except as otherwise fixed pursuant to Article 5 of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation relating to the rights of the holders of any one or more series of Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation acting separately as one or more series to elect, under specified circumstances, directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the Board of Directors shall consist of not less than five (5) nor more than ten (10) persons, the exact number to be fixed from time to time exclusively by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors. A director need not be a stockholder. The election of directors of the Corporation need not be by ballot unless the By-Laws so require.]²

1 If the Board Size Proposal is not approved, then Article 7(a) will include only this provision.

2 If the Board Size Proposal is approved, then Article 7(a) will include only this provision.

(b) Subject to Articles 7(d) and 7(e), any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. Any director elected to fill a vacancy not resulting from an increase in the number of directors shall have the same remaining term as that of his predecessor.

Whenever the holders of any one or more series of Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation shall have the right, voting separately as a series or together as series, to elect directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the election, term of office, filling of vacancies and other features of such directorships shall be governed by the terms of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation applicable thereto.

(c) The Board of Directors may, by resolution or resolutions, passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of two or more of the directors of the Corporation, which to the extent permitted by law and provided in said resolution or resolutions or in the By-Laws of the Corporation shall have and may exercise the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation and may have the power to authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which require it. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be stated in the By-Laws of the Corporation, or as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors.

(d) Any vacancy in the office of a director created by the death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office of a director or other cause, elected by (or appointed on behalf of) the holders of the Voting B Shares, on the one hand, or the holders of the Voting Shares, on the other hand, as the case may be, shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors (or the sole remaining director) elected by (or appointed on behalf of) such holders of Voting B Shares, on the one hand, or Voting Shares, on the other hand, as the case may be, unless there are no such directors in such class, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the holders of the Voting B Shares or Voting Shares, respectively, or unless the Elimination Vote shall have occurred, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors (or the sole remaining director) then in office, even if less than a quorum, regardless of any quorum requirements set out in the By-Laws.

(e) Unless the Elimination Vote shall have occurred, all newly-created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors shall be allocated pursuant to Article 6(e)(iii). Once such newly-created directorships have been allocated as Common Stock Directors or Class B Directors, such newly-created directorships shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors in such class (or the sole remaining director in such class), as the case may be, unless there are no such directors in such class, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the holders of the Voting Shares or Voting B Shares, respectively, or unless the Elimination Vote shall have occurred, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors (or the sole remaining director) then in office, even if less than a quorum, regardless of any quorum requirements set out in the By-Laws. Any director elected in accordance with the preceding sentence shall hold office until the next annual meeting or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation or removal. No decrease in the number of authorized directors constituting the entire Board of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

8. To the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, no director of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. Neither the amendment nor repeal of this Article 8, nor the adoption of any provision of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation inconsistent with this Article 8, shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this Article 8 in respect of any act or omission of any director of the Corporation or any matter occurring, or any cause of action, suit or claim that, but for this Article 8, would accrue or arise, prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision.

9. (a) Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other (hereinafter a 'proceeding'), by reason of the fact that such person, or a person of whom such person is the legal representative, is or was a director, officer or employee of the Corporation or is or was serving in the course of such employment, or at the request of the Corporation, as a director, officer, employee or representative of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action or inaction in an official capacity as such a director, officer, employee or representative or in any other capacity while serving as such a director, officer, employee or representative, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or representative and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives; provided, however that, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this Article 9, the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with such a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such proceeding (or part thereof), or the initiation thereof, was authorized or approved by the Corporation. The Corporation shall pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by such a person described in the preceding sentence (but subject to the proviso thereto) in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided, that, to the extent required by law, such payment of expenses in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding shall be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay all amounts advanced if it should be ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article 9 or otherwise.

(b) If a claim under paragraph (a) of this Article 9 is not paid in full by the Corporation within thirty (30) days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the requirements of the Delaware General Corporation Law have been complied with by the claimant) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the Delaware General Corporation Law for the Corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because the claimant has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard or conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create the presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(c) The rights conferred by this Article 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, By-Law, Agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

(d) The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself, its subsidiary and affiliated corporations, and any such director, officer, employee or representative of the Corporation or other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any such expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

[10. Except as otherwise fixed pursuant to the provisions of Article 5 of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation relating to the rights of the holders of any one or more series of Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation to call an annual or special meeting of stockholders, special meetings of the stockholders of the Corporation may be called only by the Chairman, or in his absence by the President, by the Board of Directors, or by the Secretary at the request in writing of a majority of the Board of Directors and may not be called by the stockholders of the Corporation.]3

[11. Any action required to be taken or which may be taken by the holders of the Corporation Common Stock must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting of such holders and may not be taken by written consent in lieu of a meeting.]4

[10][11][12]. The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt, alter, amend and repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation, in any manner not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Delaware, subject to the power of the stockholders to adopt, amend or repeal the By-Laws. [Notwithstanding anything else contained in this Restated Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws to the contrary, the affirmative vote of the holders of record of at least 66 2/3% of the combined voting power of all of the outstanding stock of the company entitled to vote in respect thereof, voting together as a single class, shall be required (A) to alter, amend, rescind or repeal Article 7, Article 10, Article 11 or this Article 12 of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation or to adopt any provision inconsistent therewith or (B) in order for the stockholders to adopt, alter, amend, rescind or repeal any By-Laws of the Corporation.]5

[11][12][13]. Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between this Corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between this Corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of this Corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for this Corporation under the provisions of Section 291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for this Corporation under the provisions of Section 279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of this Corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of this Corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of this Corporation as consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of this Corporation, as the case may be, and also on this Corporation.

3 This Article 10 will be included if the Special Meeting Proposal is approved.

4 This Article 11 will be included if the Written Consent Proposal is approved.

5 This provision will be added if the Supermajority Voting Proposal is approved.

Such lists shall be open to the examination of any stockholder for any purpose germane to the meeting as required by the Delaware General Corporation Law, and shall be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and subject to the inspection of any stockholder who may be present. Upon the willful neglect or refusal of the directors to produce such lists at any meeting, they shall be ineligible to any office at such meeting. The original or a duplicate stock ledger shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, such lists, or the books of the Corporation or to vote in person or by proxy at such meeting.

SECTION 6. Quorum. At each meeting of the stockholders, the holders of not less than a majority of the issued and outstanding stock of the Corporation present either in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at such meeting shall constitute a quorum except where otherwise provided by law or by the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or these by-laws. In the absence of a quorum, the stockholders of the Corporation present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, by majority vote, or, in the absence of any stockholders, any officer entitled to preside or act as Secretary at such meeting, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, until stockholders holding the requisite amount of stock shall be present or represented. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum may be present any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called. The absence from any meeting of the number required by the laws of the State of Delaware or by the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation or by these by-laws for action upon any given matter shall not prevent action at such meetings upon any other matter or matters which may properly come before the meeting, and if the holders of not less than a majority of the issued and outstanding stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at that time upon such other matter or matters shall be present either in person or by proxy at such meeting, a quorum for the consideration of such other matter or matters shall be present and the meeting may proceed forthwith and take action upon such other matter or matters.

SECTION 7. Organization. The Chairman or, in his absence, the President, or, in the absence of both of them, any Vice President present, shall call meetings of the stockholders to order and shall act as Chairman thereof. In the absence of all of the foregoing officers, the holders of a majority in interest of the stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote may elect any stockholder of record present and entitled to vote to act as Chairman of the meeting until such time as any one of the foregoing officers shall arrive, whereupon he shall act as Chairman of the meeting. The Secretary or, in his absence, an Assistant Secretary shall act as secretary at all meetings of the stockholders. In the absence from any such meeting of the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary or Secretaries, the Chairman may appoint any person present to act as secretary of the meeting. Such person shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties as such secretary of the meeting before entering thereon.

SECTION 8. Notice of Stockholder Business and Nominations.

(a) Annual Meetings of Stockholders.

(i) Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors of the Corporation and the proposal of business to be considered by the stockholders may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders only (A) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto), (B) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (C) by any stockholder of the Corporation who was a stockholder of record of the Corporation at the time the notice provided for in this Section 8 is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation, who is entitled to vote at a meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 8.

(ii) For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder pursuant to clause (C) of paragraph (i) of this Section 8, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation and any such proposed business other than the nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors must constitute a proper matter for stockholder action. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the ninetieth day nor earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth day prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting (provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than thirty days before or more than seventy days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the Corporation). In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth: (A) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election as a director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the 'Exchange Act') (and such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (B) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the text of the proposal or business (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration and in the event that such business includes a proposal to amend the by-laws of the Corporation, the language of the proposed amendment), the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (C) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner, the class and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner, a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such business or nomination, and a representation whether the stockholder or the beneficial owner, if any, intends or is part of a group which intends (x) to deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the Corporation's outstanding capital stock required to approve or adopt the proposal or elect the nominee and/or (y) otherwise to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of such proposal or nomination. The foregoing notice requirements shall be deemed satisfied by a stockholder if the stockholder has notified the Corporation of his or her intention to present a proposal at an annual meeting in compliance with Rule 14a-8 (or any successor thereof) promulgated under the Exchange Act and such stockholder's proposal has been included in a proxy statement that has been prepared by the Corporation to solicit proxies for such annual meeting. The Corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as it may reasonably require to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as a director of the Corporation.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything in the second sentence of paragraph

(a)(ii) of this Section 8 to the contrary, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation at an annual meeting is increased and the stockholders of the Corporation are entitled to fill such vacancies in accordance with the Restated Certificate of Incorporation and these by-laws and there is no public announcement by the Corporation naming the nominees for the additional directorships at least one hundred days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, and a stockholder's notice required by this Section 8 shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for the additional directorships, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

(b) Special Meetings of Stockholders.

Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a special meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting

(x) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (y) provided that the Board of Directors has determined that directors shall be elected at such meeting, by any stockholder of the Corporation who is a stockholder of record at the time the notice provided for in this Section 8 is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and upon such election and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 8. In the event the Corporation calls a special meeting of stockholders for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the Board of Directors, any such stockholder entitled to vote in such election of directors may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be) for election to such position(s) as specified in the Corporation's notice of meeting, if the stockholder's notice required by paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 8 shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth day prior to such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth day prior to such special meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of a special meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above.

(c) General.

(i) Only such persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 8 shall be eligible to be elected at an annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation to serve as directors and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 8. Except as otherwise provided by law, the chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty (A) to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made or proposed, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 8 (including whether the stockholder or beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made solicited (or is part of a group which solicited) or did not so solicit, as the case may be, proxies in support of such stockholder's nominee or proposal in compliance with such stockholder's representation as required by clause (a)(ii)(C)(4) of this Section 8 and (B) if any proposed nomination or business was not made or proposed in compliance with this Section 8, to declare that such nomination shall be disregarded or that such proposed business shall not be transacted. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 8, if the stockholder (or a qualified representative of the stockholder) does not appear at the annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation to present a nomination or business, such nomination shall be disregarded and such proposed business shall not be transacted, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the Corporation.

(ii) For purposes of this Section 8, 'public announcement' shall include disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

(iii) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 8, a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 8. Nothing in this Section 8 shall be deemed to affect any rights (A) of stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act or (B) of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to elect directors pursuant to any applicable provisions of the Restated certificate of incorporation.

SECTION 9. Voting. Each stockholder of the Corporation shall, except as otherwise provided by statute or in these by-laws or in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, at every meeting of the stockholders be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy for each share of the capital stock of the Corporation registered in his name on the books of the Corporation on the date fixed pursuant to Section 6 of Article VII of these by-laws as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting. Persons holding in a fiduciary capacity stock having voting rights shall be entitled to vote the shares so held, and persons whose stock having voting rights is pledged shall be entitled to vote, unless in the transfer by the pledgor on the books he shall have expressly empowered the pledgee to vote thereon, in which case only the pledgee, or his proxy, may represent said stock and vote thereon. Any vote on stock may be given by the stockholder entitled thereto in person or by his proxy; provided, however, that no proxy shall be voted on after three years from its date unless said proxy provides for a longer period. At all meetings of the stockholders, all matters (except those specified in Section 4 of Article III and Article XI of these by-laws, and except also in special cases where other provision is made by statute, and except as otherwise provided in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation) shall be decided by the vote of a majority in interest of the stockholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote thereat, a quorum being present. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the vote on any question need not be by ballot. On a vote by ballot each ballot shall be signed by the stockholder voting, or in his name by his proxy if there be such proxy, and shall state the number of shares voted by him.

SECTION 10. Inspectors of Election. On each matter or election at each meeting of the stockholders where a vote by ballot is taken, the proxies and ballots shall be received and be taken in charge, and all questions touching the qualification of voters and the validity of proxies and the acceptance or rejection of votes, shall be decided by two inspectors of election who shall be appointed by the Chairman of such meeting. The inspectors of election need not be stockholders. No candidate for the office of director shall act as inspector at any election of directors. Inspectors shall count and ascertain the number of shares voted; and shall declare the result of the election or of the voting as the case may be; and shall make out a certificate accordingly, stating the number of shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such election or on such matters and the number of shares voted and how voted. Inspectors shall be sworn to faithfully perform their duties and shall certify to the returns in writing. They shall hold office from the date of their appointment until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified.

In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors present may adjourn any meeting from time to time until a quorum be had. Notice of any adjourned meeting need be given only to those directors who were not present at any meeting at which the adjournment was taken, provided the time and place of the adjourned meeting were announced at the meeting at which the adjournment was taken. The directors shall act only as a board and the individual directors shall have no power as such.

Every such notice shall state the time and place, but need not state the purposes, of the meeting except as otherwise in these by laws or by statute expressly provided. Notice of any such meeting need not be given to any member of a Committee, however, if waived by him in writing or by telegraph, cable, telex, facsimile transmitter, e-mail or other electronic transmission, whether before or after such meeting be held, or except as otherwise provided by law, if he shall attend such meeting in person, and, except as otherwise provided by law, any meeting of a Committee shall be a legal meeting without any notice thereof having been given if all of the members of the Committee shall be present thereat.

Such person shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties as such secretary of the meeting before entering thereon.

SECTION 8. Notice of Stockholder Business and Nominations.

(a) Annual Meetings of Stockholders.

(i) Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors of the Corporation and the proposal of business to be considered by the stockholders may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders only (A) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto), (B) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (C) by any stockholder of the Corporation who was a stockholder of record of the Corporation at the time the notice provided for in this Section 8 is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation, who is entitled to vote at a meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 8.

(ii) For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder pursuant to clause (C) of paragraph (i) of this Section 8, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation and any such proposed business other than the nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors must constitute a proper matter for stockholder action. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the ninetieth day nor earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth day prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting (provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than thirty days before or more than seventy days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the Corporation). In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth: (A) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election as a director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the 'Exchange Act') (and such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (B) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the text of the proposal or business (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration and in the event that such business includes a proposal to amend the by-laws of the Corporation, the language of the proposed amendment), the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (C) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner, the class and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner, a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such business or nomination, and a representation whether the stockholder or the beneficial owner, if any, intends or is part of a group which intends (x) to deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the Corporation's outstanding capital stock required to approve or adopt the proposal or elect the nominee and/or (y) otherwise to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of such proposal or nomination. The foregoing notice requirements shall be deemed satisfied by a stockholder if the stockholder has notified the Corporation of his or her intention to present a proposal at an annual meeting in compliance with Rule 14a-8 (or any successor thereof) promulgated under the Exchange Act and such stockholder's proposal has been included in a proxy statement that has been prepared by the Corporation to solicit proxies for such annual meeting. The Corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as it may reasonably require to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as a director of the Corporation.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything in the second sentence of paragraph

(a)(ii) of this Section 8 to the contrary, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation at an annual meeting is increased and the stockholders of the Corporation are entitled to fill such vacancies in accordance with the Restated Certificate of Incorporation and these by-laws and there is no public announcement by the Corporation naming the nominees for the additional directorships at least one hundred days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, and a stockholder's notice required by this Section 8 shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for the additional directorships, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

(b) Special Meetings of Stockholders.

Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a special meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting

(x) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (y) provided that the Board of Directors has determined that directors shall be elected at such meeting, by any stockholder of the Corporation who is a stockholder of record at the time the notice provided for in this Section 8 is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and upon such election and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 8. In the event the Corporation calls a special meeting of stockholders for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the Board of Directors, any such stockholder entitled to vote in such election of directors may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be) for election to such position(s) as specified in the Corporation's notice of meeting, if the stockholder's notice required by paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 8 shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth day prior to such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth day prior to such special meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of a special meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above.

(c) General.

(i) Only such persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 8 shall be eligible to be elected at an annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation to serve as directors and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 8. Except as otherwise provided by law, the chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty (A) to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made or proposed, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 8 (including whether the stockholder or beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made solicited (or is part of a group which solicited) or did not so solicit, as the case may be, proxies in support of such stockholder's nominee or proposal in compliance with such stockholder's representation as required by clause (a)(ii)(C)(4) of this Section 8 and (B) if any proposed nomination or business was not made or proposed in compliance with this Section 8, to declare that such nomination shall be disregarded or that such proposed business shall not be transacted. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 8, if the stockholder (or a qualified representative of the stockholder) does not appear at the annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation to present a nomination or business, such nomination shall be disregarded and such proposed business shall not be transacted, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the Corporation.

(ii) For purposes of this Section 8, 'public announcement' shall include disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

(iii) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 8, a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 8. Nothing in this Section 8 shall be deemed to affect any rights (A) of stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act or (B) of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to elect directors pursuant to any applicable provisions of the Restated certificate of incorporation.

SECTION 9. Voting. Each stockholder of the Corporation shall, except as otherwise provided by statute or in these by-laws or in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, at every meeting of the stockholders be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy for each share of the capital stock of the Corporation registered in his name on the books of the Corporation on the date fixed pursuant to Section 6 of Article VII of these by-laws as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting. Persons holding in a fiduciary capacity stock having voting rights shall be entitled to vote the shares so held, and persons whose stock having voting rights is pledged shall be entitled to vote, unless in the transfer by the pledgor on the books he shall have expressly empowered the pledgee to vote thereon, in which case only the pledgee, or his proxy, may represent said stock and vote thereon. Any vote on stock may be given by the stockholder entitled thereto in person or by his proxy; provided, however, that no proxy shall be voted on after three years from its date unless said proxy provides for a longer period. At all meetings of the stockholders, all matters (except those specified in Section 4 of Article III and Article XI of these by-laws, and except also in special cases where other provision is made by statute, and except as otherwise provided in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation) shall be decided by the vote of a majority in interest of the stockholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote thereat, a quorum being present. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the vote on any question need not be by ballot. On a vote by ballot each ballot shall be signed by the stockholder voting, or in his name by his proxy if there be such proxy, and shall state the number of shares voted by him.

SECTION 10. Inspectors of Election. On each matter or election at each meeting of the stockholders where a vote by ballot is taken, the proxies and ballots shall be received and be taken in charge, and all questions touching the qualification of voters and the validity of proxies and the acceptance or rejection of votes, shall be decided by two inspectors of election who shall be appointed by the Chairman of such meeting. The inspectors of election need not be stockholders. No candidate for the office of director shall act as inspector at any election of directors. Inspectors shall count and ascertain the number of shares voted; and shall declare the result of the election or of the voting as the case may be; and shall make out a certificate accordingly, stating the number of shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such election or on such matters and the number of shares voted and how voted. Inspectors shall be sworn to faithfully perform their duties and shall certify to the returns in writing. They shall hold office from the date of their appointment until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified.

[SECTION 11. Action by Consent. Whenever the vote of stockholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, by any provision of statute or of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or of these by-laws, the meeting, prior notice thereof, and vote of stockholders may be dispensed with, and the action taken without such meeting, notice and vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which date shall not be more than ten days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors.
